Obituaries

Hazel West
On Sunday, February 13, Mrs. Hazel West passed away at Palmerston Nursing Home after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. West, daughter of the late William and Mary Peavoy, and sister of the late Percy and Minota Peavoy, was born on the Eramosa, Erin township and she attended S.S. 7 Eramosa school.

In 1918, she married William West and lived at R. R. 3, Acton. When their only child, the late Rae West, was about 12 years old, they moved to a farm at R. R. 1, Rockwood where her diligence as a farm homemaker and helper was much respected.

When her son Rae married and left the farm home in 1944 to train as a mortician at Rumley Funeral home, Acton, she and Mr. West sold their farm home and moved to Church Street, Acton. While Mr. West worked at Force Electric Co., Mrs. West worked at Storey Glove Co., and later at Chainway and Newton Stores.

Following the sudden death of her husband, Mrs. West, her son and daughter-in-law bought a home on Church Street where she lived until having to be admitted to Eden House Nursing Home and Hospital. In 1965 her son Rae passed away suddenly, and she and daughter-in-law Velma continued to live and care for the home on Church Street.

Although of retiring nature, Mrs. West was a willing helper in making dressings for the Cancer Society and did much knitting for Lakeside Chapter, I.O.D.E. Her prime interest was the immaculate care of her home; she loved flowers and caring for the grounds and flower beds surrounding her home.

Funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Charles Beaton of Trinity United Church on February 15 at the Shoemaker Funeral Home.

W.W. Price
Funeral service was held yesterday for William Walter Price of 63 Churchill Rd. S.

Mr. Price died February 18 in Guelph General Hospital in his 72nd year. He was born in Winchester, Ontario and was a baker at Hotchen's Bakery, Acton, before his retirement.

Mr. Price is survived by his wife, the former Edna L. MacLean, one brother Howard Price, Brockville, and two sisters, Mrs. Stella Downey, Ottawa, and Mrs. Edith Scott, Osgoode. He was predeceased by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Price.

Mr. Price rested at the Shoemaker Funeral Home until Sunday when he was taken to the Vice and Craig Funeral Home, Winchester, where the Rev. J. L. Muir of the Winchester Baptist Church officiated yesterday (Tuesday) at the service. Interment was at Maple Ridge Cemetery, Winchester.

C.M. Kitching
A lifelong resident of R. R. 2, Rockwood, Cameron MacKenzie Kitching, died in Halton Centennial Manor, Milton, on Friday.

Mr. Kitching was born in Nassagaweya township 74 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Colin Kitching. He married the former Viola

Margaret Cripps
Funeral service was held at Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton for Margaret Cripps, Georgetown who died in Guelph General Hospital February 16.

Mrs. Cripps was born January 20, 1895, the former Margaret Crewson. She married Alger E. Cripps and had three daughters, Mrs. Gordon Steen (Lois), Streetsville; Mrs. Ken Gotton (Thelma) Fergus, Georgetown; Mrs. Allen (Alva), Georgetown. She also had six grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. One sister also survives, Mrs. Martha Barnes,

Werden Leavens
Werden Leavens, former publisher and editor of The Bolton Enterprise died suddenly on Wednesday, February 16 at Sun Coast Hospital, Largo, Florida, while vacationing in that state. He was in his 71st year.

Mr. Leavens served on various committees of both The Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association and Ontario Weekly Newspapers Association, and served as secretary-manager of the latter for a record 22 years. He was president of CWNA in 1960-61 and upon his retirement from The Bolton Enterprise in 1976 received the much-coveted Gold Quill Award for 50 years of distinguished service to the community newspapers.

In 1949 he was the first chairman of the executive committee of CWNA. The work with this committee took him to Ottawa many times, giving briefs on behalf of CWNA to the cabinet and Prime Minister.

Mr. Leavens sold The Enterprise in February 1976 to Metrospan Community Newspapers Limited.

At the time of his death he was president and manager of Leavens Printers and Publishers in Bolton. The Enterprise was printed at Dills Printing for several years and he was a frequent visitor to the plant, as well as valued friend.

He was a noted authority on the early history of Bolton and was a member of the Albion-Bolton Historical Society and the York Pioneer Historical Society.

Involved in community affairs, he served on Bolton council and at the time of his passing was Chairman of the Bolton Hydro Electric Commission.

In 1967 he was appointed to the Board of Governors of Sheridan College and was also a member of the Journalism Advisory Committee. For his leadership as a member and chairman of the Humber Valley Conservation Authority from the time of his appointment in 1948 Werden Leavens received much praise.

He is survived by his wife Marjorie, son Werden Jr., and daughter Christina (Mrs. Ken Graham), all of Bolton. He was the loving grandfather of Asa, Roger and Douglas Leavens and Sarah Graham. He also left two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Code, Toronto; and Mrs. Myra Justice, Niagara Falls.

A private family service was held from Egan Brothers Funeral Home, Bolton, on Saturday, February 19, with interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery. David Dills was one of the pallbearers.

Unusual
A groundhog has been seen bounding around in the snow—unusual for this time of year.

17 year old charged
A 17-year-old Acton youth was arrested and charged with causing a disturbance Saturday. He was also charged with mischief for damaging a police department vehicle.
