Eden Mills

Craft show defies rain community spirit helps

by Mrs. Georgina Wright
Despite the downpour of rain on Sunday last, Eden Mills was a hum of activity. The reason—Eden Mills Craft Show.

The artists displaying their wares were from near and far. The Tuesday Afternoon Craft Club of Eden Mills deserve credit for the work they put into it in getting in touch with these people and arranging workers etc. The U.C.W. of the United Church served coffee and doughnuts. The organizers were Beryl Blackman, Irene Hayward and Jean Turowski. A real community spirit helped.

Norma Goring showed spinning, Sally Hamilton spinning, Mrs. Le Fure weaving, Anne Chesworth Mexican Hanging, Irene Hayward finger weaving, L.

Masson pottery, Margaret Curtis macrame, Dawn Simpson knitting, Mrs. Kirsten cake decorating, Beryl Blakeman dried flower pictures, Jeanette Montgomery jewellery, Mrs. Winch crocheting, Treasa Faw stuffed toys, Mrs. Wild Fong china painting, Girl Guides doing children's crafts

Personals
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson spent the weekend at Inglehart visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Flewelling.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson of Hillsburgh.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson and daughter and niece from Alberta.

SKETCHING FOR A DIME. Kim Kirton of Rockwood put up an easel, supplied lots of paper, and encouraged visitors to the Eden Mills Craft Fair to try their hand. Here he demonstrates the art of creating a lifelike tree.

MARY McDONALD of Eden Mills arranges her table at the Craft Fair held there on Sunday. Mary had bead necklaces and hand crafted slippers for sale as well as demonstrating sewing techniques with some of her own creations.

Before spending your hard-earned money on a tractor, spend some of ours...

CHALLENGE A DEERE

- 40-HP 1030
- 50-HP 1630
- 60-HP 1830
- 66-HP 2130

Nothing separates the exceptional tractor from so-so tractors better than a field test on your farm. So call us to bring out a 1030, 1630, 1830, or 2130 for your challenge. Now, we won't bring out a "Super-equipped" tractor—and then have to cut features to deliver at an acceptable price. Because all these are standard: diesel engine, 8-speed transmission... PTO... hitch... diff lock... hydraulic brakes... and more. So, be our guest: Challenge a Deere soon.

Silverwood

by Alicia Scott
Mr. and Mrs. George Ironside have moved from Silverwood to a new home in Acton. They will be missed in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferris and son have purchased the Ironsides home and have moved in. Silverwood Community welcomes them.

Mrs. Anne Norton won many red ribbons at the flower show held Sept. 15 in Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beene and family enjoyed a trip west recently in a motor home. They were away three weeks.

Mrs. Mary Curley of Ottawa spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.

Beene.
Georgetown Snowmobile Club members who enjoy the Campbell farm in winter also enjoy summer there. They arranged a hay ride followed with a corn roast recently.

Mrs. Margaret Campbell was hostess to the Campbell-Mitchell reunion. Fifty guests enjoyed a social afternoon followed by a pot luck dinner. Guests from Georgetown, Acton, Fergus, Brunner and Listowel enjoyed an afternoon at the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Carmichael went to Ottawa to see his mother who is a patient in hospital and report she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Beene enjoyed a trip to Miners Bay, Haliburton, Midland, Markdale and then home to a corn roast at son Tommy's and grandson's birthday the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Whitfield, London, and Mrs. Treanor, Streetsville, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. H. Scott on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Dunnett of Stayner called on Harry Scotts last week. Many friends in the district would be interested to know they celebrated their Golden Wedding April 30 at Dundas, Ontario, on their return from their winter home in Florida. Georgetown received 3.17 inches of rain on Friday 17 and many cellars were flooded.

LOOK WHAT I MADE at the Eden Mills Craft Fair, says David MacNamera of Eden Mills. David had fun with play dough in the children's corner of the busy fair. All day Sunday, the Eden Mills Community Centre was alive with crowds of people anxious to learn and try their hand at wool embroidery, fabric painting, sketching and other activities. Delightful lunches were served downstairs and most crafts were for sale, along with autumn fruits, vegetables and preserves.
