KAREN CHAPMAN PUSHES OFF to start one of the races in which Acton swimmers pitted themselves against a larger Rebel team at Georgetown's pool Friday in a school meet.

Rebels mass numbers to crush Acton team

Acton swimmers averaged about two points more per head than the Georgetown Rebels, but the Rebels won by sheer weight of numbers at a high school meet at Georgetown Friday.

The 45 Rebels scored 309 points against the 131 tallied by the 16 Acton racers.

The Acton team is normally larger, but several swimmers were out of action because of flu, coach Lynn Fountain said Monday.

Peter Musellus and Nancy Patterson paced Acton with two firsts each. Musellus earned another as a member of the junior boys team which won the medley 200 race.

Cal Rowles, Garry Hinkley and Tom Hogenburg were other members of the medley team. Rowles and Hogenburg later combined with Chris Conroy and Alan Snels to clinch the junior boys 200 metre free style race.

nine firsts, nine seconds, five thirds, nine fourths, a fifth and a sixth. It did not enter nine events.

Second Dave Hannah had the most second place finishes, two while the junior girls team, Hinkley and Rowles earned firsts on their own. Hinkley took the junior boys 50 metre backstroke and Rowles won the breast stroke on the same level.

The junior girls were not to be outdone, they won their 200 metre free style relay and came second in the medley relay.

The junior girls are Karen Chapman, Angie Baschowski, Linda Shadbolt and Miriam Beaton.

The Acton squad tallied

Hotel escapes cellar Vans leaps into first

Vans beat Hellers to break a many weeks' long tie for first spot in industrial league hockey action Sunday. The major upset, however, had Station Hotel downing Blue Press 7-1 to escape last place for the first time this season.

Kens, which with Lakeview were tied for third, drops into the cellar because of the combined loss against Lakeview and BP's to Station.

Vans outscored Hellers 5-2 in the first, 3-0 in the second but trailed 1-2 in the third for the 9-4 win. Bruce McPherson paced Vans with three goals including the winner, while Ken Owen matched his performance with another trio of markers.

Tim McIntyre, Floyd Hiller and Keith Osmond added singles for Vans.

Reply
Gord Colton and Henry Toebes replied twice each for Hellers.

Lakeview failed to score in the first period, but managed two goals in the second and third while Kens settled for one goal per frame. Lakeview nipped Kens 4-3.

Ron Mellon notched two goals for Lakers while John Ashley and Fred Crawford fired single goals.

George McPhail, Doug Andrews and Lynden Thompson came through with goals for Kens.

The middle period in the Station-Blow Press game was scoreless, however, the Hotelers fired two goals to BP's one in the first period, then blasted the pressmen 5-3 in the third for a 7-4 upset victory.

Midgets drop Fergus lose winger Vickery

Midget Sabres posted their fifth win when they downed Fergus 4-2 in W-W league action on December 7.

Dave McGilloway counted the winning goal in the third on an unassisted effort after Fergus started a rally in the second period.

The midgets who lost the services of right winger Wade Vickery in the second period. Vickery is expected to be sidelined for a while because of a separated shoulder.

The midgets record stands at five wins, three losses and a tie.

The midgets built a 2-0 lead on Art Currie's goal from Wade Vickery and George Brown in the first period, and McGilloway's second period goal from Steve vander Eyken and Brown again.

Fergus' Dale Morrison primed his team's attack with a second period goal.

Midway After McGilloway found the mark for the second time he assisted with Brian Moore to set up a Scott Malcolm goal midway through the third period.

Paul Gear added a second Fergus goal to make the score 4-2, but it came too late to change the outcome.

The win was expensive for

By Mrs. L. Mitchell
On Thursday, Dec. 9, the skating club held a most successful bazaar and bake sale, convened by Isabel Christensen. Many thanks to the parents who donated baked goods and crafts. Also thank you to the arena staff for their co-operation and mothers who helped. To the many people who attended our bazaar we thank you for supporting us.

Winners of draws were doll Laura Homer, wooden bank Lynn Krzyzik, wall hanging Pat Cranker. Thank you to the people who donated items for draws.

Our senior and intermediate skaters are busy practising for the senior club competitions this Thursday at 7 o'clock. It will be an enjoyable night for all our skaters and parents to come and watch our advanced skaters free skating routines.

All of the junior skaters are asked to come out next Monday at 4:45 p.m. to participate in Fun Night. We hope Santa will be able to find time in his busy schedule to come to the arena.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish you and yours a happy holiday season. Congratulations to the following skaters:

Novice I: Laura Jansen, Elizabeth Hudson, Kathy Lawton, Julie Zions, Kathy Ewart, Linda Deforest.
