

BOB AND DIANE SALTER, HUSBAND AND wife, walked off with the men's and ladies' club championships. Mrs. Salter shot an 88 Sunday to bring her two-round total to 179. The first 18-hole round was held on June 12. Mr. Salter, a first year member of Acton Meadows, recently won the men's title.

Colonials aim to end semi-finals tomorrow

Rockwood Colonials can wrap up their Inter-County Fastball semi-final playoff finals against Orangeville tomorrow night at Orangeville. Colonials have a three to one lead in the best of seven game series. In the other half of the semi-finals Cambridge leads Fergus two games to none. Last Sunday Don Myer struck out four Orangeville batters and gave up two runs on six hits for the win. He also added a couple of hits to the Rockwood cause.

Mound

Dwayne Donaldson was on the mound for Orangeville and he struck out seven, but gave up nine hits for five runs. Phil Shrive led the Colonials with three hits, while Myer and Jim Thatcher had two apiece. Norm Beattie and Chick Milne had single hits. Milne's was a two run home run in the fourth inning, and Thatchers was a first inning two run double. Orangeville came back in the third game of the series by clipping Rockwood 7-5 at Orangeville last Thursday. R. Burton was the winning pitcher while Pete Zess was on Rockwood's mound. Zess has a 2-6 record. Rockwood hitters were Phil (the engaged) Shrive, Norm Beattie, and Tom Parkinson with two each. Rob Gray, John Parkinson and Jim Lynch connected for singles. W. McKay replied with a home run in the fifth for Orangeville, and B. Little a three run home run in the third.

In the second game of the series, last Wednesday at Rockwood, the Colonials blanked the visitors three to nothing. Rockwood pitcher Don Myer boosted his record to 6-2, while Dwayne Donaldson took the loss for Orangeville. Myer gave up four hits and struckout five. Chick Milne and Norm Beattie led the Colonial batters with two hits each and singles from Don Myer and John Parkinson.

Former Sabre trains for N-E University

Former Acton Sabre Perry Caputo leaves his Milton home for Boston's North-Eastern University Friday. The university awarded Mr. Caputo a five-year hockey scholarship this summer. Mr. Caputo has worked out with the Junior B Sabres for the last couple of weeks. North-Eastern's hockey team, the Huskies, plays in division one of the East Coast Athletic Conference.

Swords aim to follow examples from Sabres

Acton's intermediate Ontario Hockey Association team, the Swords, plan to take a page from the Junior Sabres' book and change their status and league this season. Lack of money may, however, force the Swords to take a page in local history books instead. Former Sabre president turned Sabre manager Fred Buchanan said last Wednesday that the Swords have applied to enter the Intermediate B group with Milton, Ayr, Caledonia, Tillsonburg, Delhi and Port Dover.

Mr. Townsley, the arena manager, has been searching for a sponsor for some time. The team needs about $2,000, Mr. Buchanan said. As far as personnel, Sword coach Don Aubin is returning, Mr. Buchanan said, but the team is looking for a new manager because Lloyd Smallwood, last year's manager, intends to play this season. I'm hoping to get Paul Phelan as president and Bob Price to run the booster club because he promised me last year, Mr. Buchanan said.

Olympics gymnastics classes explained

Gymnastics supervisor Mrs. Joan Aggiss finds there are quite a few questions about this year's programs, and she would like to clear up a few points. Olympic Gymnastics for girls comprises of four exercises, the uneven bars, balance beam, vault and floor exercises which consist of both tumbling and dance movements together. The girls at both beginner and senior levels on Saturday mornings at Acton will work on all four pieces of apparatus. Any girls wishing to enter the senior program should have at least two years' previous experience on gymnastic equipment, Mrs. Aggiss says. The basic programs held at the different rural schools will teach tumbling moves on mats, vaulting over the box horse and balancing on loop last year. The Junior Sabres also played in a C group, but upped their status to B this summer and changed their playing ground to include Georgetown, Milton and other southern teams. "They (a new Sword executive) have to find a sponsor this year, because Fred Buchanan and Harold Townsley can't afford to carry the team for two years in a row", Mr. Buchanan said.

Pee wee As upset midgets

The 12 and 13-year old Pee wee A team defeated the midget girls, two years superior, 13-10 in exhibition action during the minor ball field day. Patty McClure was the winning pitcher with four strike outs. Sue Paul was on the mound for the 15 and 16-year old midgets.
