

Tavares - Saunders vows said at Oustic

Saint Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Oustic, was the scene of the late summer wedding of Marie Ellen Saunders and Jose Francisco (Joe) Tavares. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Saunders of Rockwood and her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Tavares of Toronto.

MARIE ELLEN Saunders and Jose Francisco Tavares were married at St. Peter's church, Oustic. They are living in Guelph. Sooter Portrait Studios.

Organist and soloist was Friar Joseph Zuccala of St. Bonaventure Novitiate, Lake Forest, Illinois, a former classmate of the bride's at Bishop Macdonell High School Guelph. He sang Panis Angelicus and Ave Maria during the Mass and at the signing of the Register he sang The Wedding Song, accompanied on the guitar by Miss Ginny Rigby.

Mary McIntyre was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Deborah Sorbara and the bride's cousin Mrs. Nicholas Eelhart. Carlos Tavares of Toronto was best man for his brother. Ushers were Renato Tavares of Ottawa and Manuel Tavares of Toronto, also brothers of the groom. Cousins of the bride, Gregory, Michael, Anne and Andrea Daley carried the communion gifts to the altar.

For "something old" Marie Ellen wore the gold and pearl earrings worn by her maternal great-grandmother at her wedding.

The reception was held at the Guelph Curling Club and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Tavares left on a wedding trip to Toronto and Northern Ontario. On their return they will be living at 27 Marilyn Drive, Guelph.

Guests of honor at the wedding were the bride's great-grandmother Mrs. Ellen Daley of Fergus and her paternal grandmother Mrs. Nellie Saunders, Rockwood and her maternal grandmother Mrs. Marie Daley, Guelph.

Many showers were given for Marie Ellen Saunders of Rockwood prior to her wedding.

Mrs. Harold Hawkins and Mrs. James Kennedy were co-hostesses at a Tupperware shower.

Mary McIntyre held a miscellaneous shower at her home, 19 Michael Place, Guelph.

Mrs. Charles Balconi, 37 Skov Crescent, Guelph, had a bathroom shower.

Mrs. Lillian Hill, Rockwood, entertained at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower.

Mrs. Roy Bacon was hostess for a cup and saucer shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Saunders held a dinner party at their home for the wedding party after the rehearsal.

Christmas calendars ordered by group

The first fall meeting of the Daughters of Knox was held on Monday evening, Sept. 13, in the Mary Ellen Anderson Room of the Presbyterian Church.

President Mrs. William Spielvogel opened the meeting with the reading of a poem "Summer Slips Away."

It was announced that the Fall Rally of the Brampton Presbyterian would be held on Mon. Sept. 27, at Knox Presbyterian Church, Milton. The theme of the rally is "Pass the Word Along". The speaker of the evening is to be Miss Mary Whale of the Board of World Missions. The Bertha E. Buchanan Affiliated Young Women's group will be in charge of the devotional portion of the meeting.

Mrs. Bern Van Fleet mentioned that the Christmas card and gift catalogue had arrived.

Calendars

After a brief discussion, it was decided to order Christmas calendars again this year, and that the price should be raised to $1 a copy.

Mrs. H. Swallow and her group then conducted the study-book portion of the meeting. The book is entitled "The Women Jesus Encountered, and this evening's study was on Mary, the Mother of Jesus.

Two films enjoyed by Golden Age club

A good attendance was present for the evening meeting of Acton Golden Age Club. The president R. L. Davidson presided and welcomed all, including one new member.

The euchre advertised for Sept. 17 at the Manor has been changed to Thursday afternoon Sept. 23 at 1.30 p.m.

Two very interesting films were shown. The first, The Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride, received hearty applause.

The second was Newfoundland where the rugged life of the "Islanders" was shown and the fishing which is an important phase of their livelihood. To many who are unable to visit the eastern province, a good insight was received as to their way of life.

Special thanks to Mrs. Isabel Watson, chief librarian, who made the projector screen and films available to the Club.

Thanks were also extended to Mrs. N. Merkeley and Mrs. K. Alger for operating the projector.

R. L. Davidson distributed free passes to Acton Fair, courtesy of the Fair board. Birthday song was for Mrs. Jean Precious.

Wedding anniversary greetings were for Mrs. Martha Hannikainen and Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson.
