

Ballinfad

Woman is attacked

By Wilfred Smith
Mrs. Lois Kennedy of Mississauga visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Burt on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy have recently returned from a holiday in the Bahamas.

She related some of her experiences while there which wasn't so nice. It was a rather quiet time of day, 6.30 in the evening when she decided to do the laundry at the nearby laundromat.

She had just stepped outside to leave when a native grabbed her and held a knife to her throat. Her first thought was to scream, which she did, then wrestled with the man and was successful in getting him down. As his arm was outstretched she took the knife from him.

He said "I was only trying to scare you." No doubt he realized he had tackled the wrong girl.

Lois as a teenager had taken lessons in Judo. She also belongs to a girls' hockey team at the present time.

The police were notified, but the man ran off and made good his escape.

Eden Mills

Meetings, parties

by Mrs. Georgina Wright
Hostess for the monthly meeting of the United Church Women was Mrs. Freda Thompson with Mrs. Ruth Milson in the chair.

Mrs. Lorna Thomlinson opened the Devotional with the singing of "Will Your Anchor Hold." Scripture read was on the beatitudes followed by a hymn sing.

Minutes of last meeting and treasurer's reports were given by Mrs. Mabel Parker and Mrs. Jean James. Flower and card report was given by Mrs. Lorna Thomlinson and a donation received from Sadie Thomas, Hamilton.

Plans were made for a luncheon and the World's Day of Prayer to join with the Presbyterian Women. Mrs. Holly Saulnier and Mrs. Freda Thompson attended the Presbyterian meeting in Guelph. The president closed the meeting with the members repeating the United Church Women's Prayer. A vote of thanks went to the hostess. Refreshments followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Gamble to dinner—the occasion Mr. Gamble's retirement from Abitibi Provincial Paper in Georgetown and moving to Collingwood.

At the Friendly Seniors' Meeting on Wednesday afternoon in community hall, Mr. Bob Love and some of his students from Rockwood showed slides of various scenes in Eden Mills and Rockwood and received a lot of information which they were collecting from some of the old-timers of the village. They were able to hear that the house in Eden Mills once a hotel years back was built in 1867 and was 100 years old in 1967. Part of the beautiful original bar is at the Mohawk Inn. A vote of thanks went to Mr. Love.

The seniors followed with a short business meeting, then adjourned to the card tables. Refreshments followed.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club made Mexican Pinates as the project for the afternoon.

Mrs. Blaakman and Mrs. Jean Turowski were at Eden House taking pictures of residents and staff recently. For the February birthday party the Craft Club is having a slide show to entertain the residents. A birthday cake is being prepared by Mrs. Pullan. Flowers will also be given to residents who are celebrating birthdays this month.

Ospringe

Brownies enjoy party

By Doris Fines
Visiting over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce; were sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Bruce on Mississauga, and Drs. Barry and Carol Bruce, Michael and Jeremy, of Carp.

Gordon Aitken underwent surgery in Guelph General Hospital, and is recovering nicely. He is expected to soon be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lang and Bonnie spent the weekend with Mrs. Lejacks and Helen, at Parry Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wynne, Deborah and Eric, visited on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Russell and family, at Rexdale.

Mrs. Glen Jackson and Judy Johnston are leaders of the spring sewing project of the 4-H Homemaking Club. The first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Jackson, and officers were elected: Margie Johnston is president, and Kathy Johnston is secretary, while Gwen Hacke is press reporter. The girls will be making pyjamas and housecoats.

The Ospringe Brownies enjoyed a tobogganing party on Saturday afternoon on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Swackhammer. Fourteen girls and three leaders had a wonderful time. They took time out for an observation walk, to notice tracks in the snow, and different trees, when the girls were examined for their Golden Bar. They then enjoyed hot chocolate and marshmallows in the Swackhammer kitchen.

Thinking Day
On Sunday twelve Brownies and their leaders went to a special Thinking Day service at Everton Church, along with Everton Guides and Brownies.

The pupils and staff of Ospringe school went on a skating party to Acton arena on Valentine's Day. They appreciated the help of some parents for supervision and tightening laces.

Elmer Fisher of Guelph was hostess for the February meeting of Ospringe Ladies Aid. It was held in the afternoon, and was a Valentine meeting.

Mrs. Ralph Sinclair had the devotional, and read an article on Love by Rev. Goodman. She also read the scripture from John 3, that the Father loves His Son, and whoever believes in the Son will have eternal life.

Mrs. Gordon Aitken read from the study book "Who is in Control", meaning God.

Questions and discussions followed.

A discussion was also held on front page news (news of today) "Do we think that God is exercising His justice in the many things that are happening in the world today?"

The roll call was an exchange of home-made valentines. Mrs. Byron Bruce, program convener, had a contest—a fairy tale story with blank spaces to be filled in with names of people. Mrs. Ward Bruce gave a reading on How to Live Excitingly.

Pupils thrilled
On Thursday the grade three pupils of Area 1 and Rockwood, assembled at Ospringe school to see "Old Man Coyote", a North American Indian play. It was well acted by five actors from the Toronto Dance Theatre. The pupils were thrilled with the performance.

Public speaking is well under way, and a number of speakers representing grades four, five and six competed in the school finals on Friday. The judges were Mrs. Ward Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Lambdon. Mr. Lambdon gave a brief commentary on the speeches, and offered some very kindly hints in a pleasing manner.

The winner was Henrietta Veerman from grade six, who spoke on her trip to Holland. Second place was gained by Erica Barr, grade six, who spoke on Prize Chickens. Gordon Weisner came third with his talk on Dolphins.
