

Wedding

Wilson—Kidd

Irene Kidd and Robert Wilson were united in marriage on Aug. 20, 1977 in a double-ring ceremony at 4 o'clock in Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church, Haltonville. The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Mary P. Farmery with organist Sandra Early. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James D. Kidd and the late Mr. Kidd of R.R. 2, Rockwood and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Wilson of R.R. 3, Milton.

The maid of honor was Heike Bollert, friend of the bride and bridesmaids were Nancy Scott, friend of the bride, Susan Tallon, sister of the bride and Bonnie Gillespie, friend of the bride.

The best man was Eric Wilson, brother of the groom, and ushers were Les Wilson, the groom's brother, Dan Kidd, brother of the bride and Doug Tallon, brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Leslie Kidd.

She carried an old handkerchief belonging to the late Mrs. Carson, a friend, and wore a gold stone bracelet belonging to her great-aunt Jessie Henderson from Toronto.

Prior to the wedding a pantry shower was given by the maid of honor Heike Bollert and bridesmaids Nancy Scott and Bonnie Gillespie. A stag for the groom was held at the home of John Livesy, Moffatt.

After a brief honeymoon trip travelling north, the Wilsons are now residing in Milton.

After the ceremony, she was presented with a silver horseshoe from England, to carry with her bouquet, by the groom's sister Rosemary Wilson.

Flowers were done by Mr. and Mrs. Ron DeVries of R.R. 2, Rockwood.

The bride and groom were piped from the church and into the reception by Harvey Brush of Milton.

A garden reception for 80 was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Andrew of Fifth Line, R.R. 2, Rockwood.

Telegrams were received from relatives in England.

MacLeod—McClaskin vows said on Aug. 20

Nassagaweya Presbyterian church was the setting for the August 20 wedding of Donna Marie McClaskin and Robert MacLeod.

The Rev. Mary Farmery officiated and Miss Sandra Early provided the organ music.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dianne McClaskin, R.R. 1, Acton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn MacLeod, R.R. 1, Acton, and is employed by Beardmore in Acton.

Escorted down the aisle by her brother Thomas Powell, Donna wore a long white satin gown with angel sleeves, v-neck, fitted bodice and long veil. She carried red roses and pink carnations.

Jean MacLeod, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor. Marilyn MacLeod, another sister of the groom, and Emily Stokes, the groom's cousin, were bridesmaids. They wore peach colored gowns with flowered nylon overskirts, and carried peach carnations and white daisies.

Leonard MacLeod, R.R. 1, Acton, cousin of the groom.

DONNA McClaskin and Robert MacLeod were married in Nassagaweya Presbyterian church August 20. They are now living at R. R. 2, Erin.

was best man. Friends of the bride and groom Larry Wigood, R.R. 2, Campbellville and Michael Thomson, Mount Forest, were ushers.

An evening reception and dance was held at the Lions Hall in Campbellville.

For leaving on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, the bride wore a blue pant suit, complemented by a corsage of pink carnations. Following their honeymoon, the couple made their home at R.R. 3, Erin.

Prior to her marriage, Donna was guest of honor at two special gatherings. A Kitchen shower was given by the bride's attendants at the home of Mrs. Mae Dennis, Campbellville. A miscellaneous shower was hosted by school friends of the bride.

A dance was held after the reception at Brookville Hall. Special guests at the wedding was the bride's great-aunt

Talent money

Well over $4,524 has been raised through the Talent Money project at the United church, and members of the congregation heard the figure at church Sunday morning. After the $1,200 bank loan was paid off, a cheque for $3,324 was presented to the church.

The presentation was made to board chairman Bob Hart by two of the participants, Deb Wellwood and Cathy Wallis. They said the sum was actually $3,323.99 but they had added a penny to make a round figure.

More money is yet to come, Mr. Hart said. He mentioned that the ceremony represented more than monetary value; the fellowship and working together had been valuable for the congregation.

Old newspapers worth $35 ton

Old newspapers are worth $35 a ton if they are picked up on a regular basis by volunteer organizations, according to Bill Patterson, R.R. 1, Terra Cotta, well known insulator in this district.

More and more discarded newspapers are ending up "one level above the street," an old newspaper term, as insulation. Papers are ground up into a form resembling cellulose wool. Chemicals are added to make the insulation both vermin and fire resistant.

