Legion town league tallies

Peerwee
Richmond doubled the score 8-4 over Baltimore and Kevin Kroll's four goal effort.

Barry McNabb rifled home three goals for Richmond including the winner in the second period. Dave Dunn registered the other Richmond marker. Richard Chapman and Danny Waites earned assists.

Roger Ward replied twice for Baltimore while mates Chris Hisaki and Robert Robers budged the net with singles.

Richard Papillon managed to help on two goals and Mike Cleary on a single.

Tidewater scored once in each period for a 3-1 victory over Cleveland.

Rusty Ehlit came through with two markers including the winner. Steve Boyson got the first goal for Tidewater with Bob Little and Elliot assisting. Boyse and Little later combined to set up one Elliot goal, while Mark Dawkins was on the scene for the other.

Tom Shannon accounted for the lone Cleveland goal.

Rochester and Springfield settled for a 5-5 draw.

Rochester got two goal performances from Tom McDonough and Danna Taras while Fred Kappert contributed a single. Taras also earned an assist as did Jim Allen and Don Thornhill.

On Springfield's side, Brian Canary produced a hatrick while Paul Hudson and Paul Nolan fired one goal each. Hudson also picked up an assist.

Trevor Hoy helped on a couple of Springfield goals while Chris Lohsinger and Ted Gunn got single assists.

Atom

Billy Morrison's four goals contributed to Oshawa's 6-4 trouncing of Hamilton.

Morrison also accounted for the winner in the third period from Brian Steckley. Steckley also found the target once as did Craig Johnson.

Bruce Sheppard fired all four Steel City goals with unassisted effort.

St. Kitts swamped London 6-1 with two goal performances from Jamie Taras, Brad McPherson and Jerry Herrington.

Novice
Dixie blanked Guelph with a single first period goal from David Brown. Scharney Way got the assist, but Toth Hill shut the door on all Royal City scoring attempts.

Brampton took a one goal lead into the final period but failed to contain Weston's Steve Harkins as the teams settled for a 1-1 draw.

Kirk McNabb got the second period goal for Brampton while Raymond Authier assisted on Harkins' third period reply.

Bantam
Nordics skated all over Aeros to the extent of 9-2 on three goals and one assist displays by Todd McLartyre and Dave Lawson.

Nevil Porter produced a goal while assisting later on another. Mates Ted James and George Pinsoneault managed single goal efforts.

Allister George shared three times in Nordic goals.

Ken Death answered once for Aeros from Dave De Vries, who also replied once in the third period.

Cougars shaded Toros 3-2 with Eddy Allen taking credit for the winner.

Murray McNabb pulled the trigger on the first two Cougar markers, one off the stick of Steve Davies in the second period.

Toros' Joe Treacappi first scored on a Ken Day pass. Rick Miller also found the mark for Toros in the second period.

Midget
Vancouver and Montreal drew even at two goals apiece.

Each team scored in the first two periods. First Tim Ferguson for Vancouver, then Mike Nichols from Les Dalton for Montreal. Terry Winters scored for the west coast city on a Danny Porty pass, while Mike Nichols later replied for Montreal.

Dave Johnson's three goals were enough for Detroit to nip Toronto 3-2. Ron Edge picked up all three assists on the Johnson markers.

Malcolm McKenzie fired the first Toronto goal from Rusty Miller, and Bob Hudson got the second on a Scott Ingles pass.

Flyers pull
Milton Flyers dropped two close games this week as they lost 7-4 to Burlington and 6-5 to Oakville.

In the Burlington game coach Gerry Inglis pulled his goaltender Ian Roberts, while Burlington led 5-4 with 40 seconds remaining in the game only to have his strategy backfire when Burlington's Dan Poliziani won two consecutive face-offs and flipped a long shot into Milton's net each time.

Midgets win consolation

Acton midgets won the consolation trophy at the Pelham Minor Hockey Association's annual tournament during the Christmas holidays.

Topping the midget performers were goalies Steve Krucz and Gary Medland who had the best goals against average of the tourney. They kept out all but five pucks in three games.

Acton doubled the score 4-2 over New Hamburg in the finals after blanking Thorold with nine goals on the way to the title.

Only Niagara-on-the-Lake stopped the midgets from going into the championship. The Lakers used two deflections and a breakaway to down Acton 4-2 in the first game.

Fergus ties minor atoms

Fergus was forced by minor atoms to come from behind and earn a 3-3 tie in Wellington-Waterloo action here Saturday.

Mike Hudson's first of two goals moved Acton into a 1-0 lead early in the first period. Tony Van Dam picked up the assist. The lead lasted until well into the final period when It. Goodall spoiled Steven Taillefer's shutout bid with a goal.

Next Hudson again gave Acton the lead with an unassisted effort. Bruce Raine made the score 3-1 for minor atoms when he relayed a Jamie Lawson pass.

P. Drono first narrowed the margin, then tied the game for Fergus late in the period.
