Tennis talk
By Mark Hurst

On Sunday, June 12, the Acton Tennis Club held its second tournament of the season. Close to 40 club members participated in this round robin mixed doubles event.

ROBIN INSCOE warms up at Sunday's tennis club tournament in preparation for his first mixed doubles event.

Each entrant was involved in four matches, each match consisting of four games. Points were awarded to all participants based on the number of games won in each match.

Upon completion of the day long event, the points were tallied and the results were as follows: Don Lindsay was the top male competitor with 12 points while Heiki Bollert was the top female competitor with an identical score of 12 points.

Both Don and Heiki were presented with tennis figurines which were donated by Acton Steel Limited. Three cans of tennis balls and tennis bag were lucky draw prizes, and the winners were Gary Pickles, Bob Bruce, Gord Bruce and Koris Kovacs respectively.

A barbeque supper was organized and prepared by Bob Steen, and everyone enjoyed this conclusion to a successful day.

The club membership continues to grow with the numbers now totalling 122 juniors and 154 seniors.

At its last meeting, the executive of the tennis club came up with a plan which will help to alleviate some of
