Unfortunate accidents; visitors from England

By Mrs. Winifred Smith
Sorry to have written an incorrect news item last week which stated that Christine Quackenbush was home from hospital. Christine is still confined to the Sick Children's hospital in Toronto where she is receiving special care, but is gradually recovering from injuries received in a car accident. My apologies for any inconvenience this misunderstanding may have caused.

Two unfortunate accidents happened to young people in the neighborhood recently. Karyn Colton, seven year old twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gord Colton, fell down the basement stairs in her home on Friday of last week, and on Sunday Todd Loughlan, teenage son of Mr. and Mrs. John Loughlan, was walking along the town line when he was struck down by a car. Karyn received a bad gash in her head which required nine stitches. Todd was taken to Georgetown Hospital and found to be suffering from shock and bruises to his body but was released, and is recovering at his home. World wide Communion Sunday was observed on Sunday when a great many worshippers came out to attend the service. The children's choir sang an anthem Praise In Nature. Mrs. Jill Jessup and Mr. Bob Pinkerton directed the children. All adored much to the service. Mr. Silles had a story for the children entitled The Slave and the Slave, also a story about the author of the hymn Amazing Grace which was interesting to both children and grown ups. After the singing of the hymn Amazing Grace, the children retired to their Sunday school classes. The minister's sermon was on Caring and Sharing, followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The girls softball team had a very successful banquet and dance at the community centre Saturday night. The girls provided the food and the music was provided by disc Jockey. All had a good time. Morgan Madill returned to Guelph General Hospital on Saturday where he is to undergo more surgery. We hope his stay will be a short one and he returns home completely recovered, fine and fit again. Mr. and Mrs. Trueman returned home to Liverpool, England on Sunday evening after visiting with their son here, and members of his family. Mr. Barker, from England, has returned for another visit with his daughter Ruby and son-in-law Bob Pinkerton and little grandsons. Dogs have been tormenting sheep on the farms in the neighborhood recently. Dr. Buckrell found several of his sheep had been attacked by dogs right in the barnyard and two dogs were seen by Mr. Buckrell senior, in broad daylight, molesting one of the ewes.

We are pleased to hear that Limehouse Women's Institute fair committee took another first prize with their display at Georgetown fall fair. We feel very sorry that all local fairs had to contend with inclement weather. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. B. We shall miss Mr. and Mrs. Michael Payne and family who have sold their home here to the James Bessey's, of the Sixth Line and purchased property at Hockley. Western holiday ends for Mr., Mrs. Binnie

by Jo Anne Turner
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binnie, Fourth Line, have recently returned from a three weeks' vacation visiting relatives in Western Canada. They flew to Calgary, Alta., where they were met by Mr. Binnie's nephew. He took them on a motor trip through the coal-mining region of Alberta, into British Columbia, through magnificent mountain scenery, to Grand Forks, B.C., where they visited cousins. The return route took them through the Alberta oilfields. After a brief rest in Calgary they set out again by car--this time to the east--to visit relatives in Earl Grey, Sask., for a few days.

Then they travelled by air from Regina to Winnipeg, where they stopped to visit Mrs. Binnie's relatives at Warren, Man. before flying home. They reported a lot of wet weather in the west, with harvesting delayed because of the rains. However the poor weather in no way marred the welcome and fine western hospitality they received everywhere they went. Last Sunday was World-Wide Communion and there was a good attendance at Churchill Community Church. The Rev. Jas. L. McFadden was in the pulpit. The Junior Choir's anthem was entitled, "Sons of God". Next Sunday, Thanksgiving, the Rev. A. W.

Fosbury will be preaching. Members of the Junior Choir plan to decorate the sanctuary on Saturday morning for the Thanksgiving service. All those who could assist with flowers, fruits and vegetables are requested to bring them to the church Saturday morning, or contact a choir member for pickup. The C.C.C.W. reminds you that the fall paper drive is the end of this month, Monday and Tuesday, October 24 and 25. Newspapers, tied securely in bundles are to be left, as before, in the storage shed at Norm Turner's Precast Concrete yard.
