

Barens — Smith marry in May

A honeymoon in the Bahamas followed the May 7 wedding ceremony of Roberta (Robbie) Smith and Harry Barens, both of Kitchener.

The bride is the daughter of Carolyn and A. Wallace Smith of Calgary and Hamilton respectively, and is sales representative for Belanger, Ford and Association, Barrie. The groom is the son of Wilkie and the late Hank Barens, 140 Mill St., W. Acton. He is employed as a service manager of Sweda Cash Registers, and was formerly involved with lacrosse in Acton.

The Rev. A. MacKenzie of Acton officiated at the double ring ceremony, held at Doon Pioneer Village Chapel, in Kitchener. Casper Pauw of Guelph was organist.

The bride's friend, Donna Webb, of Bramford was maid of honor, with Karen Smith, of Hamilton, sister of the bride, and Frances Barens of Acton, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids. They carried bouquets of mums and white carnations. The mums were tinted blue to match the tuxedo worn by the groom and his attendants.

Sid Hofstede, of Shelbourne, was best man with Bob Turkosz of Acton and Lloyd Smallwood of Guelph as ushers. Both the bestman and Mr. Smallwood are former residents of Acton.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. A dinner reception was held for the family only at the Bingham Park Lodge, Kitchener, and a dance followed for other friends and relatives.

Guests attended from Calgary, Hamilton, Guelph, Acton, Kitchener, Toronto, Brampton, Port Hope, Buffalo and London.

They are now living in Kitchener.
