

Youngsters raise $51 during carnival for MD

BRANDON CANARY and Kirk Webby were among the 114 children taking advantage of the Acton Baptist Church Vacation Bible school yesterday. There were 101 children on Monday, the first day.

Over $51 was raised at a Muscular Dystrophy Carnival August 16 at 21 Knox Ave. Patricia Henry, brother Michael, Monica Musselle, Lisa Mason, Edwin Haugen, Jamie Merrin, Laura Moore and Andrea Musselle had canvassed local merchants earlier and received enough donations to have a penny table, as well as several games.

Approximately 60 children, some from the day camp at Prospect Park, enjoyed fortune telling, the haunted house, sponge toss, marble shot, bottle drop, and dice game.

Stores giving donations were: IGA Supermarket; J & T Sports; Acton Pharmacy; Watson Restaurant; Hintons; Swetman Shoes; First Line TV; Acton Home Furnishings; Blue Springs Flower Shop; Music Stop; LCBO; Chance Cleaners; Halton Hills Furniture; Gift Cupboard; and Lovell's Meat Market.

HAPPY PLAYGROUND GOERS of Robert Little School gather around leaders Sue Mellor and Bev Duval August 11 as they receive their trophy for having the best float in the grand finale parade and penny carnival. Mickey Mouse was their theme.

Youngsters enjoy Bible Schools

JOANNE TRAAS shows Chris Lubbers how to color his work at the Christian Reformed Church Vacation Bible school last week.

SHIRLEY TYLER shows off the litter bag she made at the Acton Baptist church Vacation Bible school this week. She cut out a kangaroo form, colored it, and clipped a bag onto it for its pouch.

Sheridan College is seeking accommodation for students who will enroll for fall courses at the Oakville campus.

CUTE kids complete Prospect park cleanup

It took CUTE kids about two weeks to clean up all they were able to in Prospect Park. The group of young teenagers decided several weeks ago they would clean up the park and attended Halton Hills council to ask for approval. Once they got the go-ahead, the youths worked hard at cleaning up the shoreline and other areas.

The town supplied the group with garbage bags, but the workers received nothing for themselves in return, except the satisfaction of having done the job.

CUTE stands for Clean Up The Environment.
