Curling club

by Pete Vidler
During the past weekend four of our men's rinks ventured forth to different clubs in the area to compete in the Halton Peel Bantam. This is just a great chance for all and provides good experience. Curling in the main event is the rink of ever dangerous Del Hickling, Brian Robertson, Udo Fleck and almost married Ron back and almost married Ron Loutlet. Good luck boys and get to Milton on Saturday.
Curling in the third event is the rink of "combine" Don Ross, Pat Chamberlain, Graham Peet and Jim Conghlin. Fred Archibald's rink of Bill Cripps, Pete Vidler and Doug Rhymard are also in the third event. Wearing Acton colors in the fourth event is the foursome of Sherry "Bristol Creme" Few, Bruce McArthur, Carl Rosanquist and Lee Gossellin. Come on, everybody, let's all make it to Milton on Saturday.

Also during this past weekend, a ladies' rink represented our club in the business girls' playdowns. The rink of Sue Patrick, Karen Shortill, Ann Toth and Trev Patrick played well according to all reports but were finally eliminated from competition. I'm sure they'll be back next year.
At our club this week play-offs will be held to determine winners of the Monday, Tuesday and early Wednesday draws. Engaging in battle for the men's draws on Wednesday night will be Del Hickling's team of Sandy Keir, Fred Shortill and Jeff Moulden battling "ex-pres" Brian Robertson's foursome of Fred New, Martin Oehrich and Chuck Beaton.
Tuesday night's playoff will match - what - Brian Robertson again!! Yes indeed. Brian leads his team of Anne Pickering, Sandy Keir (again too) and Norma Hickling (isn't she a catch off Del) against Ben Wingrove's team of Kae Hansen, Bill Porter and Carol Korpella.
Monday night's playoff features the rink of Ted Tyler Jr. Ina Mellon, Gord Toth and Yvonne Rosenquist against Bill Dumars's rink of Sue Patrick, Dan Towler and Lois Mackenzie.
Good luck to all!
Second draw starts Jan. 24. That's right - back at it again.
