

CHRISTMAS DINNER began an enjoyable evening for the Sunshine group and guests who gathered at the Town Hall for their annual party last week. The members enjoyed an evening of carols and entertainment and were given the nomination report for officers for 1977.

Sunshine Christmas party at hall was big success

A very jolly time was spent by the members of the Sunshine Club and a few of the Village folk and guests at their Christmas party in the Rockwood hall. Mrs. M. Milne received the guests while Max Milne and Dave Robertson kindly helped the ladies with their coats. Mrs. A. Smith and Mrs. J. Dunk had charge of the tickets and Mrs. I. Davidson and Mrs. I. Nellis had charge of the program.

Vic Smith with his accordion and Mrs. V. Black at the piano entertained while the group assembled for a delicious beef dinner with all the trimmings provided by the Lionettes Club.

Musicians George Day was present and thanked the members for the kind invitation that he and his wife Grace had received each year to join with them at their Christmas parties. He also remarked that it was a pleasure to be able to help the club financially by the sale of his father's books. He wished the club every success in the coming year. Bert Davidson thanked the Lionettes for the delicious dinner, also all who had helped to make the evening such a success. He called on Henry Leachman to give the nomination report for the slate of officers for 1977.

They were installed by Mrs. D. Robertson, President Mrs. Vera Black, 1st vice Mrs. Isabella Nellis, secretary Mrs. Ruby Peacock, assistant secretary Mrs. Ann Smith, treasurer Mrs. Jessie Dunk, assistant Mrs. Annabel Leachman, program committee Mrs. Ireen Davidson and Mrs. Mary Milne.

Mrs. Davidson along with Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Leachman congratulated the officers. The president Mrs. Black thanked the talent for a grand program.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

and a thank you to the voters who supported me at the polls on Dec. 6, 1976 and also for support given me in the past years as councillor.

Wm. A. McLean

RAGGEDY ANNE, held by "hostess" Katherine McLeod, appears to be smiling as she looks down at Kirsty Chalmers who fell asleep on a hand-crafted wooden doll's bed at last week's craft sale on Guelph St. The sale was a real success with many village residents dropping by.

CANDLES, POTTERY, macrame and many more original crafts attracted village residents to the home of Frog Pots last weekend. The participants in the sale will donate 20 per cent of the proceeds to the Rockmosa Sports Centre. Maureen McLeod, the lady who organized this venture, was very pleased at the response from village residents.

Successful year for Bible Society

The Rockwood and Everton branch of the Canadian Bible Society had a successful year. The society is supported locally by the Presbyterian (Rockwood) Twilight Auxiliary and the Daily Vacation Bible School held in the Rockwood United Church in the summer. This year the 24 canvassers, drivers and assistants brought in $706.22 which is over the 1975 canvas.

All money from this area is sent to Hamilton or Toronto and is credited to Rockwood and Everton. In memoriam donations are appreciated and can be left at funeral homes or your local treasurer.

Treasurer for this branch is Pearl Hamilton, president is Gordon Kingsbury and Mrs. B. McDougall is secretary.

The purpose of the Canadian Bible Society is to translate, publish and distribute the scriptures in Canada and throughout the world at whatever the people can afford to pay, or in some cases free of charge. The society has been at work for over 160 years in Canada.

Museum displays

Halton Region Museum at Kelso has a unique display of early safe "art" on display during the museum's annual Christmas tea, this Thursday to Sunday, Dec. 16 to 19.

The Chubb Safe Art Exhibit proves that even though early safes were pretty ugly, artists created some great paintings to adorn the doors of them.

Tea hours are 1 to 5:30 and all the buildings at the Museum will be open and decorated for Christmas, pioneer-style. From January to April the Museum is open through the week, by appointment.

Rockwood roundup

by Kerry Chalmers

Village and area residents are invited to join in the annual Christmas carol singing held on St. John's Bowling Green at 7:30 p.m. Sunday Dec. 19. Hot chocolate will be served and organizers are looking for lots of voices for an evening of warmth and cheer.

The December meeting for the village trustees will be held on Dec. 21 at the Parish Hall.

Attention—there will be garbage pick-up on Monday, Dec. 27 and again on Friday Dec. 31. The regular Saturday pick-up will commence once again eight days later on Jan. 8, 1977.

The Halton Board of Education

Would like to establish a list of citizens interested in serving on Ad Hoc Committees that are established from time to time. On Dec. 9, 1976 the board established an Ad Hoc Committee concerning students receiving remedial assistance.

Citizens interested in serving on this committee or any others that are established in the future are asked to contact:
