

Curling Club news

by Karen Kalkle
This column is dedicated to two warm and wonderful people. Although they have only been with the club a very short time they have made many friends. They became active members immediately and took a concerned interest in the club's affairs. We are going to miss you both Cathy and Dexter Lindberg. We'll miss Dexter's good curling and Cathy's loud whistle. Think of us from time to time and keep in touch.

This past Friday night everyone had a terrific time during the Turkey Shoot. Everyone had an opportunity to throw a rock and try to draw as close to the button as possible. The winners all received a meat voucher from Lovell's Meat Market. Here are the lucky winners: Men; Roger Wilson; Graham Peel; Dave McCutcheon; Fred Archibald and Dexter Lindberg. Women: Nicole Campbell; Willa Hewitt; Karen Knickle and Donna Cripps.

Thanks to everyone's generosity ninety-six dollars was raised for the club. Oh! thanks fellas for those marvellous treats you all made! Here are how the teams all stand at this point.

Mon. 7-9
Collin Baker two wins, two losses and a tie, Bruce Barker three wins, one loss and a tie, Pat Chamberlain three wins, one loss and a tie, Bill Dumarsh three wins, two losses, Peter Ginn one win, four losses, Thomas Nicol two wins, two losses and a tie, Willa Hewitt three wins and two losses and May Dumarsh one win and four losses.

Mon. 9-11
Fred Archibald four wins,

one loss, Bill Cripps five wins, Sherry Few one win, three losses and a tie, Carl Rosenquist four wins, one loss, Ted Tyler Jr. five losses, Lee Gosselin two wins, two losses and a tie, Roger Wilson two wins, three losses and Dave Dupre one win and four losses.

Tues. 7-9
Glen Gray two wins and three losses, Del Hickling two wins, three losses, Brian Moore two wins and three losses, Susan Patrick two wins, three losses, Karen Shorthill four wins and one loss, Jane Robertson two wins and three losses and Brian Robertson three wins and one loss.

Tues. 9-11
Chester Anderson one win, four losses, Ben Wingrove two wins, three losses, Gord Toth four wins, one loss, Bill Toth three wins, two losses, Peter Vidler two wins and three losses, Nicole Campbell three wins, two losses, Howard Campbell two wins, two losses.

Wed. afternoon ladies
Marylin McArthur two wins, three losses, Ina Mellon zero wins, five losses, Jean McPhail two wins, two losses and a tie, Shirley Hunter four wins, one loss, Donna Cripps one win, three losses and a tie and Linda Ross five wins.

You did a great job last week, Timi, but of course your vice lent you a helping hand!

Thursday Night Ladies
by Nan Hurst
There were three very interesting and exciting games last Thursday night, all close contests. The fourth game wasn't played, but was won by default by Karen Shorthill when Kae Hansen couldn't "ice a rink because of illness on her team. Phillis Patrick held on to her unbeaten streak when, with a tie coming home she made a perfect draw shot to beat Gwen Tyler's rink (skipped by Marg Toth in Gwen's absence.) Nan Hurst, for the second week in a row lost on the last shot, this time to Susan Patrick and finally, Helen Otterbein defeated Shirley Hunter in a close game.

Standings are as follows: Phillis Patrick nine points (can anyone catch her?); Susan Patrick and Helen Otterbein seven points each; Shirley Hunter five points; Nan Hurst and Karen Shorthill four points, Gwen Tyler and Kae Hansen two points each.

Correction (from last week's report). Owing to illness, Gwen Tyler did not play in the November 26 bonspiel in Guelph as reported. Margaret Mackenzie spared for her at the last minute.

Fri. night competitive 7-9
Collin Baker one win, Del Hickling three wins, Dexter Lindberg three wins, Andy McKenzie two wins, Don Ross three wins, Fred New three wins, Pat Chamberlain four wins and John Mintern one win.

Fri. 9-11
Bruce McArthur three wins, Fred Archibald three wins, Paul Brisley one win, Howard Campbell three wins, Sherry Few two wins, Tony Verbik two wins, Dennis Rowley two wins, and Brian Robertson four wins.

Someone finally came out ahead of Brian. Thanks, Bruce. Now the rest of us can breathe easier.

BOB McLURE GOES UP FOR A SHOT in junior basketball action Saturday at the high school. The school hosted an eight team tournament which was won by a team from Bramalea. Andrew Gregg, Steve Springle and Frank Van Opstal prepare for the rebound.

Peewees win, lose last week

Minor peewees split over the last week's W-W action tripling Elora 6-2 November 30 and getting blanked by Orangeville 2-0 in a game that was close right to the end.

The Orangeville game, played away December 3, stood at 1-0 with only 2 seconds to go when Barry Sawyer popped it into the empty net to insure the Orangeville win. Sawyer also scored in the second period.

"We played well enough to win" said Manager Barry

500 club winners

For the week of November 26, winners are no. 116, 343 Frank Smith, 186 S. Turkosz, 167 Ted Leblanc, 30 Vic Bristow and 405 Charlie Creighton.

For the week of December 3, winners are 406 Ed Miller, 137 George Cook, 130, 415 Terri Yalowica, 188 Ivan Kilby and 22 Adele Nolan.

Inscoe. "Next time we'll turn the trick."

The 6-2 win was "not one of our better games" according to Inscoe.

Bruce Canary connected for three goals in the game, one from Bruce Sheppard, one from Steve Raine and Paul Cargill and one from Brad Youmans.

Lorenzo Civiero opened the Acton scoring with a marker from Dave McKnight and Ron VanLiem. McKnight scored himself after Canary's three, getting the puck from Civiero and Stan Smith.

Steve Dodson closed the scoring with an unassisted effort that came with only a single second showing on the clock.

Synchronized swimming The fall term is drawing to a close with two major items. On Saturday, December 10 the team will be having a large bazaar and flea market in order to raise money for their new sound system. This bazaar will be featuring baked goods, crafts, nearly new clothes and toys, the team's own recipe books and games for the kids. Come to the arena on Saturday 10-4 and see the fine display.

On Sunday, December 11 the fall session officially closes with the third annual water show. Displays of synchronized swimming diving, water rescues and a variety of other acts will be seen. Join them Sunday at 7 p.m.
