

Candlelight service for Garratt-Ellis wedding

CATHY ELLIS and Danny Garratt were married in Knox Presbyterian church, Ospringe on January 14. Following a honeymoon in Niagara Falls, they made their home in Guelph.

Standards of white tapers and a basket of blue carnations and white daisies graced Knox Presbyterian Church at Ospringe for the candlelight wedding of Catherine Fay Ellis and Danny Ronald Garratt on January 14.

Cathy is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellis, R. R. 4, Rockwood, and Danny is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Garratt of R. R. 1, Hillsburgh.

Bridal gown
Escorted down the aisle by her father, Cathy wore a gown of polyester satin featuring a lace bodice and sleeves and a round neckline. Her elbow-length tulle veil with small floral appliques was held in place by a scalloped, lace-covered tiara fashioned after the one worn by her mother, her aunt Helen Flemington and her sister Pat Duffield on their wedding days. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses and white carnations and wore a silver pin of her late maternal grandmother Mrs. Dave Izatt. She also wore her mother's pearls. Miss Debbie Salmon was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Pat Duffield, sister of bride and Miss Debbie Garratt sister of the groom. They all wore blue jersey floor-length gowns with long sleeves and a cowl neckline. They carried nosegays of blue carnations and white daisies. Mrs. Pat Duffield made her sister's wedding gown and headpiece as well as her own dress.

Bruce Book was best man and the ushers were Kevin Weatherall and Steve Ellis, brother of the bride.

At a reception and dance at the Erin Legion Hall the bride's mother received her guests wearing a long rose polyester knit dress featuring a V-neckline and long sleeves. She wore a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother wore a rust colored floor length gown and wore a corsage of white roses.

The three-tiered wedding cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Evelyn Farr. Master of ceremonies was the bride's uncle Jim Izatt.

Special guests
Special guests were the bride's grandfather, Dave Izatt of Clarkson, the groom's grandmother Mrs. F.M. Garratt of Hillsburgh and his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. R. Eldridge of Brampton.
