New store in Erin

Harold and Madelyne Manes have opened a Jug City store in Erin, on the same location as their former IGA store. They had the IGA for six years but Mr. Manes said the store was just too small for a full-fledged supermarket. Part of the store now will have a take-out food service, operated by Gord Delill.

Harold's brother Dave operates Jug City in Georgetown.

Harold worked at the IGA store in Acton and Woodbridge before going to Erin. They are active in hockey, softball, Legion and other community activities.

Acton's atom rep team lost 6-0 to Orangeville May 24, with strong games for Acton from Dave Thomas and Goal keeper Andrew Ferguson, whose performance kept the score down. Coaches Ted Edmundson and Jim Dodgson advise the team is beginning to blend and they look forward to better results in the future.

Wednesday, May 25 saw the mosquito reps at home against Pineview. Acton won convincingly, 7-0, against a game Pineview side, the Acton goals coming from Emil Milnarevic with two and one each from Kenny Kavanaugh, Mathew Wakelin, Ian Sawdon, Guy Maltby and Mark Dues.

Mosquitos were again in action May 28 in Hillsburgh, the game resulting in a 2-2 draw. Scott Allonby scored both goals for Acton. Coach Alex Himashazi praised his team's performance, which was, despite the result, their best to date.

Atom reps were away at Milton May 28, losing 3-0, which shows that the boys are indeed improving, much to their coaches' delight.

May 30 saw the bantam rep team at home against Milton "B" team.
