

MRS. W. MORRISON, formerly of Acton and now of Toronto, was on hand for St. Alban's A.C.W. rummage and bake sale Saturday. She admired one of the many pieces of jewellery on sale.

A.C.W. bazaar, bake sale very successful Sat.

On Saturday, Nov. 5, the ladies of St. Alban's A.C.W. held a most successful bazaar, tea and bake sale, which was very well attended.

The tea was convened by Louise Lindsay. The hall looked very festive with gay Christmas decorations. The tea tables with candles and holly looked lovely.

The ladies working upstairs were kept very busy with bake table, sewing, crafts, white elephant and penny sale. Younger members of the church looked after the fish pond and sold tickets on draws. Their help was very much appreciated. Pete Humenick displayed an afghan in his barbershop window and Frontier Flowers donated a lovely centerpiece for the tea table.

The lovely afghan which was handmade by Willa Hargrave was won by Mrs. M. Storey, R.R. 4, Acton. The large doily handmade by Mrs. Sylvia Williamson was won by Mrs. Beatie. Christmas cake made by Louise Lindsay was won by Barb Murchison. Doll and outfits donated by Mrs. B. Mitchell was won by Mae Fountain.

Door prize at tea was won by Mrs. M. Jordan. Floral centerpiece won by Rita Goodwin.

Winners for penny sale were: jar of coffee, Mrs. F. Salt; serviette doll, David Hargrave; towel set, Diane Butler; pillow cases, Claude Page; note paper, Flo Waterhouse; chocolates, Mabel Barkman; candy and hasty notes, Kathy Knapp; plant, Flo Fryer; salt and pepper set, Mrs. Glendenning; trivet, Jim Seeger; Pizza pan mix, Marlene Roeder; note paper, Chris Hoane; set of glasses, Eileen Wedge; cup and saucer, Liz Hinsfield; candle, Laura Lovell; 5 lb. sugar, Mrs. F. Salt; mug set, Dale Patenaude; round doily, H. Van Sicker; glass plate, Susan Stone; pillow cases, Mae Fountain; green doily, Mary Vandam; pillow cases, Mrs. Rose Fountain; oblong doily, Alice Pilkington; dusting powder, Barb Hitchcock; hair wash set, Rita Goodwin; butter and eggs, Frances Cutts.

Fellows of I.C.B.

William Graham Elliott and Richard Keith Smith have become Fellows of the Institute of Canadian Bankers following completion of the ICB's educational programs at the University of Toronto and at York University.

Mr. Elliott, of R.R. 1, is supervising officer in the consumer credit dept. at the Toronto regional office of the Bank of Nova Scotia; and Mr. Smith, of 217 Kingham Rd., is Scotia Plan loan officer at the Streetsville branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

The ICB operates, on behalf of the chartered banks, a continuing education program in Canada, aimed at preparing bankers for rapid change through courses that broaden management skills.

Limehouse gets grant

Limehouse minor sports is to receive a Wintario grant of $228 to aid in the purchase of softball equipment for seven teams.

LORNA CLARK empties an envelope of penny sale tickets into a numbered jar. Various friends had asked her to put them around the table for them at the St. Alban's A.C.W. rummage and bake sale.

MAE FOUNTAIN and Mabel Denny worked at the bake tables at the St. Alban's A.C.W. rummage and bake sale Saturday afternoon.

Whistle sounds

Banks and schools will have a holiday Friday for Remembrance Day. All the local services were held last Sunday. Milton's is next Sunday.

Golden Age club plans an election

The singing of 'O Canada' opened the afternoon meeting of Acton Golden Age club on Nov. 1, followed by the theme song, "The more we get together" with Mrs. Mann at the piano.

The election of officers is to take place at the next evening meeting on Nov. 16. The Acton club will be host for the zone rally to be held in the Legion Hall, Nov. 7th. Our Pres. Mr. Davidson asked for a good attendance.

A bus trip to Simcoe on Dec. 6 to see the lights is being arranged.

There is to be a film on "Cancer" shown at the Acton high school on Nov. 23, and hopefully a good crowd will attend as it is of interest to us all.

The president moved to adjourn and tables were set up for euchre and crokinole with prizes going to gents' first, Mr. Leishman and second, Mr. Fuller. Ladies first, Mrs. McKinnon, second, Mrs. Thompson. Crokinole, ladies, first Mrs. Spears, second Mrs. Holmes; gents' first Mr. Davidson, second Mr. Barker. Birthday greetings for Mrs. Townsley, Mrs. Graham, Mr. Fuller and Mrs. Masales.

Lunch consisted of sandwiches and pickles with a cup of tea ending the afternoon meeting.

No entry is gained

Thieves failed to gain entry when they attempted to break into Glenlea Drug Mart last week. The door and window of the south side of the store had been pried, Halton Regional Police say.

Entry gained

Nothing was taken after someone entered a Limehouse residence by forcing the lock on the rear patio door, Halton Regional Police report.

Wines of Australia are library program topic

Emily Martin, consultant for the Australian wine board, will present a program on the wines of Australia in the Isabel Watson Room of the Acton Public Library, Tuesday, November 15 from 7.30 to 9 p.m.

The program will include two films "Big Country-Big Welcome" and the "Wonderful World of Australian Wine", plus an informative discussion on Australian wines with regard to the storage, use in cooking and serving of wine.

The public is invited to attend and the program is offered free of charge.
