

Asseltine — Ross marry homeymoon in Florida

A honeymoon in Clearwater Beach, Florida followed the September 10 wedding of Gail Ann Ross and Lionel Asseltine.

The Rev. Charles Beaton officiated at the double ring ceremony in Trinity United Church which was decorated in white and yellow daisies for the occasion. Norman Moore was organist and Miss Shirley Moore was soloist, singing the Wedding Song and O Perfect Love. Both are friends of the bride's family.

The bride, of 485 Kingston Road, Toronto, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ross, 110 Mill St. East. She was formerly employed by CN Telecommunications, Toronto. The groom of R.R. 4, Stouffville is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Asseltine, West Hill. He is the owner of Stouffville Sales and Service.

Gail's wedding gown was of chiffon over taffeta with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves puffed with lace at the wrists, and a long train. A Juliette cap held a shoulder length veil in place. She carried white daisies, sona roses and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Sandra McGinn, sister of the bride. She wore a melon-colored dress. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Pat White, friend of the bride, Acton; Miss Mary Heikamp, friend of bride, Napanee; and Miss Cheryl Johnson, cousin of bride, Port Alberni, British Columbia. Flowergirl was Miss Suzanne Faulkner, niece of the groom, Barrie. They wore melon-colored dresses with matching multicolored jackets, and each carried a basket of wooden and artificial flowers to match the dresses. Suzanne's dress was made by her mother, Gail Faulkner.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father.

Al Kavin, a friend of the groom, Uxbridge, was groomsmen. Cameron Jardin, Orangeville; Charles McGinn, Acton and Larry White, Acton, were ushers, with Scott White, Acton, as ring bearer.

At an evening reception and dance at the Acton Citizens' Band Hall, the mother of the bride received her guests wearing a shrimp-colored chiffon gown with a corsage of white and sona roses, and silver accessories. The mother of the groom wore a beige gown, with gold accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The hall was decorated by the bride's aunts and her cousin from B.C. The cake was made by Mrs. Jennie McGinn, Church St., and decorated by Mrs. Young, Church St.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Mary Popoff, Penicton, B.C., and Mrs. Irene Johnson, Port Alberni, B.C.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower held by Mrs. Sandra McGinn, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Pat White, friend. A stag was held for the groom by Alan Kavin, Bill Enderwick and Frank White in Latham Hall, Stouffville.

The newlyweds have made their home at 18409 Sulton Road, Queensville, Ontario.

Hoare — McIntosh wed October 1 ceremony

Holy Cross Roman Catholic church, Georgetown, was the setting for the exchange of wedding vows by Margaret Shelley McIntosh and David Charles Hoare on Saturday, October 1.

Shelley is the daughter of Mrs. Arlene McIntosh, 54 MacKenzie Dr., Georgetown and the late Joseph McIntosh. Dave is the son of Mary and Charles Hoare, 85 King St., Georgetown.

Father Olger Devent performed the double ring ceremony. The organist was Mrs. Eleanor Clark.

The bride entered the church on the arm of William (Archie) Service.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white polyester with a chiffon and lace insert in the bodice, with chiffon and lace angel sleeves. Her cape was of white polyester with a train and trimmed with red roses. She carried a cascade of red and white carnations.

The flowers for the church were baskets of white daisies and peach-tinted mums. Miss Carol Ann Maddigan was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of wispy green with a scarf overskirt of chiffon and cape to match. She carried a cascade of white mums tinted to match her dress and a white gardenia in her hair.

The bridesmaids' dresses were the same style as the maid of honor, each in a different shade. Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Laurie Egerton, Miss Kathy Hoare, Miss Sarah Engleby, Miss Lori McIvor, Miss Jackie Savoie, Miss Chris Hoare, Miss Susan Hoare. They all wore white gardenias in their hair and carried cascades of white mums tinted to match their dresses.

The junior bridesmaids were Miss Tracy Ellis and Miss Tanya Adams. They wore bands of white flowers in their hair and carried baskets of mums tinted to match their dresses.

