

HEFTY PIPE major led the massed pipe and drum band that thrilled the listeners all along the parade route.

ACTON'S NEWEST addition to the sports world, a Junior B hockey team, had players on hand in the Acton Fall Fair parade.

HIGH ON the high school float. It placed third in the novelty class.

DECORATED BIKES and buggies rode the route in state on one of the floats.

The Acton Free Press

One hundred and Second Year—No. 12.

ACTON, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1976

Second Section

FRIENDS-IN-DEED motto, "We enjoy all life has to give us, can you say the same?" adorned their float in the Acton Fall Fair parade Saturday. A tepee was erected to signify a tribe, or group, banded together.

Here comes the parade!

The fall fair parade Saturday noon drew excited crowds all along the route. Bands, floats and marches were cheered as they passed. Parade winners, as selected by the judges: Novelty class, first R. Grundy's huge collage on junk; second pontes and clowns entered by Janet Britton, R. R. 4, Acton; third Acton high school. Business first Rockwood Gardens, with marchers dressed as flowers; second Bank of Montreal; third United Trails, Kitchener, station wagon and cars.

Service clubs, first Y's Men; second Guelph Shriners, third Acton Figure Skating club. (Part of the figure skating club entry disintegrated before reaching the tracks, and one of the clowns was disabled at the last minute.) Best float overall, Acton Legion.

FIGURE SKATING CLUB CLOWN GREETs Gail McArthur along the route Saturday. The Knave of Hearts is close behind.

BANK OF Montreal staff tosses out candies to eager children.

