

Guelph club places fourth

Guelph Pony Club recently sent five members to the Central Canadian Exhibition in Ottawa to compete for the Eastern Canada Cup in the Prince Philip Games. Michelle Wallace of Eden Mills on Sandpiper; Sunny Harmeson of Guelph on Dusty; Mia Tambling of Elora on Sandra; Sharon Tambling on Thistle and Eric Olsen of Elora participated, ending up in fourth place. This was the first time Guelph had competed in these games.

Sandpiper, the 18-year-old pony ridden by Michelle Wallace had been to Ottawa before. Sandpiper, owned by Dr. Barbara Kingscote is used in teaching handicapped children to ride.

Family picnic for 30th anniversary

Family members gathered at the Rockwood Conservation Park last Monday for a reunion in honor of Chris and Wilma Duiker who celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary on Sunday, September 4. Relatives from Acton, Shelburne, Bramalea, Brantford, Hamilton, Brownsville, Holyrood and Holland enjoyed an afternoon of socializing. A picnic supper for the 53 guests ended a memorable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Duiker are formerly from Acton where they lived for 17 years. They moved to Rockwood five years ago. The couple have seven children, two married and five grandchildren. One daughter is getting married this Saturday, September 10 and a son will be married on October 10.

Rev., Mrs. Sinclair are moving to Carlisle

The members of the Rockwood and Eden Mills congregation met in the Sunday School room of the Eden Mills Presbyterian Church on Sunday, August 23 to bid farewell to the Sinclair family.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair thanked both congregations for the gifts. Mr. Sinclair said they had enjoyed many happy times in the past 11 years as well as many sad ones. He said we have to accept the bad along with the good, and hoped that whoever is chosen as their pastor will be able to get new ones coming. Attendance is needed as well as membership to keep a church going.

W. King thanked the Eden Mills ladies for the kind invitation to join with them for the delightful dinner and social time. Rev. D. Sinclair was in the pulpit Sunday morning at Eden Mills and Rockwood and preached his farewell sermons. He will be living at Carlisle, Ont.

Mrs. L. Barden presented them with a framed picture of the Eden Mills Church and a beautiful cheese dish.

Mrs. Lasby spoke for the members of the Eden Mills church, also the community where they were well known; by all. She said it was the choice of the Sinclair's to move on after 11 years of service here and knew that they would be greatly missed by all. She wished them the very best in their new charge. She said they had many happy times together, and would be greatly missed.

Ray Death made the presentation of an envelope of money from the Rockwood congregation. He said that Rockwood felt the same as Eden Mills at losing the Sinclair family as they had been

Church groups honor member

Mrs. Helen Sinclair was honored by the W.M.S. and W.A. group of the Rockwood Presbyterian Church, at the home of Mrs. Peter Sim in Rockwood, where they met for their September meeting. Mrs. Max Milne, the first vice president, opened the meeting with prayer, followed by a hymn.

After business was dealt with a short program followed. Mrs. H. Leachman gave the bible reading followed by a prayer. Mrs. W. Leitch gave a very interesting reading, and Miss Elva Pearen had charge of two contests. Mrs. G. Denham, Mrs. G. Sevanton and Mrs. W. Leitch were the winners. Mrs. Sinclair was called upon by Miss Pearen who thanked her for the help that the group had received while she was the president and remarked that the family as well as Rev. Sinclair and herself would be missed in the church as well as the community. She wished them every success in their new home. Mrs. Sim presented Mrs. Sinclair with a nice plaque for their new home.

Mrs. Sinclair thanked the group for their kindness, and extended an invitation for the group to come to their new home at Carlisle for a meeting, in the near future.

Mrs. Max Milne who will step up to the president's chair for the remainder of the year, closed the meeting.

Mrs. Sim served a dainty lunch. The next meeting will be October 5 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Max Milne, Guelph St., Rockwood.
