

Wellington — Dufferin — Peel
Progressive Conservative
Association

ANNUAL MEETING
AND NOMINATION CONVENTION

Wednesday, April 13
8:00 p.m.

Royal Canadian Legion
Fergus

Those wishing to contest the nomination must indicate their desire to do so in writing mailed to Mrs. Linde Gray, Bolton, Ontario, postmarked no later than Saturday April 9 at 5 p.m.

ELABORATE WEDDING SCENE at the spring fashion show Monday was complete to the last detail, including throwing the bridal bouquet. Foreground, junior bridesmaid Shirley Murray, flowergirls Adrianna Riccuto and Lisa Murray, bride and groom Jeff Nurse and Brenda Bruce, bridesmaids Lorella De Pieri and Miriam Balkwell, (partially hidden from view), junior bridesmaid Lillian Graham, usher Dave Medcalf, ringbearer Steven Robertson and flowergirl Kara Leatherland. More of the wedding party is off camera.

STEVEN Robertson did not take his job as ring bearer lightly during the mock wedding at the spring fashion show Monday evening.

ACTING MOTHER and father of the bride were Earl and Marlene Steckley during the fashionable wedding scene at the spring fashion show Monday evening at M.Z. Bennett school. Mrs. Steckley's gown was from Marilyn's Village Boutique and her husband's tuxedo was from Freeman's Formal Rental through Nielsen's Men's Store.

Country Cousin
Ceramics & Crafts

Spring Program

Starting Monday, April 4
Day and Evening Classes

New Techniques - Seminars

Beginners 10 classes $25.

Intermediate and Advanced 8 classes $20.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CALL

Grace E. Irwin
877-3748

Greenware Firing

Custom Orders

Y's Menettes, shops present 'Fashion Musicale'

"Fashion and music belong together," commentator Marilyn Ottaway told a packed auditorium at the M. Z. Bennett school Monday night. She was introducing a scintillating, fast-stepping program which presented clothing from her shop, Marilyn's Village Boutique, Toddlers to Teens and Nielsen's Clothing, and shoes from Sweetman's.

Two pianists, recordings and vocalist Judy Harmsworth all added the perfect musical touches at the right times.

Dancers

Records accompanied such lively numbers as Boogie Fever. Jeff Ferguson and Karen McCord were featured dancers in this scenario.

The range of clothing encompassed everything from bikinis to formal wear. Hats, purses and jewellery were coordinated.

A special accent was given by Audrey Medcalf demonstrating the belly dance, wearing one of the Boutique's special intriguing outfits. Sol Henry and Lou Baker danced the hula to Hawaiian Wedding Song.

The segments of the show were arranged by theme, with interesting tableaux adding variety.

The finale was a traditional wedding scene which produced rousing applause. Brenda Bruce was the beautiful bride and Jeff Nurse the groom.

Pat Nellis, president of the sponsoring Y's Menettes, conducted draws for lucky prizes.

Presentations

Marilyn Ottaway had corages for the people who assisted so much in staging the spring show. Alma Sweetman of Sweetman's Shoes, Flo Charlebois of Toddlers to Teens, Paul Nielsen of Nielsen's Clothing who supplied the men's clothes, some of them through a rental agency, and stage manager Helen Van Sicker.

Gloria Longshaw of Vanda and Marie Riccuto looked after makeup. Pearl Ivanic also helped backstage as an organizer.

Taking part

Children and young people who modelled the charming clothing from Toddlers to Teens store were Steven Robertson, Matthew Robertson, Lisa Murray, Adrianna Riccuto, Kevin Usher, Jason Schonnop, Leigh Whiting, Michelle Perry, Laura Langridge, Kara Leatherland, Mike Nellis, Kim Usher, Lauren Aldridge, Stacy Perry, Lillian Graham, Brad Ottaway, Shirley Murray, Julie Charlebois, Andre Charlebois, Michelle Perry, Steven Campbell, Debbie Lumbers and Patty Newman, Stephanie and Donald Murray.

Models were Carol Jeske, Miriam Balkwell, Heather Whiting, Judy Hilliard, Mary Watson, Lou Baker, Sharon Popkey, Sol Henry, Joe Lister, Anne Usher, Marlene Steckley, Edith Bryan, Audrey Medcalf, JoAnne Carlen, Lynne Jeske, Nancy Aldridge, Lorella De Pieri, Rosemary Schonnop, Lillian De Vries, Joyce Parkinson, Lorraine Fedehyshyn, Darlene Moss, Marie Murray, Kim Ottaway, Carol Hriantie and Brenda Bruce.

Male models got special applause from the crowd. They were Louis Charlebois, Paul Nielsen ("Acton's Mr. Fashion"), George Gray, Jeff Ferguson, Dave Medcalf, Jim Baker, Earl Steckley, Tom Van Sicker and Jeff Nurse.

JEFF NURSE and Brenda Bruce were two big hits Monday evening as they modelled outfits from Nielsen's Clothing Store and Marilyn's Village Boutique during the spring fashion show held at M.Z. Bennett school.

WEE KARA LEATHERLAND carefully strews rose petals as she played the role of the flowergirl in a mock wedding at the spring fashion show, Monday evening at M.Z. Bennett school. Her gown is from Toddlers to Teens.

Milton Mall presents . . .

SPRING
FASHION FROLIC

With the first blush of spring come fashions in full bloom and fit for the free spirit!

Join us at Milton Mall, Wednesday and Thursday, April 6 and 7, for a preview of spring fashions dipped in sunlight and waiting for you.

Easter Bunny will be wishing you a Happy Easter with favours courtesy of the Milton Mall Merchants.

A Goldenglow Production
Free Admission
Time: 7:15 p.m.

PLAYS FRI.-SAT.-SUN.

APRIL 1, 2, 3

Russ Meyer's 'VIXEN' wasn't big enough...
for Russ Meyer!

so much for any woman...
too much for most men!

* PLUS *

"WE ARE NO VIRGINS" and
"THE CHEERLEADERS"

Box Office OPENS 7:00 P.M.

Show STARTS at 7:30

DIAL 824-5431
MUSTANG DRIVE-IN THEATRE
ERAMOSA TOWNLINE Guelph

Spring

Excitement

Lunch

with

John
Crosbie

M.P.

Tuesday, April 5

Charles Hotel

12:15 p.m. BEAR RUG ROOM

MILTON

$1.50 Per Person

ALL WELCOME

JUDY HILLIARD modelled an outfit from Marilyn's Village Boutique at the spring fashion show Monday evening.