44, Foulliners 38 ITEADPLY HILITES So it came to pass, in the forenoon of April 17th, 1977 A.D. that the Rehable Snack Bar, Don Grein, Larry Nolan, Hob Woodcock, Don Archibald, Harry Moon, Hank Earle and Pete Schipper did rise up in righteous wrath and confounded the experts by defeating the Olympia Brive-In for the Industrial Commercial league playoff championship, four games to three in the seven game rolloff. It was claimed by some that Rehable Snack flar were lucky to make it to the finals by defeating John's Texaco Service who were without the trundling skill of their ace backer, l'ete Homer, in the semi-finals Bethat as it may be, the fact remains, they were in the finals and were decidedly the underdogs according to the boys on Burn and Badstreet With Olympia winning the first two games, 1215 to 1075 and 1150 to 1054 it looked as if the railbirds were right in their predictions. True, Rehable won the third game 1291 to 1051 but Olympia came back to annex the fourth game 1150 to 986 and the wereacres said, "that it" and started to wend their way chewhere. Buh, were they ever wrong. The Reliable gang stayed alive by winning the fifth chukker

1168 to 1110 and backed it up with a 1152 to 1023 win in the sixth and it was a brand new ball game. At the halfway thank of the seventh game it was all Olympia only Reliable refused to believe it and kept pounding away and carried the issue right up to the finish and it was a battle right down to the last man, the last frame and the last ball. Certainly while every one of the Rebable team rate and deserve all-star billing, it remained for "Ole Hankus Pankus" Earle to come up with a 28 pin count in the anchor spot last trame to give Hehable Snack that the win, 1189 to 1170 and it was a whopping. jubilant Reliable team who took off in the stratosphere on cloud none. So endeth the "Saga of the Food Emportums" with Rehable Snack Har being winners and champions -- more election data, the Triano Mixed league will be under the guidance of Stew Morrison, president, Jack Norton, vice-president, secretary Bernice Norion and treasurer Val Norton-winner in the G.W.G.'s weekly draw was Mardyn Briggs -- in the Ladies Division of the Western Provincial Finals for the Adams' Classified, the Acton gals team of Sharon Holmes.
