HEADLINERS

It was Jean Bidden who won the weekly draw in the G.W.G.'s Thursday afternoon league—have to hand it to John Cressay of the John's Texaco Service team in the Industrial-Commercial league for being consistent. He bowled consecutive games of 183-182-181—the qualifying round for the Adams Brothers National Classified Tournament is over and we have five men's teams and five ladies' teams rolling in the Zone Round. The ladies will bowl Sunday March 6th at 10 a.m. here at Acton Lanes and the men will bowl Sunday March 20th at 10 a.m. also here at Acton Lanes. The top winning team, both ladies and men's will advance to the next round—a note of interest is that John Thorson, manager of the Sports Department for the Ministry of Culture and Recreation, recently said, in his opinion, bowling was one of the best organized sports in Canada. So any day now we will have the Russians claiming they invented the game—'twainds it up once again my friends, so adios, amigos and goodnites, Concord City.

Nursing home near hospital

A 100 bed nursing home is planned for land beside Georgetown hospital, A. E. (Fred) Morris, Hospital Administrator, told Halton Hills council, Monday night. Mr. Morris said there is a serious shortage of nursing home beds in the town and claimed there are only ten beds to serve the area. He claimed beds in the hospital are being occupied by patients who would be better served in a nursing home. He pointed out the cost of a hospital bed and supporting service is $60,000 while the cost in a nursing home is $9,000.
