Juves take Waterloo

Acton juveniles put on a fast skating, close checking display of hockey last night, tripling Waterloo 3-1 at the arena.

Point getters for the juves were Billy Manes, Bruce McPhail, Jeff Shields, Kevin Weir and Art Currie. They all either scored or earned a point with an assist. Waterloo had been blanked by goalie Paul Bollert until the last two minutes of the game. Jamie Vickery was outstanding on defence according to coach Mike Kinal.

He did not single out the goal scorers in talking to the Free Press saying "Some better players are not passing the puck."

The win raised the juves record to five wins, two losses and a tie.

Tonight they play in Hespeler, facing what Kinal calls "the only team that really can beat us."

Peewees split Dominion slid into first

Major peewees split over the week as they fell 6-1 to a fired up Elmira squad Saturday and turned around to top New Hamburg 4-1 Sunday.
