Church holds meeting

By Mrs. Art Benton
The annual congregational meeting of Limehouse Presbyterian Church was held in the church on the evening of Jan. 19 with the Rev. P. Barrow as chairman. Good reports were heard from all departments.

Session members include the minister, clerk A. C. Patterson, and K. C. Lindsay, Fred J. Brown, Richard Appleyard and Mrs. W. J. Crichton.

Board of managers are treasurer Mrs. W. J. Crichton, Richard Appleyard, Albert J. Benton, Thomas Given, F. J. Brown Jr., Wilfred Kirkwood as chairman and William Karn secretary.

Trustees are Fred J. Brown, Lloyd McEnery and Donald Lindsay. Mrs. J. Roughby is organist and Mrs. A. J. Benton choir leader. Mrs. F. J. Brown Jr., Mrs. A. J. Benton and Mrs. R. Boyle are building up the Sunday School.

The W. A. had a busy year as seen by the financial report and the W.M.S. over-subscribed their allocation. Lunch was enjoyed after the meeting.

We regret that Mrs. Jas. Noble is hospitalized but hope for her better health soon.

Mrs. T. M. Anderson attended 4-H training school on Jan. 13 and 14 for the course "Clothes for Leisure" which she will begin conducting soon.

Couple leave for home in Guelph

by Doris Fines
A large crowd of neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Warmington gathered at Ospringle school Friday evening, to honour them on their departure from the neighbourhood, and wish them well in their new home. Those in charge of the presentation, on behalf of the community, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Longstreet, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jessop, Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Bacon, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler. Mrs. Wheeler read the address, which was prepared by Mrs. Gladys Gray, and a purse of money was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Warmington, who have moved into Guelph.

Hander's up!
The door into the portable classroom at Ospringle school has a personality all its own. Nobody is going to tell it what it should do. Come frosty cold weather, the antics I resort to, to get it locked, would put a kicking mule to shame. It can be as ornery as a pig that has his mind made up not to go through a gate. Whop! Until I can practically see a grin on its face as the lock slips quietly into place. By that time I have forgot which vulnerable spot I whopped last, so the whole procedure is repeated the next night. Just why it gets its dander up when the mercury dips below the freezing point is beyond me. It sure as shootin' gets my dander up, but at least, it's the one that's getting clobbered.

Senior Citizens U.C.W. in news

by Georgina Wright
The Senior Citizens Sunshine Club met Wednesday afternoon in their club room with the president, Anna Wilson in the chair. The meeting opened with a poem entitled "The Beauty of a Smile".

O Canada was sung, then some items of business were attended to.

A new member was added, Mrs. Ethel Ray of Arkell and welcomed.

A motion was made to purchase a new mirror and a small fine is to be imposed on members who forget to wear their name pins.

Mr. Bob Love is to show slides on Feb. 16 of various areas of Eden Mills and District. Any senior is invited to attend.

The meeting was adjourned by Mr. McKelvie for cards etc. Refreshments were served by the lunch committee.

Quilting
Thursday the Seniors spent the day on quilting and will again quilt on Monday next. The U.C.W. of the United Church held a successful luncheon in the community hall Wednesday noon with the usual large turnout.

Mr. Eric Lockett is recovering nicely after surgery at St. Joseph's hospital, Guelph.

Meetings, dance, choir in news

By Winifred Smith
The annual meeting of the Ballinafad Church took place on Sunday, Jan. 16. All reports of the different committees were encouraging. Financial statement showed the year had been a very good one, and gratifying to those in charge. It is to be hoped that this year will be even better, if all concerned strived to make it so. Two resigned from the session, those being, F. J. Shortill and Debbie French. Installed to replace them were Jill Jessup and Marion Jamieson. Other members of the session remain as before.

February dance
The Men's Choir is sponsoring a dance in February. Those interested can purchase a ticket from any member of the choir.

With the help of some outside talent the men's choir entertained the senior citizens of Acton to a concert on Wednesday evening of last week.

Eight members of the U.C.W. braved the cold weather of last week and attended the quilting at the Church. Nine quilts were completed for welfare work.

Those attending the dance, sponsored by the Hall Board last Saturday night report a real good time. Glynn Powell, provided the music. Keep in mind the Annual meeting of the Community Centre, this Sunday afternoon at two p.m. This is the opportunity of all to come out and voice opinions and help install a committee that will plan the activities for 1977.

A. D. McEnery and Lloyd Marshall are patients in the Georgetown Hospital. A. D. was in intensive care for a few days last week, but has now improved enough and is sharing a room with his friend and neighbor "Slim" Marshall. We sincerely hope it won't be long till they have recovered and are able to return home.

Have faith
Much has been said about the young people of today, some comments not always in their favor. Last week an incident happened that gave one a feeling of pride and faith, that the youth of today, who will be taking over for society in the future, will do a good job. One of our residents, just before New Years, lost a wallet while shopping in Georgetown. It contained a considerable amount of money. She left her name and phone number with the local police as there was no name in the wallet. The only identification being an eye appointment card of a local doctor. Three weeks after it was lost, the owner received a phone call that a wallet had been handed into the police. A young student of Georgetown High, 14 year old Margo Craig of Market Street, Georgetown found the wallet and handed it to the police. The police telephoned the eye specialist and the owner was contacted. Needless to say she was very happy and personally thanked Margo, and rewarded her for her honesty.

New baby in area

By Mrs. Ron McLean

Rev. R. Finley's sermon topic was "God our Father." Commentators from the Bible found a comparison between the 10 commandments and the Lord's prayer. To speak of one God, in the days of the ten commandments was a great forward step. In the season of harvest, there are great crops from little seed. God must be in the land. Out in the open fields, you know there is a God. It was quite natural for Ruth to say, "Thy God shall be my God" when she left Moab. When you say of God, "He is our father" you are of royal descent. You are precious to Him. Go to Him as a little child. He wants to take you in His arms.

Congratulations to Martha and Neil Moffat on the birth of a son, Andrew Neil, a brother for Dana and Jill.
