

Lakeside plans anniversary tea

Over 40 members of the Lakeside chapter of the I.O.O.F. enjoyed dinner at the Royal Cafe on May 3, and then held their monthly meeting at the Legion.

Jessie Coles reported that due to the lack of local interest the Decoration Day Committee is cancelling the annual parade held the first Sunday in June. However, Lakeside members voted to decorate graves of former members, as in former years. The local Legion members and firefighters have also planned to do the same.

Preparations were finalized for the Silver Jubilee Tea on May 12, at the home of Mrs. Marguerite Taylor.

Cards and lunch followed the business.

Social evening for anniversary

Over 300 people enjoyed the party Friday which marked the 120th anniversary of the founding of St. Joseph's church. The dinner and dance were held in the Legion hall, and the aim was just to have a friendly social evening together.

There will be other events as well during the anniversary year.

Kathy Sanford was chairman of the dinner-dance committee with Julie Conroy in charge of the beautiful stained-glass-effect decorations.

Mrs. Harry Arbie made the anniversary cake and it was decorated by her granddaughter Lorrie Malcolm of Gormley. There were many comments on the cake.

The Legion Ladies catered and the Sound of Reflection played for dancing.

There were door prizes and a draw, a couple of toasts and Grace—but no speeches!

OLD-FASHIONED costume was worn by Mrs. Marge Murray to St. Joseph's anniversary party.

MAKING A draw at St. Joseph's dinner dance Friday in the Legion is Eugene Braida. Kathy Sanford, left, was in charge of the evening's celebration.

Dian Ewart retires, family moving away

District Guide Commissioner Dian Ewart has retired from her post and will be moving out of the area.

Due to personal reasons, the entire Ewart family will be leaving their Fifth Line home and moving to Willowdale. Mrs. Ewart told this newspaper however that she hopes the family can return in about five years, when she will definitely return to the Guide and Brownie scene.

A surprise pot luck supper was held at the Acton scout hall. Mrs. Ewart was told there was an unexpected meeting of leaders and executive. When she arrived, all the Guide and Brownie leaders, and Barb Murchison of the Guide mothers were in attendance.

The District Commissioner received a silver engraved locket from the Acton Guides, a silver charm with Acton engraved on it from the Scout and Guide mothers, an artificial flower display, and a brooch from one of the leaders.

Mrs. Ewart will be leaving for her new home on June 1 after three years as district commissioner. She says she plans to get into Guides in Willowdale also.

A nursing career is also in her future, the district commissioner reveals. Mrs. Ewart explains that she got half way through a nursing course several years ago, but was forced to stop. She plans to start at the beginning and update her education.

Shirley Scott will be promoted to take over Mrs. Ewart's position.

St. Joseph's draw winner

Field-Lawson vows in Knox Presbyterian

Knox Presbyterian church was the setting for the April 16 wedding of Cathy Elizabeth Lawson and Michael Francis Arthur Field.

The Rev. Andrew McKenzie officiated with E.A. Hansen as organist.

The bride, a cashier at the A & B Supermarket, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lawson, 105 Churchill Rd. South. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Field, 62 Longfield Rd., and is parts manager at L & L Ford.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a gown of white jersey with lace around the neck and cuffs. The waist length veil was held in position by a cap of lace and tiny pearl beads. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses with white stephanotis and wore a string of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Maid of honor was Pat Marchment. Bridesmaids were Nicki and Michelle Field, sisters of the groom, and Susan Bruce, a friend. Julie Ockenden, niece of the bride, was flowergirl. The bridal attendants wore blue dresses with matching jackets and floppy brim hats. They carried bouquets of white carnations with blue spray.

David Braida was his friend's best man. Ushers were Bill and Nathan Field, brothers of the groom, and Harry Lawson, brother of the bride. The groom's nephew, Mark Smith, was ring bearer.

Peter Lawson, uncle of the bride, gave the toast to the bride at the reception held at the Acton Music Centre. Master of Ceremonies John Mason, gave a toast to the groom.

The bride's mother made the wedding cake and Mrs. Young decorated it. Mrs. Lawson received her guests wearing a long mint green dress of jersey with flowing cape sleeves and silver accessories. The groom's mother wore a long coral pleated dress with beige accessories. They both wore yellow rose corsages.

The bridal party left to see the bride's great grandmother Mrs. Lillian Lawson, who could not attend the wedding.

Special guests were Mrs.

Eva Kenney, of Nova Scotia, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Nick Manchur and family, aunt and uncle of the groom, of Sault Ste. Marie; and Peter Lawson, uncle of the bride from Kingston. Other guests came from Toronto, Guelph and Acton.

Prior to her wedding, the bride-elect was guest of honor at two showers. Nicki and Michelle Field, sisters of the groom, held a personal and linen shower at the home of Dorothy Smith and maid of honor Pat Marchment held a miscellaneous shower at her home.

After a honeymoon in Niagara Falls, the newlyweds made their home on Fife Road in Grand Valley.

Surprise party 81st birthday

A surprise party was held Sunday for Mrs. Anna Smith to honor her on her 81st birthday. The party, at her home at 76 Lake Ave., was arranged by her family, daughter Wanetta, son Harold and his wife Carol Smith. Mrs. Smith recently took up residence in Halton Centennial Manor.

She lived in Acton all her life, the past 50 years or so on Lake Ave.

Over 70 attended the party, including relatives, neighbors and friends, many from Knox Church. She wore an orchid corsage for the occasion and received cards, gifts and flowers.

Her niece, Mrs. Muriel Thurston of Agincourt, poured tea. Her only granddaughter, Leslie Smith of Willowdale, looked after the guest book.

About a third of Ontario's electricity is generated by burning fossil fuels... coal, oil, natural gas. The price of all these natural resources is increasing rapidly. The price of coal, for example, has tripled over the last five years. Higher fuel costs inevitably show up in the price you pay for electricity.

Save electricity, and you'll save money. You'll also be helping to conserve dwindling natural resources for other important uses... transportation, agriculture, chemicals.

Conserve energy. The future depends on it.
