

Christmas dinner for town Seniors

by Mrs. D. G. Robertson

A gala evening was enjoyed by 90 members of Acton Golden Age Clubs on Tuesday, when the Royal Canadian Legion and Rotary Clubs hosted the senior citizens at the annual Christmas turkey dinner.

An innovation was the piping in of the head table guests by Scott Malcolm.

The auditorium was gayly decorated and a lighted Christmas tree graced the platform.

Rev. A. McKenzie asked the blessing preceding the full course meal of turkey and all the trimmings served by members of the Legion and Rotary Clubs.

Transportation was also provided by these kind gentlemen.

A. Irwin, Legion president, welcomed all and said he hoped the guests would get as much enjoyment from the evening, as they did in preparing it.

Mrs. D. G. Robertson, secretary, introduced the head table and R. L. Davidson, president, expressed sincere thanks for the very memorable evening.

Mrs. Helen Fowler, representing the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary, presented Mr. Davidson with a cheque for the Club, and he voiced appreciation.

Tables were soon cleared and a fine program followed.

Mrs. M. Milne of Rockwood gave two recitations in her usual pleasing manner.

Several selections were sung by the Chorallers, who are a favorite of all.

A solo, O Holy Night was John McHugh's choice.

Les Doby and Vic Bristow sang several old time favorites with guitar accompaniment.

Mrs. Isobel Moore and Mrs. Agnes McIntyre also sang and delighted all with their rendition of Whispering Hope.

A carol sing concluded the program.

Santa arrived and made a hit with all - he also presented gifts to all.

RIGHT IN tune, Vic Bristow and Les Doby harmonized for the Golden Age club at their Christmas dinner.
