Remembrance service at Churchill church

by Mrs. F. MacArthur
Remembrance Day Sunday was observed in the traditional way at Churchill with Mr. John Duenk sounding The Last Post and Reveille. Special music included Herman Frueler's Hymn to Canada sung by Mr. J. C. Denny assisted by the choir and the choir anthem was For the Healing of the Nations.

A special guest speaker Rev. D. B. Thierry from the Canadian Bible Society made an appeal for funds to support this important work. His presence reminds us that the roots of Churchill church and those of the Bible Society are historically intermingled, as it was in our church just one hundred years ago, that the Upper Canada Bible Society was formed.

Next Sunday November 14 Mrs. McFadden will again be in the pulpit. Rev. McFadden reports that his communicants' class has completed their studies, and that on Sunday, Nov. 21 there will be a reception of new members. There will also be celebrated the sacrament of baptism.

Paper drive
The C.C.W. asked you not to forget the paper drive this month. Newspaper, magazines and cardboard each bundled separately are to be taken Monday, Nov. 22 and Tuesday, Nov. 23 to the storage shed of Norm Turner's concrete yard—same place as last time.

Congratulations to Jack and Lorna Marshall on the birth of a son. Scott and Kelly are delighted about their new baby brother.

Sympathy is extended to the Smith family of our community in the loss of a husband and father.

The Lucky Eleven hunt club again lived up to their reputation by arriving home

Sunday afternoon with three deer. Mr. Donald Anderson of the fifth line is one of the lucky hunters.

Hallowe'en party
The annual Hallowe'en party at the church a week ago was a roaring success as usual. The C.C.W. sponsored the event providing prizes and goodies, but the young themselves planned and supervised the contests, games and decorations.

The highlight for children was spooky horror room designed by the senior boys where several mad scientists presided over test tubes, experiments and an operating table. The dimes collected, as an entry fee, along with the fines for those who failed to wear a costume, were donated to UNICEF.

Everyone young and old enjoyed a fun evening together which ended in everyone's favorite way, with lunch.

Ospringle

Simon Oosterhof top candy bar salesman

by Doris Fines
Mrs. Allen Walma has been a patient in Guelph General Hospital. We all wish her a speedy return to good health.

The 1st Ospringle Brownie Pack attended Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning, along with their leaders Mrs. Jim Swackhamer, Mrs. Ernest Wynne and Mrs. Sam Nyholt.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Howes had a visit one day from their new wee granddaughter Amy Greyson, and her parents Dr. and Mrs. David Greyson of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fawcett of Oshawa also visited at the same home.

Scott and Kelly Marshall are staying with their grandmother Mrs. Arnold Bessey, awaiting the return of their mother, Mrs. Jack Marshall, from the hospital with their wee baby brother.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Ward Bruce in the death of her brother Jim Sayers of Acton.

Sweet sales
The chocolate bar sales came to a very successful completion on Friday. The leading sales personnel were: Simon Oosterhof, selling 250 bars; Betty Ann Pinder, who sold 111 bars; Karen Pankratz sold 103 bars. Other leading salesmen were Erik Pedersen, Ken Boyes, John Manes, and Rob Schneider. A special thanks is extended to all who made the chocolate bar drive the success it has been.

Eden Mills Guide News

1st Eden Mills Guides

Sad farewells to one senior Guide were contrasted with enthusiastic welcomes to six newly-enrolled Guides last Tuesday evening, in special ceremonies taking place before guests, who included Mrs. Marilyn Boose and Jason, Mrs. Jean Brown, Mr. Kirton, Mrs. Joan Kirsch, Mrs. Peggy McGregor and Sandy, Brownie Leaders, Mrs. Diana Wallace and Mrs. Lil Neave, and District Commissioner Mrs. Betty Petrie. The six new members of our Guide Company Kim Boose, Sarah Brown, Moineca Hamilton, Carrie Kirton, Nancy Krisk and Lianne McGregor, are eager to participate fully in all of the Company activities, especially to earn badges.

Barbie Adair was presented with her All Round Cord by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Adair. Barbie, who has always been an enthusiastic and helpful Guide and Patrol Leader, also works as a Pack Leader in the Brownie Pack and has helped at several Brownie Pack holidays.

Entertainment followed with a skit "Why we shake hands with our left hand" written and performed by Sylvia Schelke and Sarah Hayward, and our perennial favourite game where the audience supply adjectives, verbs and nouns to fill gaps in a story was led by Tammy Clifford with "The Girl Guides—a history" and by Barbie Adair on "Our Camp". Refreshments were served by hostesses for the evening, Carol Harpham, Paula Hayward, Sherry Kirton, Sylvia Schelke and Ann Schwartzburg, who baked beautiful cakes and cookies for our enjoyment.

By the time taps were sung we were all feeling very teary-eyed as we realized that this was Barbie's last Guide meeting with us and that she would soon leave for Vancouver with her family. All the best Barbie, till we meet again!

BARBIE ADAIR was presented with her All Round cord by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Adair, at the meeting of the 1st Eden Mills Guides. The family is moving to Vancouver.