Miss Angela Ellis was flower girl. She wore a white dress and cape similar to the bride's, and carried a basket of red and white carnations. All the gowns were made by Mrs. Bond.

Harry Allen was best man. The groom and best man were attired in white suits. The groom had Dan McIntosh as head usher. The other ushers were Jim McIntosh, Chuck Hoare, Rick Hoare, Steve Hoare, Doug Hoare, Danny Engleby, Ron Gawley, and Jerry Roberts. Master Jeff McLean was ring bearer.

The bride's mother received, wearing a champagne colored ensemble with floor length cape to match. Her corsage was tinted peach and brown mums and carnations. She wore gold accessories.

The groom's mother received wearing a floor length gown of aqua with white accessories. Her corsage was white and yellow mums.

The wedding reception was in Holy Cross auditorium. Master of ceremonies was the groom's brother-in-law, Elwood Ellis.

The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Norm Rees.

The bride chose for her going away outfit a white pant suit with pink blouse and white accessories. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Shelley and Dave are making their home at Apt. 30-21 Raylawn Cres., Georgetown.

Out-of-town guests came from Brampton, Milton, Acton, Toronto, Kitchener, Dundalk, the Maritimes and United States.

Prior to her wedding Shelley was given four showers by Mrs. Laurie Egerton, Miss Lori McIvor, Mrs. Joy Switzer, Miss Carol Ann Maddigan and Wendy Robichaud.

A stag was held Sept. 24 for Dave.

Senior citizens in Luxton Hall

The afternoon meeting of Acton Senior Citizens was held in Luxton Hall on October 4 with a very good attendance. The meeting opened by singing "O Canada" followed by the theme song "The more we get together".

Mrs. R. L. Davidson spoke about the Euchre and Penny sale to be held in Luxton Hall on October 21, and several ladies are to bring sandwiches and pickles.

Mrs. Dennis spoke on the program, "Meals and Wheels" which will be prepared at Milton Manor and delivered here. Anyone interested phone Mrs. Terry Grubb. Price of the meal is $1.25. The luncheons at the Y are starting again on Thursday, October 6. Mrs. Mann asked for volunteers to assist with the luncheons.

The business meeting over, the group adjourned to play cards. Ladies first went to Mrs. Fountain, second to Mrs. Davidson. Men's first went to Mr. Besley, second to Mr. Leishman.

The birthday song was sung for Mrs. A. Lambert, C. Leishman and J. Post.

Wedding Anniversary was sung for Mr. and Mrs. James Ingls who celebrated their 50th on Sunday, October 2.

The committee of the month served raisin bread and cheese, with a cup of tea which everyone enjoyed.

October meeting held by Ladies' Auxiliary

The Legion Ladies Auxiliary held their October meeting with over 50 present.

Four new members were initiated. Lois Gordon had her name drawn for the pot of money but she was absent. There is to be a Halloween social in Milton on Thursday Oct. 27, also a bus. Lily Higgins is getting a bus for our Christmas shopping tour and anyone interested call her (Nov. 19).

Sunnybrooke veterans will be visiting Acton on Nov. 5. Hope everyone will turn out to help with wheelchair patients and then there is the parade on Nov. 6 and the dinner for the men. Anyone wanting to help contact Fern.

There is a euchre on Oct. 22 for the zone in Acton so give your names to Kathy and come out and have some fun. Don't forget our Bazaar gals, it only comes once a year. A donation was given to the Y Menettes toward buying tables as these were badly needed. One hundred dollars was donated to the men who are forming a shuffleboard team to get them started.

Discuss needs

A group of interested people met Thursday afternoon in the Acton Y to discuss the possible organization of the Youth Services subcommittee for Halton Hills. Eric Balkind chaired the informal meeting and the new Youth Services co-ordinator for Halton, Peter Gillespie, was present. The dozen or so present chatted about possible liaison, recreational needs, the issue of vandalism, alternatives to drinking and a proposed drop in centre for youth in Acton.

Mr. Gillespie is trying to ascertain the needs of young people in the area. Other interested people will be asked to attend another meeting on Thursday, November 17 to discuss youth services again.
