OMHA set for hearing

A former FireFighter bantam who wishes to switch to Milton gets a hearing before the Ontario Minor Hockey Association Friday.

Fifteen-year-old Peter Muselius has been released by Acton and is attempting to enter Milton's midget team in the Tri-County League. Acton is in the Waterloo-Wellington group.

Peter, who says that he's signed a midget card with the Milton team, adds that he wants to play more often. "I wanted ice time, and that was it", he said.

Peter's father, Max Muselius of Milton's 5th line, says that Acton has released Peter with a letter.

Mr. Muselius said that his son was quite happy playing in Acton, but that there may be more ice time for him in Milton.

Town softball team may travel to Milton

Milton and Acton representatives of the industrial softball leagues are trying to set a date for talks aimed at getting an Acton All-Star team into an expanded Milton league.

Doug McLaughlin, who set up last August's Milton tournament, and Ray Graham of Acton will probably meet in a week or so for discussions.

Mr. Graham said that the All-Star town team would play Tuesdays and Thursdays in the Milton League, then the local players could return to play in Acton's league Sunday afternoons.

The $125 fee and requirement of a sponsor, Mr. Graham said, would be no problem.

Milton's industrial league of four teams may expand to six next year. One team would come from Milton's area, and the other from here. Two or three teams are interested in joining the Milton loop, said Mr. Graham.

MZB blanks Stewarttown

M. Z. Bennett's field hockey team vaulted into first place with a 3-0 win over Stewarttown, but Brookville is expected to finish on top of the league.

Sandee Allonby, Melody Smith and Kim Barber were the MZB scorers.

Brookville plays winless Stewarttown at home this week in the last game of the season.
