

Rockwood Guide and Brownie news

retary; second row W. Bro. Jack Carpenter, Past Master; W. Bro. George Hargrave, D.C.; Bro. L. Slingerland, Tyler; third row Bro. Jack Tatton, I.G.; Bro. Ken Hodgson, S.S.; Bro. Alvin Moore, organist; and Bro. Brian Bryan Alder, J.S.

Sunday, Feb. 20, was the beginning of Scout/Guide week. In this week is a Thinking Day—Feb. 22—the combined birthdays of founder Lord Robert Baden-Powell and his wife, the Chief Guide, Lady Baden-Powell. Some of the units of Spirit Valley District celebrated Scout/Guide week by attending the 11 a.m. service at Everton Christian Church. There were Brownies from the 1st Ospringe Pack, the 2nd Rockwood Pack, the 1st Eramosa Guide Co., and the 1st Rockwood Guide Co. Their leaders were in attendance too and many of the parents of the Ospringe Brownies were also there. The Brownies and Guides marched up to the front pews while the congregation sang Onward Christian Soldiers. The minister, Rev. E. Cossar welcomed the girls and asked them why they belonged to the organization and what they liked about it. The Brownies were too shy to answer but the Guides told him they liked the badge work, the outings and camping. The Junior Choir sang. This is a new venture, and the choir, though few in numbers, sings very well. There were six members and each of those members belonged to the Guide Movement. They were, Dianne Clark, Lisa Petty, Shelley Spencer—Guides; Laura Davey, Colleen McKendry and Leanne Spencer—Brownies. During the service the minister invited the girls to reaffirm their Promise. The Brownies said theirs first, followed by the Guides. During the singing of the last hymn the Brownies and Guides filed out. It was a very nice service and I felt proud that I belonged to an organization whose promise is: "I promise on my honour, to do my best, To do my duty to God, the Queen and my country, To help other people at all times, To obey the Guide Law." Brownies attending from the 1st Ospringe Pack were Lisa Swackhamer, Mary Joyce Wrag, Irene Nyholt, Debbie Wynne, Kelly Hisaki, Nancy Johnstone, Kim Van Mannen, Suzanne Walma, Karen Jackson, Shirley Fletcher, Farah Heyden, Glenda Sinclair. Their leaders were Mrs. Doris Swackhamer, Mrs. Trina Nyholt, Mrs. Kathy Wynne. The Brownies from the 2nd Rockwood Pack were Leanne Spencer, Laura Davey, Karen and Laura Johnston, Colleen McKendry, Tanjila Hughes, Barbara Griffinham, Cheryl Cunningham, Christine Jestin. Their leaders are Mrs. Janet Cunningham and Miss Elizabeth Johnston. Guides present from the 1st Eramosa Co. were Heather Cox, Kelly Flewelling and leader, Captain Darlene Cox. Attending from the 1st Rockwood Co. were Dianne Clark, Colleen Petty, Lisa Petty, Laura Jansen, Shelley Spencer and three of their leaders, Mrs. June Jansen, Mrs. Marlene McKendry and Captain Ena Petty.

$600 collision on Mill St. Saturday

A car driven by William Speckeen of Cambridge was in collision with cars owned by Jacqueline Welch, 34 Mill St. W., Acton and Margaret Martin, 110 Charles St., Georgetown on Saturday. The Mill St. accident caused $600 in damages. The Welch and Martin cars were unoccupied at the time of the accident.
