

Presbyterian women officers

By Mrs. Georgina Wright
The Gilbertson sisters Sarah and Catherine opened their home for the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Women on Tuesday evening. Mrs. W. Lasby president opened with a reading, then all joined in singing the hymn, Breathe on me, breath of God. Minutes of last meeting were given by Mrs. G. MacDougall and treasurers report by Mrs. Alma MacDonald. Thank you cards were received from the Sick and Shut-ins who were remembered. Mrs. E. Barden read Fellowship of the least coin.

The annual secretary report was given by Mrs. G. MacDougall showing a very profitable year in fellowship and financially. After old business was attended to, Mrs. Lasby thanked the ladies for their help and support during her years in office as president, then vacated the chair for the election of officers. The auditors reports by Mrs. Barden. Mrs. Barden then took the chair and said she would do her best and asked the ladies for their support during the year. New business was attended to. The ladies were reminded of White Gift Sunday, Dec. 12. Also the Christmas luncheon will follow the service next meeting Dec. 13 at Mrs. McDonald's, then hymn 606 was sung and Mrs. Sinclair closed with prayer and as courtesy convener thanked the hostesses for the use of their home and the refreshments which followed.

A combined bazaar, crafts and bake table and tea table was held in the community hall Saturday afternoon with the different organizations taking part. It was a huge success for all. The poinsettia draw was won by: plant, Mrs. Richard Mills, Guelph; Mrs. W. Lasby, the snowman; Mrs. L. Neeve, the cookie house.

Mrs. D. Sinclair took the chair for the Election of Officers which followed.

THE LIONS and Lionettes have had fantastic response to their free public skating trips to Victoria arena in Guelph this winter. 140 children enjoyed last Saturday afternoon's skating, the second time this month.

PLANTS, BAKED GOODS and handicrafts were highlights of the annual tea and bazaar at Rockwood United Church last Saturday. Connie Spencer of Everton buys a plant from Lois Tosh.

Missing winners

In last week's Free Press the list of local poultry winners from the Royal Winter Fair was missing some important awards won by Hugh MacPherson of Eden Mills. Mr. MacPherson won a first and second in Black Hamburgs and three firsts and three thirds in Hamburgs, Any Other Variety.
