

Obituary

Nancy Hawkins

Nancy Mahon, wife of the late James Hawkins, formerly of Rockwood and Guelph, passed away at the Guelph General Hospital on Monday, May 9 in her 96th year.

Mrs. Hawkins leaves her step-daughter Isabel (Mrs. Cecil Nellis) of Rockwood, a grandson Jim Nellis, granddaughter Jean (Mrs. Gordon Haws) both of Guelph and five great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by four brothers Allan, John, James and Edward and four sisters Margaret, Sarah (Mrs. Jack Inglis), Marion and Olive. She and her husband farmed on the third line of Erasmus Township until they retired to Guelph. She was the daughter of James Mahon and Rebecca Smith and was born east of Campbellville, later moving to Brookville. Mrs. Hawkins taught in several schools in Nassagaweya Township. She was married in June, 1927 to a busy farmer (he was building a barn at the time). Her husband James Hawkins lived to the good old age of 95 as well. She also leaves several nieces and nephews Inez (Mrs. Walter Benham), Jim Inglis and Andrew Inglis of Toronto, a grandnephew Dr. Brian Moore of Acton and a dear cousin Annie (Mrs. Dave Storey) of Guelph. The service was conducted at the Wall-Custance Funeral Home, Guelph, on Wednesday, May 11, 1977 at 1.30 p.m. by the Rev. Douglas Sloan of Chalmers United Church, followed by interment in Eden Mills Cemetery. The pall bearers were Murray Mahon, Roger Mahon, William Mahon, Andrew Inglis, Jim Inglis and Alex Moore. Flower bearers were Linda Nellis, Karen-Nellis, Kevin Nellis, Billy Haws, Bobby Haws, all great grandchildren.

Summer students

Three local psychology students will be working at the North Halton Contact Centre in Georgetown during the summer. Since the Centre acts as information distributor as well as a distress centre the main job of the students will be to update the information files. They will also publish a directory of resources and produce maps of the towns within the centre's area pinpointing the public buildings on them. The maps will then be put on display in a prominent place. The students will also be trying to reach areas of the community that are perhaps not making use of the Centre at present. They will organize publicity to make more people aware of the Centre and its functions. Two of the students hired are from Georgetown and one is from Milton. Their names can't be released because they will, as part of their summer, be answering phones at the Contact Centre. The students have undergone a training course running one night a week for five weeks and one Saturday. The program is being jointly financed by the Secretary of State Department under their Student Community Service Program and the Ministry of Culture and Recreation. The Secretary of State grant is for $2,658 and the Ministry is for about $3,400.

Canvass

The Flowers of Hope are being delivered to homes, in appreciation of donations for the Mentally Retarded. Canvassers are out this week.
