

Monarchs mark time in three games

Gibson Construction Monarchs midget lacrosse team marked time in Ontario Minor Lacrosse Association action with three defeats.

Without regular goalies Gary Williams or Pete Turkosz, Monarchs were swamped 36-4 Monday at Orangeville.

Shane Withers fired two Acton goals and got an assist, while Bruce McPhail got one goal and helped on a pair.

Todd McIntyre took Monarchs' other marker and Larry Kurtz got two assists. At London last Thursday Monarchs got two goals from McIntyre and singles from Withers, Mike Rippon, Jurtz, and Richy Gibson, but went down 16-6.

Assists went to Kurtz and McIntyre with two and Withers and Rippon with one each.

Monarchs played their most powerful period against Stratford here last Wednesday. Acton led the visitors 5-3 after the game opener, but Stratford banged in 12 goals to Monarchs' single in the next two periods.

Hurdle and McPhail led Monarchs with two goals and an assist each. Rippon and Kurtz scored Acton's other two goals. Kurtz also earned three assists in the evening's game.

ACTON AND PINEVIEW players scamper over M. Z. Bennett's pitch for control of the ball in Major Mosquito level soccer last Wednesday. Acton won 5-3 on Simon Ager's three goal effort and singles by Tom McDonough and Ken Kavanagh. Pineview marksmen were David Whitehead, with two, and Paul Clark.

Houston runs second in Kitchener 800 m

Distance runner Frank Houston came second in an open 800 metre race in Kitchener's Centennial Park last Tuesday, July 6.

His time of 1:58.1 was only bettered by Junior and Juvenile Canadian 3,000 metre champion Tom Lobsinger. Houston's time was his best ever for that distance. He normally enters 1,500 metre events.

Lobsinger's time of 1:53.6 placed him well ahead of the 30 other runners.

The Kitchener-Waterloo Track Club sponsored the race.

Pineview, Acton trade soccer victories

Jeff Shields led Acton bants with five goals against Pineview this week to keep the team's unbeaten streak intact in rural soccer league play this week.

ough and Tom McDonough added singles.

Dave Whitehead replied twice for Pineview and Paul Clark once.

Pineview got a bit back by edging the peewee team 4-3 in a closely fought match.

Rockwood bants defaulted their game here Monday against Acton. The Rockwood team failed to show up.

Teams in the soccer league are having either a two or three week break, depending on their slate.

Sad day for Acton

Acton teams were unsuccessful in the Glen Williams minor softball tournament on the weekend.

In squirt girls action, Acton lost 4-0 to the Glen in the first round. The Glen went on to win the trophy over Lowville.

Rick Lubbers doubled for the only Acton extra base hit, as the bantam boys took a 17-3 shellacking from Lowville. Lowville, who lost 6-3 to the Glen in the final, scored 11 runs in the first inning.

Wood bats

Pat Wood of Acton connected for two triples and was five for five in the Georgetown Georgetown 16-2 win over Hornby early this week.

Acton Open

Acton Open golf tournament is slated for August 7 at the Halton Heights Golf Club near Milton.

If foursomes are not matched by the players, they can be arranged by the open. The first round tees off with a shotgun start at 8 a.m.

Family girls

Family Cleaners Juvenile Girls went down to two defeats in Grand Valley action last week.

Sunday the juve girls dropped an 18-3 decision to Kitchener. The game was a replay of a rained out match from June.

Rockwood edged Family girls 5-2 a week ago Tuesday at Rockwood.

Ram passes

Ram Wayne Young marked a personal record during Acton's 16-14 win over Mississauga Medics here last Thursday.

He scored his 16th goal of the season, the most tallies he's registered in his two seasons in Junior "C" lacrosse. Last year he fired 15 goals.

Make up games alter men's ball standings

Acton Men's baseball league played three extra games last week in order to make up for rained out matches from last month.

Van's Welding and Halton Hills Electric share first place in the standings as a result of the extra games and regular play.

In regular Sunday afternoon play the electricians earned five runs in the second inning and another four in the fourth to take Halton Hills Catering 9-4. Frank Daley was the winning pitcher, Ken Pilgrim the loser.

Led by Family Cleaners led 7-4 after the first three innings against Station Hotel, but Family were kept scoreless for the balance of the game while Station pulled ahead with another ten runs.

Station's Dave McMillan connected for the game's only home run.

Guy Payne was up on the mound for Station against Cleaners' Doug Vickery.

Van's and Ledger's IGA tussled to a 4-3 conclusion in Van's favor. Art Lee hurled for Van's seventh win in the close contest.

Electricians scored eight runs in the opening two frames and held on as Station drew even by the sixth. The games remained deadlocked 8-8. Frank Daley pitched for Electric.

Colonials enter slump after week's break

Rockwood Colonials, following a week long slack period in the slate, went into a three game slump last week in Inter-County Fastball League action.

First at Aberfoyle's tournament Saturday the Arkell Juniors edged Colonials 4-1 under the pitching of Tom Jefferson. John Thatcher was on the mound for Rockwood.

Freelton won the Aberfoyle tourney by beating Badenoch 6-3.

11 Innings Hillsburgh visited Rockwood Sunday and went home with a 3-1 win in 11 Innings. Jim Keeler was Hillsburgh's pitcher, Pete Zess took the loss for Rockwood. Fergus continued to plague Rockwood last Wednesday by nipping Colonials 4-3 at Fergus. Carl Leybourne was the winning pitcher. Don Myers pitched for Rockwood.

Six The three straight losses give Colonials a six and ten record for the season. Colonials efforts to enter the Ontario Rural Softball Association (ORSA) ran afoul of a date change. Team officials were under the impression that July 15 was the final date for joining ORSA, but discovered too late that the date had been moved to July 1.
