BAKE TABLE was the most popular spot at the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary bazaar Saturday afternoon. Their goods were all sold in about 20 minutes.

Group has full agenda at October meeting

The October meeting of the Greenock Women's Institute was held last week at the home of Mrs. Anne Leslie.

Following the Opening Ode and Mary Stewart in unison, Mrs. R. Sinclair read a poem, Thanksgiving. Meditation entitled "Which is your work, a vocation or just a job?" was given by Mrs. K. Gates.

The Greenock display "A talent, a day keeps boredom away" tied for second place at the Acton Fair. The group is especially proud of Mrs. C. Storey with 18 prizes for her baking etc.

Four of the members are planning to attend leadership training for the quilt short course, October 19 and 21 at the Arboretum, University of Guelph. If a sufficient number are interested in taking this course an afternoon and evening group will be arranged in the new year.

A thank you note was read for the donation to the Acton Fair Baby Show.

The delegates to Guelph Area Convention November 3 and 4 are Mrs. E. McGeragle and Mrs. W. Aitken. They will take along a macramé piece which Mrs. Borzic has volunteered to make.

Mrs. E. Wallace, the district director, will attend the fall meeting for Wellington Centre October 17.

The program for October was in charge of Mrs. E. Wallace and Mrs. G. Johnston, conveners of Education and Cultural Activities. They chose crafts and had as guest speaker Mrs. Joyce Dawson who has recently taken a ten week course at Mohawk College and a two day seminar at Dundurn Castle, Hamilton.

The members were shown several slides of craft items with Mrs. Dawson explaining about each. These were mainly of articles on display in the Adelaide Hunter Hoodless home, and have been donated by members from east to west coasts. They are crafts made in Canadian homes from the Victorian era of which Mrs. Dawson is making a study.

The Hoodless home is sponsored by the Federated Women's Institute of Canada. They included crochet, knitting, macramé, quilts, an Arrowhead design quilt once owned by Adelaide's mother, several log cabin quilts assembled in varied designs, crewel embroidery, lambrequin valances, heavy puffed embroidery, bead work, cushions and bracelet, Tinnery knotting, mount millock work, a knitted round floor mat, a real puzzle in construction, and Mrs. Dawson's special project perforated paper work in cross stitch.

This paper is very rare. The nearest source is in the U.S.A. and it was not available in time for the meeting. As a substitute members were given nylon mesh, a chart of alphabets and embroidery floss to try their hand at the cross stitch.

Mrs. G. Johnston presented Mrs. Dawson with a Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario plate complete with crest on behalf of the group.

The roll call, tell something of a work of art or craft, was answered by 18 members and five visitors confirming there are many talents among the group.

The meeting was closed, followed by a social half hour over tea, coffee and a delicious lunch served by Mrs. K. Gates and Mrs. W.

Missionary Society has special meeting

The president, Miss Isobel Anderson, opened the October Thank Offering meeting at Knox Women's Missionary Society, afternoon auxiliary, with the poem, This is the Time for Dreams.

Mrs. Hansen introduced her inspirational address with two poems on Thanksgiving. She then gave an explanation of the word, Faith. We exercise faith when we ask, take, and then thank God for His gifts. Faith is the hand that holds up the gift that God has given us.

Following prayer, led by Miss Anderson, the committee for this month, Mrs. C. Hansen and Mrs. R. Algie took charge. The hymn, Near the Cross was sung. Mrs. Algie read Psalm 100 and Miss Ruby Clark led in prayer. A solo, Turn your Eyes upon Jesus, was sung by Miss Bella-Mae Rossell.

The roll call, given by the secretary, Mrs. Watson, was answered by a Bible verse containing the word, thanks. Mrs. McKenzie gave the treasurer's report. It was decided to again send the Thanksgiving as a gift to the church in Guyana.

Soup and sandwiches

The soup and sandwiches luncheon held at the YMCA October 6 was the most successful yet, according to organizer Carol Clark. The event raised $122 for the Y.

"About 125 people were there" according to Mrs. Clark. Senior citizens were given a 50 cent discount for the lunch, and many took advantage of the offer.

The next luncheon for the Y will be November 3, when macaroni and cheese, a cold platter and apple pie will be served.

Hallowe'en party planned

by Mrs. Emily Price
We hope as many as possible were able to get out to see the fall colors. They were beautiful, both in the northern part of Ontario and in the southern area. Autumn is a lovely time of the year although all seasons have their own type of beauty.

fully, we will have a good turnout now that the meeting place is known for October and November, so let's all get out and back up our executive and social committee, who are trying so hard to make our meetings and programs interesting and enjoyable. They need our support.

We hope all who have been ill and under the weather will be feeling much better and will be able to get out on Tuesday night.

A warm welcome is extended to anyone interested in what we are trying to do to help others. Will see you all at the meeting.

After various business items were dealt with, Marilyn and Pearl Young showed pictures of a trip they had to England and Scotland. A lovely lunch of fruit breads and pumpkin pie followed. Marilyn and Pearl Young were duly thanked and the Mizpah Benediction closed the meeting.

Sandra Binnie visits

Sandra Binnie

Miss Sandra Binnie of Hay River, N.W.T., has been vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Binnie for the past month.

Sandra is returning to Regina, Saskatchewan for a three week course in rehabilitation. A Home Care Nursing Service has been instituted at the Williams Memorial Hospital for the past year. Sandra will be the Home Care Nurse when she returns to Hay River after finishing the course. The town has a 50 bed hospital.

Surprise

A surprise retirement birthday supper was held Saturday for O.F. Wilds with his wife May at the Plainsman. A party following at his daughter's Mary and Bob Hepburn. Guests were Archie Mochrie, Timmins, Don and Marlene Wilds, Hamilton, Norma and Bill Titus, Acton, Bob and Arlene Bruce, Acton, Kitty and Jack Bruce, Stratford, John and Carolyne Bruce, Stratford, and Lila Sinclair, Acton.

Slides of trip shown

The Knox "Alert" Evening Group held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Pearl Young.

The president opened with the call to worship, thanks to the hostess and news of sick or shut in members.

Pearl Young, convener of the month, opened the program with the hymn Come, Ye Thankful People, Come. Beck Masters read Psalm 67 and led in prayer. Mrs. Young gave a reading on Thanksgiving and Marg. McCullough favored with a piano solo, which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Young gave another reading and closed the program with the hymn We Plough the Fields.
