

Spilling the Pins

At Acton Bowling Lanes

by Ken Hulford

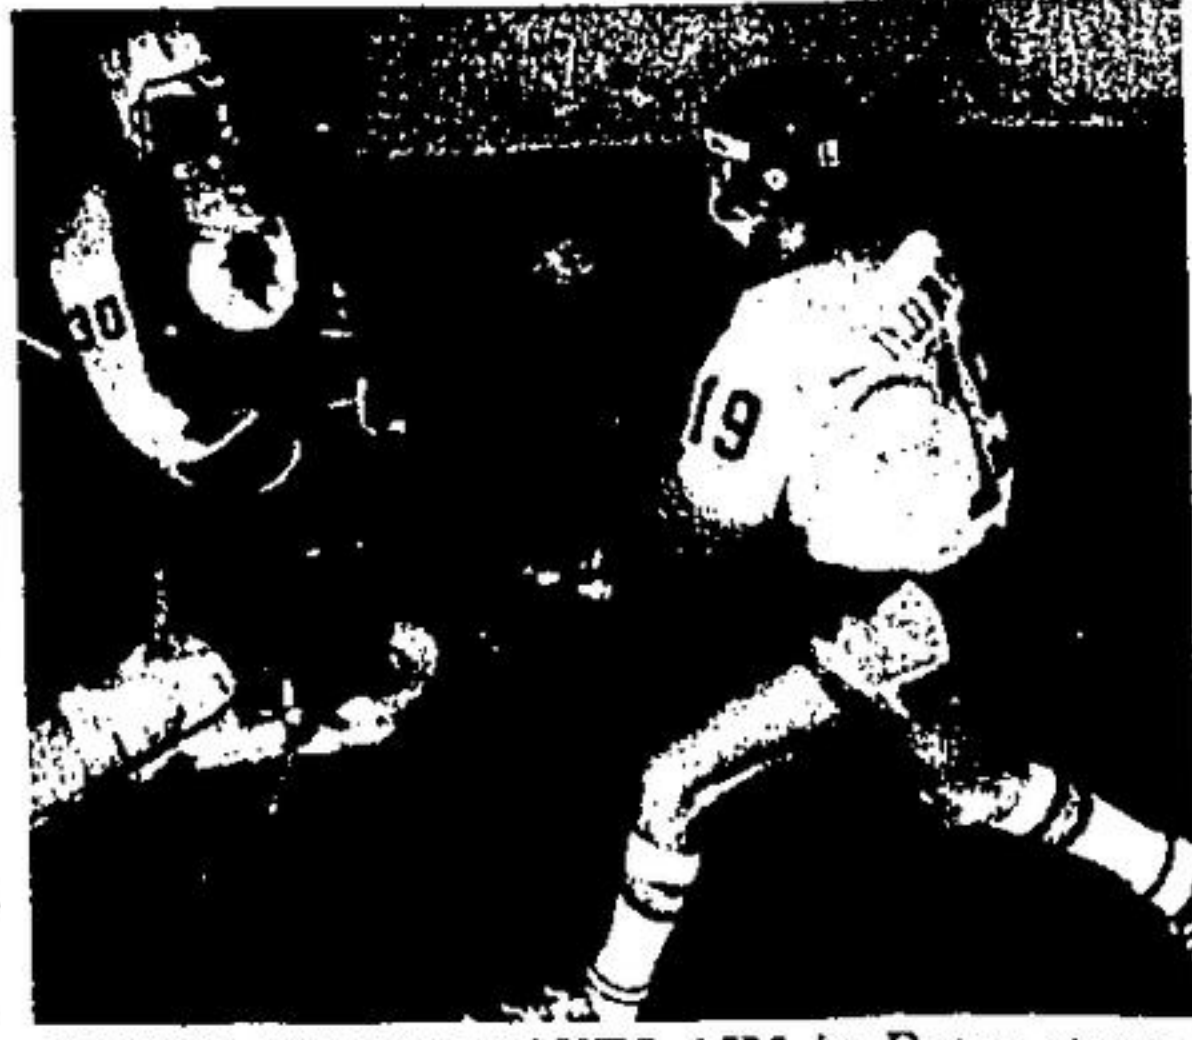

G.W.G.
May 12: Well, the Jolly Green Giant might be Hoop, Hoop in the Valley, but it was the Blue Giants, Donna Staves, Joyce Adams, Marj Thomson, Marilyn Connors, Lenore Turtcher and Edith Weir who were Hoop-Hoop-ing it up at the Acton Lanes last Thursday afternoon when, after going into the third and final game of the playoff championship trailing 105 pins, lumped, thumped and hammered the pins for a 1604 game to rack up a convincing three game total pinfall of 8807 to beat out the Hammerheads 8744, Loui Causes 8715 and Ken's Gals 8199 for the playoff title. In the consolation, Alley Cats were on the winning prowl for a three game total of 8029 to top Happy Hoopers efforts of 7917, so congratulations are due to Milo Kolosvari, Fran Frank, Julie Henge, Heidi Haeckel, Elizabeth Sleep and Elizabeth Nachazi. Top ten individual triples trailed by the ladies were those of Marj Thomson 627 (227), Donna Staves 509 (229), Joyce Adams 508 (233), Jean Lumbers 576 (236), Mary Palenau 506 (218), Debra Goodings 532 (197), Marilyn Briggs 532 (188), Milo Kolosvari 530 (209), June Housfield 529 (228) and Marilyn Connors 511 (195).

