Bus tour, Christmas party

Halton Centennial Manor residents were treated to a bus tour of south Halton and their annual Christmas party at Holy Rosary Hall on Martin St. Saturday afternoon.

The event has been operating for over 15 years for Manor residents and is a joint Catholic Women's League and Knights of Columbus project.

The 45 residents who took the trip were late arriving at the party because of a detour at Watford where a bridge was washed out, forcing the tour to go to Highway 6 and through Carlisle and Kilbride.

The singsong by the tour was accompanied by Charlie Cairns and Dave Good on harmonicas and Christine Roncetto on the guitar. The K and C tour was conducted by local Grand Knight Ed St. Antoine.

Milton's CWL provided the combination birthday party and Christmas celebrations. Grade five pupils of Holy Rosary sang carols.

Following the lunch Mrs. Marie Thompson, a Manor resident, played the piano to lead the carol singing.

Object to renaming Base Line 'Eglinton'

Renaming of Lower Base Line Rd. to Eglinton Ave., as proposed by the regional public works department, didn't find much favor when it came before Milton Council last week.

Several councillors said it should remain as Lower Base Line. "Eglinton sounds too much like Metro Toronto," said Councillor Richard Day.

Councillor Jim Kerr was worried, too, about calling Highway 25 south of Milton, Bronte Rd. "People won't be able to find Milton," he said.

The region proposes new names for several roads in the north-west part of Milton. Ten Sideroad would become Ashgrove Rd., 15 Sideroad would be Sodom Rd., 20 Sideroad is proposed as Nassagaweya Rd. and 25 Sideroad would be called Elm Tree Rd. The Sixth Line from Campbellville Rd. to the northern town limits is proposed to be called Blue Springs Rd., and the Third Sideroad is to be renamed Kelso Rd.

Councillor Day said he was worried about a name like Sodom Rd. but councillors pointed out it was an old community name in the Nassagaweya area. There was once a Gomorrah there too.

Ashgrove Rd. will be a saw-off name, it was pointed out. In Halton Hills the present 10 Sideroad passed through the village of Ashgrove and it is proposed to carry the name across Halton, including the Milton side of the line. Similarly, Campbellville Rd., as it is known west of Highway 25, will carry the same name through the Halton Hills area.

Roads presently named Guelph Line, Campbellville Rd., Steeles Ave., Tremaine Rd., Derry Rd., Britannia Rd. and Trafalgar Rd. in Milton will continue to be known by those names, according to a map councillors saw at last week's meeting.

Councillor Brad Clements suggested the staff of the town, ambulance service, police and fire departments should also have a look at the new names, before they are finalized by the region.

Two-car mishap

A two-vehicle mishap on Church Street West produced a total of $750 in damages early Saturday morning.

The car driven by James Berry Hunter, of 290 Churchill Rd. N., has about $100 in damages, according to police.

The second car, which police say was parked and unoccupied at the time, is owned by John D. Emmerson of 216 McDonald Blvd. It has the balance of the damage total, as figured by police.

IT'S NOT all that bad, now is it? Snow can transform an ordinary scene into something beautiful. At night it contributes a feeling of quiet peace as it blankets the ground.
