

Legion town league tallies

Consolation and championship finals will be played this Saturday at the arena. Trophies and crests will be handed out after every game in the finals.

Atom
Mark Armstrong shut out London to lead St. Kitts to a 5-0 win and a 10-4 victory in the two game total points. Jerry Herrington figured in four of St. Kitts' five goals, scoring three and assisting one. Shawn Taras netted the final goal, and Chris Stansbury assisted on the first. Jamie Taras got the goal on Herrington's assist.

Hamilton took Oshawa 5-4 to leave their two game totals tied at 8-8. An overtime period saw Oshawa's Bill Morrison score to give them the series. Morrison scored twice and assisted on Ted Lindsay's marker during regulation play. He also assisted when Don McDonald pulled the trigger. Other Oshawa assist was recorded by Todd Anderson.

Bruce Sheppard scored three times and assisted once for Hamilton. Scott Hibbard mirrored this with three assists and one goal. Other goal was scored by Tim Briggs.

Peewees
Rochester tied Cleveland 3-3 but won the two game totals 9-7 to move into the finals. Tom Briggs, Scott McDonough and Fred Kapper were marksmen for Rochester. Tom McDonough picked up two assists.

Tom Shannon scored twice for Cleveland, assisted once by Brian deVries and once by Vince Obin. Mike Scott netted the other point, assisted by Scott Petty.

Springfield cut loose behind the solid goaltending of Simon Ager to take their game with Baltimore 7-0, giving them the two game totals by a score of 11-3. Paul Nolan was the big gun for Springfield, with four goals. Brian Canary scored twice and Chris Lobsinger once to account for the rest of the scoring. Paul Hudson got credit for two assists and Chris Stansbury and Chris Lobsinger each got one.

Tidewater edged Richmond 4-2 which was the difference as they won their two game series eight goals to six. Each Tidewater goal was scored by a different player: Rusty Elliot, Bob Munro, Craig Yarmey and Bob Little were the sharpshooters. Assists went to Bob Little twice, Mark Dawkins, Joe Balkind and Rusty Elliot once each.

Barry McNabb and Robert Rodgers found the range for Richmond. David Dunne got an assist.

Novice
Brampton rolled 9-1 in their two game series with Weston, taking the second game 4-1. John Coniglio scored twice to lead the winners. Kirk McNabb added a goal and three assists to the total. Randy McIntyre scored once and had an assist, and Phillip Wedge got credit for an assist on Kirk McNabb's goal. Steve Harkins was the lone marksman for Weston.

Dixie shaded Guelph 2-1 to take their totals 5-3. Jeff Brown and John Stansbury got the goals and Jeffrey Scott took the assist. Pierre Bohlert did the honours for Guelph's only score.

Bantam
Joe Treccapelli found the range five times in the course of the Toros' 8-4 win over the Aeros. Glenn McMecken potted two and Paul Marchment added a single to the total. Assists went to Dave Medland, twice, Paul Mar-head, Norma Hickling and Lyn Franklin for the Wednesday afternoon championship. Thursday night's honours will go to either the team of Nan Hurst, Lois Mackenzie, Carol Korpella and Judy Hacke or Nicole "don't bring them back for a pint" Campbell, Pat Near, Margie Mackenzie and Marion Wilson.

Out of town
Two weeks ago several of our club's men's rinks ventured forth to out-of-town bonspiels. Both rinks won their draws and returned home with the week's meals - a very suitable peace offering for their wives. The rink winning in Durham was composed of John Mintern, Bill Cripps, Pat Chamberlain and Richard Hignett. Those winning in Fergus were Pete Vidler, Jim Coughlin, Tony Verbik and Doug Appleyard.

This past weekend Tom Nicol took Sherry Few, Fred New and Tony Verbik up to Mount Forest to defend their trophy and came away with a third place finish. In the process they scored a seven ender.

John Mintern and Brian Robertson were on a rink that were in the finals of the third event at the Flowertown spiel in Brampton. Dexter Lindberg, Don Ross, Pat Chamberlain and Jim Coughlin went to Guelph and put up a good show even though they lost their first two games.

