Headliners
 The G. W. C's who bowl with might and main on Thursday afternoons have come up with a co-sponsor. It's the Mary Thompson Upholstering—a 351 single, bowled by Norm Hayward last Thursday night in the Major League. The "Lanes" high single today—Lou (Acton Friends) Beaulieu and Wayne (Major League) Mason both up North on the trail of the big moose. Hope their paths don't cross or they might start blasting at each other by mistake—Mae Gerwala was the winner in the G.W.C's weekly draw—Bob Lowin one of the stalwarts for Olympia Drive-In team in the Industrial-Commercial league temporarily sidelined with gashed stitched-up thumb on his bowling flipper—it does not concern 5-pin bowlers, but a Michigan court in U.S.A. refuses to delay the enforcement of 10-pin ball hardness by the American Bowling Congress. Manufacturers, naturally, do not want to scrap their stocks of too-soft 10-pin balls—that winds it up once again my friends, so adios amigos and goodnite, Concord City.

Duck hunters face charges

Regional Police laid fire-arms charges against two Burlington men last weekend for shooting their guns in a restricted area.

Police said the two men were duck-hunting in a creek south of Milton, and had already killed one duck by the time they were arrested.

Police confiscated the guns and the duck. It was disposed of.
