

"Fun night" meeting for Women's Institute

It was "Fun Night" at the meeting of Dublin Women's Institute last Thursday evening, it being the annual picnic.

Mrs. Wallace Lasby, Nassagaweya (Milton), was the hostess for the good turnout of members and two visitors. The evening being cool, tables were set up inside, and justice was taken of a pot-luck supper, complete with a fine assortment of foods, which everyone enjoyed very much.

After the supper, the ladies went outside for a few of the games, but as darkness came, the remainder were conducted in the house. There were many contests, and everyone joined in heartily; all except one, and there was only one entry in it; it was a prize to the newest great-grandmother of daughters, which was won by Mrs. W. J. McIntyre.

Mrs. M. Hunter, president presided for the meeting afterwards, and for the opening numbers. Minutes and correspondence were read by the secretary, Mrs. D. Hunter, who also called the roll. This month it was answered by "A title of a song containing your name," and some sang a verse in responding.

An invitation to be guests of Acton Women's Institute at Acton Library on September 7 at 2:30 p.m. was gladly accepted.

A training school for 4H leaders will be held on September 8 and 9 in Ligny School. The theme will be "A World of Food in Canada".

A fine amount of money to enhance the treasury was handed in by Mrs. E. Wilson, Catering and Booth Convener, as a result of four events held recently.

A cheque will be sent to the "Back-to-Action Days" campaign as their share of the proceeds from their booth sales. A further donation will be made when final decisions are made as to the Acton Town Hall.

"A Hobby a day keeps boredom away", is the theme of the exhibit at Acton Fall Fair in September this year, and ideas were exchanged for it. The president also reported that space in the arena has been reserved by the branch for a booth.

Full and most interesting accounts of the 80th anniversary of the Founding of Women's Institutes at Stony Creek were given by Mrs. Clark Armstrong and Mrs. M. Nellis. They had attended the sessions at Bingham Park, Waterloo, in July.

Another celebration was observed at the meeting, and that was the Silver Jubilee of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Mrs. J. C. Dennis introduced the entertainment committee of the evening, Mrs. W. J. McIntyre, Mrs. A. Near and Mrs. E. Norton. Each gave a short history of the Queen's life from birth until now. Many interesting facts pertaining to her childhood, her family life, her likes and dislikes, and her arduous duties as Queen of the British Empire, the past 25 years, were given. Many personal and pertinent facts about her life made an interesting resume, which was enjoyed by the ladies.

Following, all sang "God Save the Queen".

The hostess, Mrs. Lasby, assisted by her daughter, Cathy, served cake and ice cream with coffee, which completed a very happy evening in this hospitable century home.

Mrs. J. A. Van Fleet was courtesy convener.

RESIDENT OF ACTON over 20 years ago, Scotty Burton met some old friends at his home in Edinburgh this summer. Visiting with Scotty and his sisters Nettie and May are George Elliott and Tom Watson. Scotty worked at Beardmore when he lived here, and was active in tennis and musical events. He was popular and much missed when he returned to Scotland.
