Rockwood favors OT to slip into fourth

Rockwood Colonials put together two straight overtime wins to ease into fourth spot as the Inter-County Fastball League entered the last third of its 30 game season. Colonials dumped a surprised Fergus club in an extra inning contest on the Rockwood diamond Sunday. The win was Rockwood's first against Fergus and pitcher Russ Spicer, seven win and two losses, this season.

Fergus scored twice in the tenth after connecting once in the seventh and ninth. Colonials rallied with three runs in the bottom of the 10th to add to a pair they earned in the first for a 5-4 triumph. Big Z, Peter Zess (two wins, four losses) hurled Rockwood to its win. He also added a single hit. Norm Beattie led the Colonials' hitmen with three. Phil Shrive connected twice while Jim Lynch and Chick Milne got singles. Rockwood displaced Belwood in fourth place partially because of their 6-5 win at Belwood last Wednesday, also in one extra inning. John Thatcher, four wins; four losses, was on the mound for Rockwood. K. McFadden took the loss.

Bang Phil Shrive was bang on with three hits and John Parkinson collected a pair. Tom Parkinson, Dave Bruce and John Carson earned singles. In exhibition play the Colonials divided wins between Frelton and Aberfoyle at the Badenoch Tournament Saturday.

Rockwood defeated Frelton 10-7 in the first game, but were edged 4-2 by Aberfoyle Laidlaws in the second. Strabane Juniors blanked Eden Mills 1-0 to win the tournament title.

Men's softball

'Haves' blank 'have nots'

The results of the Acton Men's Softball Association action show that half the six contestants are "haves" and the other half are "have nots".

Station Hotel, Ledger's IGA and Halton Hills Catering were deprived of runs by Halton Hills Electric, Family Cleaners and Van's Welding. Vans and Electric tightened their grip on first place while Cleaners logged their second victory of the season.

Family's victory, the season's second, shows they are threatening to catch IGA and leave the slumping Ledger squad alone in the basement.

Jim Whitmill took the loss for Catering.

Vince Thornton and Rick Coe also connected for two hits in Van's cause. First baseman Wes Jones, Larry Kistner, Neil McKinnon and Jim McNabb added singles. Family Cleaners made short work of IGA under the hurrying of Fred Archibald. Both teams were tied null-null till the fifth inning when catcher Brian Hardman earned the first run of the game.

IGA Family's first baseman Ed Wood put the result out of reach of IGA with another run in the fifth. Gord Stanbridge was on the mound for Ledgers.

In the Hotel-Electric match, the Electricians scored twice in the opener and once in the second, third, fourth and sixth frames to blank the opposition six to nothing.

Jim Cole started Electric on its way with the first run of the game. Wally Holbiski, who earned two runs, opened up also in the first frame.

Danny Allen and Henry Toebes also connected for runs by the fourth inning. Hugh Forbes waited until the sixth frame before he ended Electric's scoring spree with his run. Frank Daley earned the victory for Electric.

Mosquitos, Bants extend win streaks

In rural division soccer action last week Mosquitos added to their unbeaten streak with a 9-5 victory over Hillsburgh.

Goal getters were Simon Ager, Gary White, Scott Altonby and Gord McArthur with two each. Matthew Wake fired a single.

Coach Alex Bameshaji reports that it had taken the boys a few weeks to get together as a team, but now they are all playing well and he has high hopes of finishing in the honors this season.

Convince The powerful Bant squad again took a convincing win from Fergus to keep their win record safe. In a 6-4 win, Jeff Shields scored four goals.

John Gibson and Steve Mitchell got one goal each.

Special mention has been made of several players on the Bantams, who although not high on the goal list, play exceptionally well week-after-week. Among them are Wade Vickery and Jim Jordan.

Skill Although a strong and skillful team, several of the bant squad need to learn that an important part of any game is discipline, both to the coaches' instructions and to the rules of the game as interpreted by the referee.

In house league action, the Acton division finished the first part of the season with Rovers beating Rangers 1-0; Rockwood 4-0 over Hillsburgh 1; and Hillsburgh 11 failing to show against Centennials.

On the squirt level, Acton Tigers blanked Rockwood 4-0 and Acton Angels beat Hillsburgh 4-1.

Finally in Mosquito action, Rockwood edged Flyers 3-2 and it was Raiders 5, Tornados 2.

Squirts hand Moms one 7-inning defeat

Team spirit fractured family ties as the Squirt Girls dished out a 9-4 defeat to their Moms in exhibition baseball Friday. Moms packed all their runs in the fifth inning, while their Daughters spread their efforts throughout the 7-inning game on the park diamond.

Theresa Dunn pitched for the kids, while Mrs. Raine took the mound for the Mothers.

The Moms: Raine, Glenn, Tuffy, White and DeBruyn scored.

The daughters: Theresa, two runs; Allison, one run plus a homer; Susan (Tufford), Susan (Wilson), Kim, Karen, and Sally replied.

Other Ladies who played were: Mrs. George, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Dunn.

Bev, Nancy and Laura made up the balance of the Daughters.
