Winter games

Derbys top

Streetsville Derbys defeated Welland Sabres 4-3 on Sunday to win their first game of the double round-robin playoff for a spot in the Ontario Winter Games in North Bay February 11-14. Streetsville is the representative from the Central Junior B League while Welland represents the Niagara District Junior B League while the third team competing in the playoff, the St. Catharines Falcons, is from the Golden Horseshoe Junior B League.

Each team plays a home-and-away series against the other two teams and the squad with the most victories captures the berth in the Ontario Winter Games. Six other Junior B representatives in Ontario are competing for the other two berths in the games. The next game in the series is St. Catharines at Streetsville on Thursday. Future games are Streetsville at St. Catharines, Dec. 12, St. Catharines at Welland, Dec. 14, Welland at Streetsville, Dec. 19, Welland at St. Catharines, Dec. 21.

Juves tie

Fergus here

Kent Kennedy's third period goal earned the juveniles a 6-6 draw with Fergus in recent W-W action here.

Acton opened a 4-2 lead in the first period, but Fergus rallied to enter the second on 4-4 terms with the juveniles. Fergus went ahead 6-5 in the middle frame, and the score remained that way until Kennedy found the mark.

Joe Kentner and Rick Van Fleet paced the juveniles with two goals each. Scott Withers was the other Acton marksman.

Curling Club News

by Pete Vidler
Rumor has it that Fred Archibald is responsible for our broken racks. However, Fred rarely hits any stones to break. Our bookboards need replacing, though. I imagine Fred is laughing right now even though I'm embarrassing him. He tells me all of his friends (he has some) read this column. Well, I only tell it like it is. Fred took me to task last Friday night when he thumped me in a curling match and then again in the parking lot. Fred was late for the game because of a light pre-game sleep. Probably never wanted to wake up to play me. Well that's it this week for the continuing story of Fred Archibald's life: The Hogged Draw, Monday 7-9.

Colin Baker's team of Flo Barber, Mac Sprowl and Chris Geggie has performed miraculous feats on the curling ice this year enabling them to be tied for first with the rink of Bill Dumarsh and his cohorts Susan Patrick, Dan Towler and Lois Mackenzie. At the halfway mark in this draw, here is the rest of the standing.
Baker, Barber, Sprowl, Geggie 9 pts, Dumarsh, Patrick, Towler, Mackenzie 9 pts. Rozelle, McPhail, Moulden, Ridley 6 pts, Holmes, Baker, Oehrich, Lucas 4 pts, Nicol, Moulden, Beatty, Towler 4 pts, Barber, Hewitt, Gardhouse, Roszelle 4 pts, Ginn, Ross, Geggie, Mackenzie 3 pts, Cook, Dumarsh, Knechtel, Bousfield 1 pt. Monday 9-11.

A close race is developing in this draw. Fine curling by Ted Tyler Jr., Ab. Robinson, Sherry Few and Pat Chamberlain is going to make this draw go down to the last game. The standings are as follows.
Tyler, Melon, Toth, Rosenquist 8 pts, Robinson, Cripps, Gosselin, Knickle 6 pts, Few, Tyler, Robertson, O'Leary 6 pts, Chamberlain, Robinson, Davidson, Beemer 5 pts, Archibald, Watson, Bumstead, Vidler (Nancy) 3 pts., Cripps, Verbiik, Rosenquist, Few 2 pts. Tuesday 7-9.
Pat Chamberlain shows his fine consistency by again being at the top in this draw. However, ex-pres. Brian Robertson and Bob Bradley are not going to let him get first easy. Standings are:
Chamberlain, Shortill, Robertson, Loutlet 6 pts., Bradley, Robertson, Rosenberky, Higgins 8 pts., Robertson, Pickering, Kler, Hickling 7 pts., Hickling, Downs, King, Bradley 4 pts., Marchment, Near, Shortill, Rosenberky 2 pts., New, Hurst, Gray, Peel 1 pt.

Tuesday 9-11
Many of our veteran skips are on this draw as is revealed by the closeness of it.
Patrick, Campbell, Hansen, Francis 8 pts., Wingo, Hansen, Korpella, Porter 7 pts., McArthur, Toth, Richards, 6 pts., Moore, McArthur, Korpella, Bruce 6 pts., Anderson, Otterbein, Lovell, Porter 5 pts., Campbell, Tyler, Toth, Bruce 4 pts., Tyler, Patrick, Mellon 2 pts., Toth, Moore, Richards, Hacke 2 pts. Ladies' Curling - Wed. Afternoon

With but two games remaining three teams have super shots at clinching the title. All three of them have

Shirts, Skins split games

The Shirts and Skins split decisions in two ladies' basketball recreation games in M. Z. Bennett's courts. Skins upset Shirts 32-26 on the strength of Maureen Gerth's 22 points and Linda Denny's 10.
Janice Gagne and Gwen Johnson replied with eight points each for Shirts. In previous action Shirts edged Skins 56-40. Shirt Ella Kilpatrick netted 20 points while Mo Gerth fired 16 for Skins.

Aquatic show

The recreation department will hold its second annual aquatic show Friday starting at 7 p.m. There'll be demonstrations on diving and synchronized swimming.

OHA player assistance

Acton Sabres are not the only club to ask the OHA for special player assistance this season. The OHA has also received requests from the following clubs: Wellington Jr. "D", Seaforth Jr. "D", Walpole Island Int. "C", Petrolia Jr. "B" and Collingwood Jr. "A".