I.G.A. Bonspiel
Last Saturday at the club the ever favourite I.G.A. bonspiel was held. Many thanks must go to Wayne Ruse, manager of Acton I.G.A. who was very generous in his sponsorship of this spiel. We were glad you were able to come out, Wayne, and sure hope you had a good time. Wayne presented the trophy to superskip Marilyn McArthur who was speechless. She and her rink of Jeff Moulden, Richard Bruce and Kristine Bruce curled extremely well to win the trophy and the turkey. Finishing second in the second draw behind

Early draw on Wednesday has Brian Robertson's rink of Fred New, Fred Shortill and Chuck Beaton playing against Claude Cook and his gang of Steve Ormsby, Charlie Davidson and Al Guardhouse.

This Sunday Fiona Fieback returns to lead her team of Shirley Rosenbersky, Ann Ridley and Janet Haytor against Shirley Hunter's charges of Evelyn Cadenchment, John Griese, twice, Joe Treccapelli, and Mike Sweetman.

Dave Lawson, Steve Hepburn, Dave deVries and Chris Hudson were marksmen for the Aeros. Kevin McLaren got the only assist. The Toros take the two game totals 11-5.

Midgets
Vancouver won their game 4-3 but lost their totals 8-6 to Detroit. Nick Humenick scored twice for Detroit and Robert Edge added the third. David Johnson got credit for an assist on Edge's goal.

Gary Pickles and Terry Winters each got credit for unassisted markers and Don Saunders got two for Vancouver.

Toronto beat Montreal 4-1 to take their totals by a score of 8-3. Cliff Britton was the lone sharpshooter for the losers. Lloyd Sheppard nailed one goal and two assists for the winners. Malcolm McKenzie added two markers and Tom Rosenbersky took the other. Assists on Rosenbersky's point came from Dave Murchison and Mike Rippon.

PICKED AS TOP Tiny Acton gymnasts at the Halton Hills Recreation Department's Gymnastics Competition at Georgetown high school were left to right in order of finish, Penny Sieber, Martha Armstrong, Keri Gudgeon, Jennifer Lusby, Elaine Easdale and Adrienne Kovacks. The combined competition included gymnasts from both Acton and Georgetown.

Nearly 100 people took part in the municipality's first All-Halton Hills Gymnastics meet on March 13. Ninety-two youngsters received 210 individual ribbons and certificates.

From Acton the Tiny Division group winners were:

Halton Hills council are not nautical. No member of council volunteered to cruise down the Credit River Saturday afternoon, in the Jaycees Crazy Boat Race, April 2. Councilor Peter Marks nominated Mayor Tom Hill, but he growled "You'll never get me in a boat race." Council decided they would respectfully decline, but Marks thought it should be "fearfully decline".

Penny Sieber, Marsha Armstrong, Keri Gudgeon, Jennifer Lusby, Elaine Easdale and Adrienne Kovacks. The Cadet Group was combined to include: Elizabeth Majurey, Michelle Dupuis, Andrea Armstrong, Christine Hughes, Kelly Hogart and Carman Lamonte.

Susan Auly topped the Argo Group list to be followed by Renne Vehof, Linda Guden, Michélean Migue, Kim Craig and Kelly Whaling.

Tyro age group—Ann Graham Smith, Rhonda De Zeeuw and Karen Sparks, placed first out of three. Novice first was Kelly George.

The club divided its girls into two groups Cadet and Tiny, of which the latter was the smaller. Lisa Frank and Debra Dougal with a tie for

Gymnasts take individual prizes

Acton High School gymnasts finished out of the money as a team but picked up some impressive individual performances at the East Halton Finals on March 15. "This is the best we've ever done" said Anne Cepik, coach.

Jocelyn MacMillan, who placed third over-all last year in the senior competition, repeated again this year with a score of 30 out of a possible 40 points. She was first in the senior balance beam event with a score of 8.0 out of 10, fifth in the vault with a 7.27 and sixth in the uneven parallel bars with a 7.3. Zonya Baker's highest individual finish was a fifth in the Junior vault, but steady overall performance earned her a third place finish in the all around competition, with a score of 27.56 out of 40.

The girls are now helping out with the coaching of the novice team which competes in a meet of their own on April 26 in Milton.

Georgetown was second in the overall team standings.

