

Ospringle

Booth successful for Scouts at fair

by Doris Fines
The Ospringle Scout Pack had a very successful booth at Acton Fair. They are pleased with the results, and wish to thank the mothers who donated pies and helped otherwise. Their first meeting of the season was at the home of the leader Glen Jackson. Thereafter they will meet in the school gym on Monday evenings.
Kenny Osterhof is a patient in Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto, where he is undergoing tests.
Lou Anne Leslie has returned to her studies at College Heights in Guelph. She spent the summer working at Eden Mills Nursing Home, and still spends some time there on weekends.
Brenda Bruce took the summer semester at the University of Guelph, and has returned for the third semester this September. Bradley Bruce also took the summer semester at Guelph University, but is helping out on the farm this fall.

Mrs. Gordon Aitken enjoyed the Jubilation Service at the Varsity Arena in Toronto on Sunday afternoon. Gordon Aitken drove Denny's bus, taking a group down from the Erin district. They say there were thousands of people there, and communion was served to the whole crowd.
Rev. and Mrs. Thos. Maxwell of Waterloo visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce on the weekend, and attended service in Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. Mr. Maxwell was a former minister here. Rev. Lewis invited him to come up and assist in the service. Congratulations are extended to Brian Robertson from his Ospringle friends, on his marriage to Jane Watson in Acton on Saturday.

Twenty metal support frames and 31 metal curb clamps have been found to be missing from the construction site at the new Acton high school. The losses were reported to the police the past week.

Limehouse

Church marks 115 years

by Mrs. Art Benton
Limehouse Presbyterian Church celebrated 115th anniversary with services at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. on Sept. 25. Rev. D. J. Herbison of Hamilton was guest preacher assisted by our Rev. P. Barrow. The choir sang splendid numbers and Mrs. W. Karn and Mrs. R. Denny a lovely duet. A short hymn singing preceded the evening service and a social hour was enjoyed afterwards. In spite of inclement weather a goodly number visited from neighboring congregations.

The W. A. ladies are prepared for a busy few hours on Wednesday evening when they will serve a hot turkey supper.

Presentation

Mr. and Mrs. Al Jennings and family were honored guests at a pleasant evening in Limehouse Memorial Hall on Friday. A goodly number attending enjoyed a good visit and Mrs. Bert Benton and Mr. Earl Burt entertained with musical numbers and Earl also sang. Sponsored by Bannockburn area neighbors. Mr. Walter Linham as chairman called Al, B'Anne, Sandra, Lynne, Mark and Jo Anne to the platform. Mrs. S. Morrison read a short address and each was presented with a gift as a memento of their home here and a sum of cash to get a larger gift for their home.

Al and B'Anne each expressed thanks and invited all to visit them in their farm home close to Palmerston. A plentiful lunch was enjoyed afterwards.

Holiday schedule heads have ideas

Halton Hills employees will be having three four day weeks during the Christmas season, if a recommendation by the Finance Committee is accepted by council.

In a letter to the committee Monday evening, clerk administrator Doug Pritchard explained he had been approached by various department heads concerning extra days off due to the fact that Christmas and New Year's Day are on Saturdays. The heads recommended, Mr. Pritchard wrote, that Friday, December 24 and Monday, December 27 be proclaimed as holidays in lieu of the actual days, as they are on weekends.

"A result of the foregoing will allow for two four day weeks to facilitate an appropriate time frame to carry out regular municipal services," the clerk wrote.

He further stated that it was also recommended by the department heads, that Monday, January 3 be proclaimed a holiday in lieu of Saturday, January 1, making a third, four day week.

Bill Frank wins beef

Bill Frank was the lucky winner of the Rotary Club Beef Draw held at the Acton Fall Fair on September 18. Miss Acton Fall Fair 1976, Charmaine Bigelow made the draw for the beef on behalf of Rotary members.

The beef was bought for the club by Ospringle drover, Vern Stewart, who kept the beast in his barn for two days prior to the draw, and in his truck all Saturday at the fair grounds.

Club president Don McDonald said 1700 tickets were sold at $1 each. The proceeds will be going toward the Scout Hall. People were still wanting to purchase tickets not knowing the draw was made, he said. "It was well supported by the people of Acton," Mr. McDonald said.

All Rotary Club members were active at the fair, either selling tickets or doing other things, Mr. McDonald pointed out.

Mr. Frank sold his steer to the Toronto Stockyard for approximately $400, the president revealed.