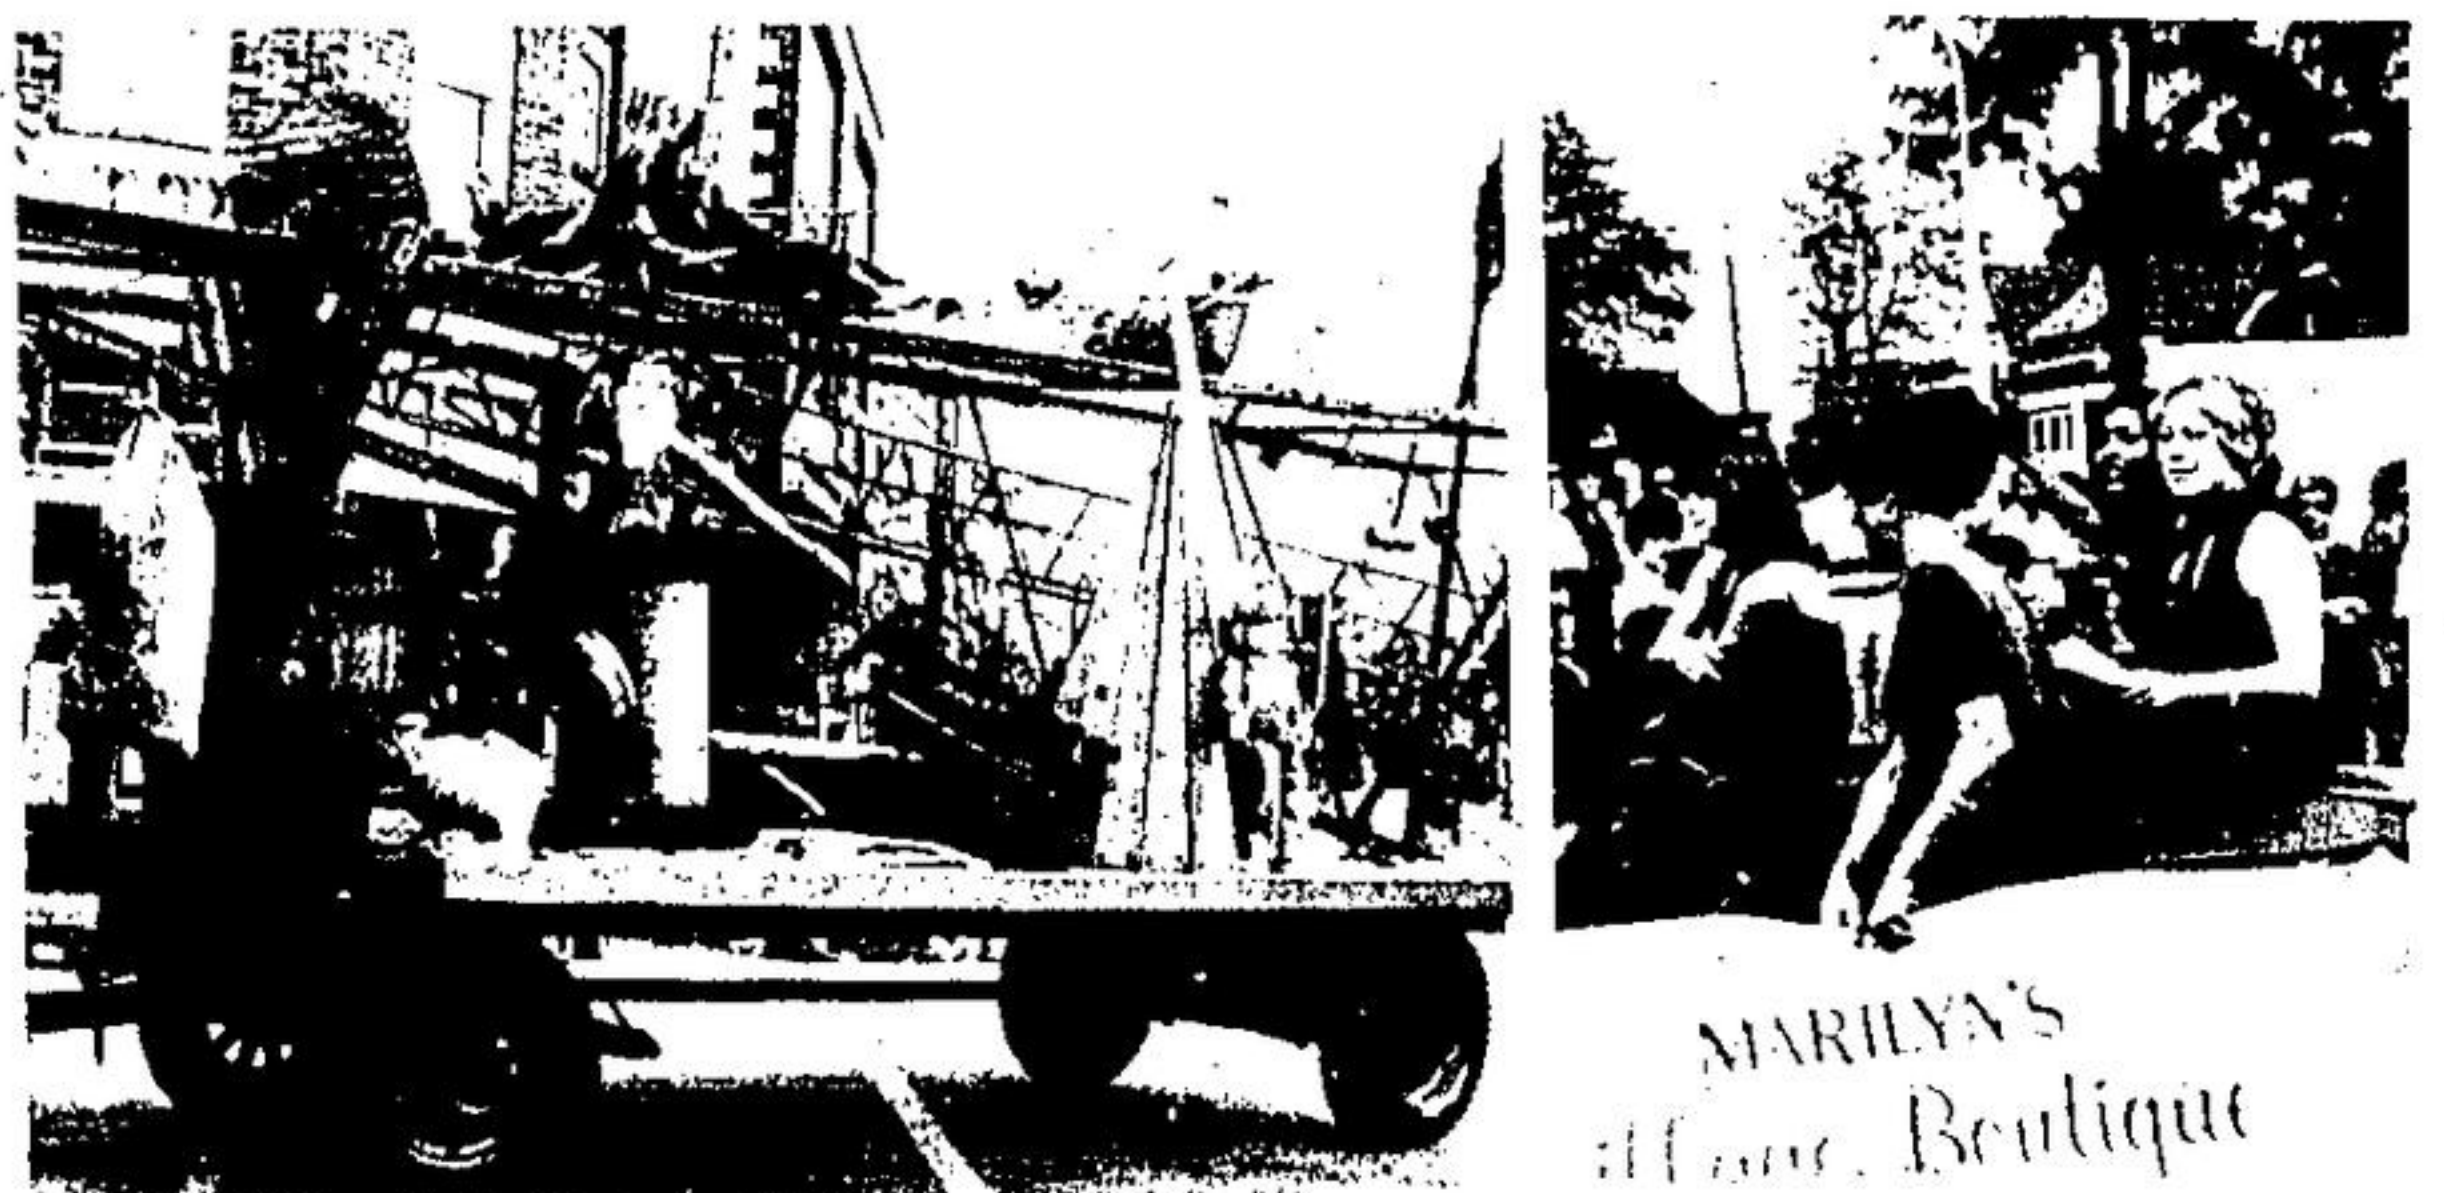

KAREN MORTON, Guelph, leaps off the ground as she makes her way along the parade path on Saturday, on her way to the Acton Fall Fair.

McEACHERN'S ELECTRIC supporters threw out balloons along the route Saturday.

HURRAH FOR the presidents, Russell Murray and Mrs. Irene Swackham er.

ROBERT GRUNDY'S fair parade entry won him first in the novelty category. Figure it out yourself. MARILYN'S MODELS

IMPORTANCE OF religion was portrayed on the float entered by the Christian Reformed church.

HERE COME the Atom boys, Nellis Construction.

RAMESES TEMPLE float nabbed a second for service clubs. The Guelph Shrine has Acton members.

ACTON GUIDES AND BROWNIES