Churchill

Sunday school picnic held at Elora Gorge

(Intended for June 29 paper) by J. Turner
Elora Gorge Park was the site of the Churchill Sunday School picnic June 26, and about 50 church and church school members travelled there by bus. Under sunny skies, the Rev. James L. McFadden conducted an informal outdoor worship. The singing was accompanied by Mrs. Frank Thompson and Mrs. Donald Anderson on piano accordions.

A bountiful lunch shared in the pavilion was followed by a sports program planned by Liz Cooper and Jan Swackhamer. Prizes were awarded as follows:

Races: Five and under: Kelly Marshall first, Cristal Hillier second; 8 and under: Corrie Denny first, Scott Marshall second; twelve and under: Juliann Turner first, Erica Barr second; sixteen and under: Susan Milne first, Donald Anderson second; sixteen and over: David Anderson first, Leanne McFadden second, Marie Anderson last.

The three-legged race was won by Leanne McFadden and Vera Strokov with Marg Nelson and Cathy George second. Stacy Hillier was first in a balloon blowing contest, Erica Barr 2nd. David and Marie Anderson won the balloon race with Debbie Geberlein and Theresa Lehovich second. The bicycle race was won by Jim McFadden with Frank Thompson second. Brenda Hillier won the women's hula hoop contest, with Helga Denny second.

Couples winning the blindfold game were Jim McFadden and Brenda Hillier first. Frank and Olga were second. The wheelbarrow race was won by Theresa Lehovich and Debbie Geberlein first, Corrie and Ginger Denny second, Erica Barr and Juliann Turner third.

There followed an obstacle race for the young folk and a candy scramble for the children.

After icecream cones all around, the young people went swimming while the older folk sat and visited, or walked along the scenic gorge. Then all back to Clarence Denny's "Bluebird" for the trip home.

A golden wedding of interest was celebrated in Guelph Saturday June 25. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Julian recalled that 50 years ago the day was much the same, a thunder storm in the early morning followed by hot, hazy weather.
About 125 brought their good wishes and were served tea in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. Vera Denny, Mrs. Eleanor McKeown attended from this area.
Close relatives and friends remained for a buffet dinner in the evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Julian are Joanne Turner's parents. Dr. and Mrs. Richard Julian hosted the event, Dick having returned from his PAHO post in Antigua especially for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. John G. Julian and family, Woodstock, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Julian and family, Toronto, and Mrs. Peg Julian and family, North Bay, were also with their parents on this very special day.

The Jack Marshall auction sale on Friday went off quite successfully, with Churchill ladies in the booth also reporting a busy and profitable afternoon. However, the best news of the day was that Jack had successfully come through six hours of open heart surgery involving five arterial bypasses. We certainly wish him a speedy recovery and the family all the best in their new farm home at Metz, West Garafraxa.

School is out and the kids are already looking for "something to do." Strawberry picking at Hisaki's will use up some of the surplus energy this week.

GEORGE DEFOREST had his 1938 Dodge Coupe on display in the Mill St. mall on the weekend as part of Back to Acton Days.
