Martin Street top Srs. in Halton cross country

Martin St. School of Milton broke Georgetown Centennial's chances of making a clean sweep of the team titles at the Halton public school cross country championships held at Kelso Conservation Park Tuesday morning.

Stirton of Fairview School won the junior boys' race in 5:47. R. Barnes of New Central was second and A. Kav of Montclair third. Two Martin St. runners in the going were Kevin Hughes who finished fourth in 5:52, five seconds off the top, and Kevin Marino in seventh at six minutes even.

run a week earlier. Barton Veinott, also of Martin St. placed first in the senior boys' race to add to his first place run in the North Halton. His time of 7:23 was three seconds slower than in the north competition a week before but still was enough to win.

Centennial topped the boys' teams with 36 points ahead of second place Stewarttown with 39 and Martin St. with 45. J. Lennex of Tecumseh was tops in the intermediate boys with Eccles of Maplehurst second and Mark Ezard of Stewarttown third in 5:29, six seconds off the winning time.

In the girls' group E. J. James was on top, Martin St. had 58 points for second and Rolling Meadows school was third with 64.

Denise Worth of Martin St. placed eighth in the intermediate girls and Debra Jackman, also of Martin St. was 10th. Heerskhe of Falgarwood placed first with C. Thompson of Centennial second in intermediate girls.

Centennial of Georgetown garnered bantam, junior and intermediate team titles. The top showing by Martin St. was in Tina Panter and Jackie Llewellyn's performances in the senior girls. Panter ran a time of 6:04 for third place and Llewellyn was right behind in fourth in 6:15. The pair split first and second places in the North Halton