Streetsville wins league

The Streetsville Derbys won the Central Junior B League Championship after they knocked off the Milton Flyers four games straight in the finals, taking the final game 8-4.

Although it was a rough series with both teams collecting large amounts of penalties Flyer coach Gerry Inglis had only compliments for the Derby team after the final game.

Inglis said he was forced to play with only one solid line after the line of Rod Gooding, Dave Turner and Keith McKinnon fell into a scoring slump and Rick Bridgman and Ken Fay missed the series because of injuries.

Curling Club starts finals, sweeps toward championship

It's playoff time at the club. Some of us were unfortunate not to get in the playoffs and for us that is curling for another season. Others are involved in post-season games.

Flash! It has just been reported to me that Andy McKenzie's rink of Kit King, Fred New and Mary Watson defeated Don Ross's quartet of wife Lynda and Jim and Janice Coughlin for the Credit Union Trophy for the early Friday draw. They will now anxiously await the winner of the late draw. The two teams fighting for this privilege are the team of Fred Archibald, Kae Hansen, Gord Toth and Joan King and Sherry Few's foursome of Willa Hewitt, Sandy Keir and Dorothy Few.

The Monday and Tuesday night championships will be decided this week. Playing off for the Monday night trophy will be the undefeated team of Pete Vidler, Willa Hewitt, Jeff Moulden and Andy Rhyndard against sure shot Dexter Linberg, Norma Robinson, John Bumstead and Karen Knickie. Tuesday night's championship involves the rink of Del Hickling, Karen Shortill, Dave Robertson and Shirley Rosenbersky and Gord Toth's team of Ann Moore, Richard Bruce and Carol Korpella.

The Wednesday night late draw was so successful that four teams were bunched at the top. In order to sort out this mess the following schedule was set up. Ken Marchment's super-shooters of Sherry Few, Bruce McArthur and Lee Gosselin have earned a bye to the finals. Don Ross's quartet of Tony Verbik, Pat Chamberlain, and Jim "Lefty" Coughlin will play a quarter-final match against Fred "slider" Archibald and his back-up of Bill Cripps, Pete Vidler and Doug Rhyndard. The winner of this match will play John Mintern's forces of Howard "come on back for a pint" Campbell, Graham Peel and Doug Appleyard. The winner of this match then plays Ken's team.

Early draw on Wednesday has Brian Robertson's rink of Fred New, Fred Shortill and Chuck Beaton playing against Claude Cook and his gang of Steve Ormsby, Charlie Davidson and Al Guardhouse.

This Sunday Fiona Fieback returns to lead her team of Shirley Rosenbersky, Ann Ridley and Janet Haytor against Shirley Hunter's charges of Evelyn Caden-

head, Norma Hickling and Lyn Franklin for the Wednesday afternoon championship. Thursday night's honours will go to either the team of Nan Hurst, Lois Mackenzie, Carol Korpella and Judy Hacke or Nicole "don't bring them back for a pint" Campbell, Pat Near, Margie Mackenzie and Marion Wilson.

Tennis club to resurface courts

Council has allotted $35,000 to the tennis club, to be used for improvements of the existing surfaces and the addition of a new court.

The club is preparing specs right now for the work, and will be sending out tenders for the job in the coming weeks.

Resurfacing of the courts is the prime purpose of the funds, following numerous complaints last year about the condition of the courts. It is not known yet what sort of surfacing will be used.

Fast food
The three courts now in use were popular. Facilities superintendent Pat Sheehan rink of Donna Cripps, Roger Wilson and Marion Wilson. Congratulations to all lady skips who did a magnificent job.

Members are reminded of the Walker-Ridley spiel beginning April 1. Hospitality starts April 1 and the first qualifying date for the Sun and Fun is this Saturday for anyone interested in watching some fine curling. Male members are reminded of the annual Acton-Erin challenge match starting March 28 and 30. Sign up at the club this week. The left-handers are out this weekend for your basic world championship. Remember awards night at the club is April 23.

Use of the courts is not strictly limited to club members. "Twenty-five per cent of the time has to be public," according to recreation supervisor Anne Pickering.

It is not known yet whether the courts will be resurfaced before this season opens, around Easter weekend.