According to one spokesman for the industry, the typical new home would require the insulation manufactured from approximately 800 daily newspapers. Demand for old newspapers as insulation material has been building since talk began of an energy crisis and home owners and builders became insulation conscious.

Mr. Patterson, who is trying to initiate a pick-up system in Erin and Hillsburgh to help pay for new arenas, says the fantastic demand for cellulose fibre has created the significant upturn in the price of used newspaper. Newspaper only can be used. Magazines printed on coated stock cannot be reclaimed.

40th anniversaries are observed together

Congratulations were the order of the day at a family gathering hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Patterson and daughter Carol, Church Street, attended by Mr. Patterson's four brothers and their wives, nieces and nephews and their families.

This happy event was a surprise party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Aldon (Pat) Patterson, Limehouse and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Patterson, Rockwood, who are celebrating 40th wedding anniversaries during the month of September.

Congratulatory messages were received from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Patterson, Bryson City, North Carolina, the only absent family members on this special day. A delicious buffet dinner was served by the hostess assisted by sisters-in-law and nieces.

Following the cutting of the anniversary cakes by the honored couples, they were presented with gifts to mark the happy occasion.

C.W.L.

New season starts with pot luck supper

The new season for the Catholic Women's League opened with a pot luck supper in the church hall Sept. 14. There was a Sarah Coventry jewellery demonstration after the supper, followed by a short meeting. Volunteers were recruited for selling tickets on the money tree at the fall fair.

A full rummage sale will be held Oct. 21 and 22 from 7 - 9 p.m. and from 1 - 3 p.m. Rena Arbie will convene it. Conveners for the euchre, to be held in the church hall, Oct. 14 will be Marge Murray and Theresa Mathieson. The fall bazaar will be held Nov. 26 and each member will contribute several articles. The Oct. 11 meeting of the C.W.L. will be followed by craftmaking for the bazaar. The meeting closed with a prayer.

Surprise visit

Members of the Knox "Alert" Evening Group paid a surprise visit to a member Miss Emma Cole, at the Chert Rest Home recently. Emma was presented with a lacy stole, for which she thanked the group most fittingly.

After a pleasant visit, refreshments and a cup of coffee were served, before the group took their leave, after a short tour of the Rest Home.

Anniversary

About 80 people are expected for the 60th anniversary dinner of Lakeside chapter of the I.O.D.E. this Saturday.

September meeting

Twenty-two attended the September meeting of Trinity Activity Group held in the church parlor.

Cathy McGillivray opened the meeting by reading scripture. A play, "Years that Count", was put on by the members.

Minutes of the last meeting and correspondence were read by Jean McLean. Treasurer's report showed a healthy balance. Plans were made for a bazaar and bake sale to be held November 12. A bale is to be packed on October 4.

Collection was taken and the meeting adjourned. A social time was held over a cup of tea.

ADA ROUGHLEY and Inez Crichton stop to chat with Rev. Dr. Charles Cochrane and Rev. Peter Barrow following 116th anniversary services Sunday at Limehouse Presbyterian Church. Rev. Cochrane was the guest speaker. He was minister of the Limehouse church from 1941-1948.

Fall season opens for Alert

The Knox "Alert" Evening group began their fall season, meeting at the home of Nellie Markley and Marjorie Hall. The president opened the meeting with the Call to Worship and welcomed everyone to her home, before turning the meeting over to Gladys Davidson, program convener.

Gladys opened the program with an appropriate verse and the hymn Jesus Shall Reign was sung. Lena Mann read the Scripture, and Irene Terry led in prayer, followed by a solo by Gladys. Isabel McDonald and Gladys read articles from the Presbyterian Record on Gulana—past and present, which had special meaning to the group, because of their beloved missionary, Miss Nellie Anderson.

A surprise presentation was made by Bessie Musselle, to Vera Ingles, who will be celebrating her 50th wedding anniversary early in October. Although taken completely by surprise, Vera thanked the group very fittingly, and the Hymn Bless be the Tie that Binds was sung. The president took over the business and the usual business was dealt with. The group were reminded of the fall rally at Knox Presbyterian Church, Oakville on September 26 and the Heather Club Bake Sale on September 30. It was decided to send $75 to the Presbyterian treasurer and a goodly sum was collected for the bale.

The meeting was closed with all repeating the Lord's Prayer and an enjoyable lunch followed with a cosy visit in a homey atmosphere.