BIG FOUR PLUS TWO

May 13: It may have been Friday the 13th but it cut no ice with the Dingbobs. Going into the last three game block of a nine game block, total pinfall to count, they had a lead of 163 pins and they were never headed. They wound up with a total nine game pinfall of 7718 which easily took care of Hobbies 7405, Go-Getters 7296, Jeta 7227, Poulmiers 6566 and Nothings 6367. So congratulations are in order to Dingbobs, Carol Smith, Ed Essing, Pat Conners, Bev Haine, Pete Haines and Judy Johnston. Round-

McGilloways pass tests

Figure skaters' high test day was held at London, Ontario at the University of Western Ontario, Sunday, May 15. Cindy McGilloway was successful in passing two more gold dances, the Westminster Waltz and the Rhumba, leaving Cindy with one more gold dance to get, the Quickstep, before she's a Gold Dance Medallist.

David McGilloway was also successful in passing the senior silver dance, the Starlight Waltz.

Something new is happening at the pool and you could become part of it. It is our volunteer program. The volunteer works with a qualified swimming instructor and assists with the lessons under the supervision of the instructor. Their assistance is beneficial to the instructor and the swimmers as more time is spent with each child.

Sometimes a swimmer has difficulty with one particular skill or stroke, and with the assistance of a volunteer extra help can be given to that swimmer. In the tadpole and Pre Beginner classes their help is great as most of the children need reassurance and must be watched closely as the water even in the shallow end is over most of their heads. We can use volunteers in all the regular swimming lessons and also to help with swim team and synchronized swimming. Parents with some swimming ability are welcome to become involved with this program. A lot of the volunteers have Bronze or Leader awards but are not old enough to take their instructors. The people that are involved in this program are gaining a great deal of knowledge and are enjoying the experience. If you would like to be a part of this program we would appreciate hearing from you. To the people already involved we want to thank you: Lynda Shadbolt, Pauline Lesley, Helen Hoerig, Craig Gordon, Sharon Vos, Nancy Patterson, Doris Kovaks, Ann Usher, John Thompson and Larry Boyd.

Youth bowling

by Dale Anderson

This Saturday saw the end of the regular season of bowling with only the Family Twosome Tournament for the Juniors and Seniors on Sunday left to complete the schedule.

The Falcons beat the Sparrows out for the Bantams' championship while the Robins took the Consolation prize from the Hawks. The Coyotes wrapped up the championship for the Juniors, shutting the Bobcats out while the Haccoons picked up the Consolation from the Tigers. The Senior championship went right down to the wire as the Cherokee beat out the Mohawks, Iroquois and the Sioux for the Championship. The Hurons rolled some high games to take the consolation from the Apaches. Congratulations to all the winners and better luck next year for the others.

BANTAM TOP TEN: Shane Steeves 423 (198), Debbie Lumbers 408 (172), Alan Higgins 403 (162), Bruce Canary 396 (156), Andra Charles 385 (145), Tracey Halliday 381 (148), Jeffrey White 377 (141), Roger Masters 367 (140), Barry Mann 348 (129), Kevin Galloway 348 (129), Christopher Gervais 343 (131), The Orange Crush and Coke winners this week were Andra Charles with 53 pins over her average and Chris Gervais with 49 pins over his average.

JUNIOR TOP TEN: Laura Haine 563 (199), Lisa Thomas 521 (203), Lori Drysdale 510 (211), Scott Allanby 491 (191), Peter Mills 462 (178), Scott Norton 461 (189), Martha Green 448 (170), John Rayner 440 (151), Alan Larson 437 (171), Lynn Phillips 427 (163).

Storey 589 (223), Debbie James 503 (217), Gary Mandarino 505 (194), Dale Anderson 505 (194), Vaughn Cole 503 (201), Clayton Bigelow 514 (194), Brian Reid 487 (200), Gord Degen 481 (188).

The Family Twosome Tournament was held on Sunday with four winners each for the Junior and Seniors. Best in the Mother-Daughter category for the Juniors was Gill Robb and her mother, Mark Walter and his mother while the Father-Daughter winners were Beverly LeClair and her father and Chris Wood and his father took the Father-Son prize. The Senior section of the Family Twosome saw the following winners: In the Mother-Daughter classification Debbie James and her mother, in the Mother-Son classification Gary Housfield and his mother. Father-Son combination John Herrington and his dad took the honors and as there were no entries in the Father-Daughter there could be no winner. The Family Twosome Tournament is bowed as Scotch Doubles with the Youth Bowler throwing the first ball and the parent throwing the next followed again by the Youth Bowler each in turn so the kids really bowl with their parents, creating a few unexpected results but a lot of fun. Congratulations to all the winners and thanks to the parents who came out to have a good time with their kids.

Don't forget the Barquet dates: Bantams on June fourth, Junior on June third and Seniors on June second, the Ladies of Knox Church always serve up a most appetizing meal.

Involved in Calgary meet

Two representatives of Halton Cable Systems will be participating in the 20th annual Canadian Cable Television Association convention in Calgary. A. J. Jamieson, president and general manager and John Ollivier, Operations Manager will be participating on panels during the convention. Jamieson will be on a panel discussing marketing, sales and liaison with subscribers. Ollivier will be discussing through this position as well. The convention, Ollivier said, should provide new ideas and approaches. There will be some innovative new systems on display during the convention as well.
