Big Four
Sept. 24: The Big Four made their debut for the bowling season and leading the way in the series of triples and singles to establish averages were Val Norton 613 (278), Pat Storey 234, Lynda Ewing 309, Ed Engle 209, Hockema 239, Louis DeGraaf 215, Bev Raine 208, Jack DeGraaf 213 and George Norton 231.

Well with all leagues under way everything points to another season of fun and good bowling. Some good singles and triples have already been posted and the veterans are gradually rounding into shape. Of course it goes without saying the usual aches are showing up the morning after the first night of bowling, so what else is new!—and as always, remember, if you cannot boast your league, don't knock it and give your executives your co-operation and help. They try to do a good job and a pat on the back instead of a knock is appreciated.

The cars you've been waiting for are here now!
