

IS IT REAL, asks Mrs. Lou Simpson Saturday as she pats Santa on the stomach as he visited Jeannette's Home for Senior Citizens. Santa came bearing gifts for everyone as the family of one of the residents entertained for the afternoon.

Families visit seniors

Christmas came early for the residents of Jeannette's Home for Senior Citizens on Main St. Saturday, two daughters and their families of one of the residents, Mrs. Alice Cormier, put on a Christmas party for the 35 men and women. Christmas carols were sung. The daughters' families, the Gordons and Wheatons, from Georgetown, brightened the seniors' holiday season. Santa Claus paid a visit also, and presented each resident with two gifts each from the two families. The presents from the Gordons for the women, handmade by Mrs. Cormier's grandchildren, were covered coat hangers. The men's gifts, also handmade by the children, were wooden plaques with their names on them, to hang over their beds. The Wheatons gave each resident cigarettes, tobacco or a box of chocolates. Grandson Wayne Wheaton kept Santa's reindeer at bay while Santa himself was busy distributing gifts. Jeannette Fernandes said she was very pleased with the party. She explained she is most grateful to the Gordon and Wheaton family. Mr. Wheaton said that although he felt the residents had a good time, he was disappointed more children and grandchildren did not get out to visit loved ones living in such residences, especially at this time of year. He said his family plans to visit once a month for a sing song and small party.

CHEEK TO CHEEK with Santa is Mrs. Alice Cormier of Jeannette's Home for Senior Citizens Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Cormier's daughters and their families entertained for the residents, and grandson Wayne Gordon played Santa's duties.

Colorful Wrap-Up Shows Individuality

A gift expresses you as uniquely as the way you sign your name. Your taste, creativity, even your sense of humor combine to make each gift a personal creation. Wrapping your gifts needn't leave you at loose ends. Here are some basic guidelines for your Christmas wrap-up.

Use a large, flat surface that will hold gift wrap supplies, in an area that you can work in undisturbed. If you have a dining table, use it and try to keep inquisitive prowlers away. Gather paper, ribbons, trims, stickers, double sided tape, scissors and gift tags together before you start.

Before wrapping, cut the paper to the right size. Cut paper wide enough to overlap slightly on girth of package and long enough to overlap again when ends are turned down. Center the gift upside down on cut paper. Turn the overlapping piece under and tape securely. Fasten ends by folding sides in, the top flap down and the bottom flap up. Secure with tape, seals or gift trim.

For odd shaped items such as tricycles, portable televisions, and doll houses, slip them into colored plastic gift bags and dress up with a big bow and candy cane.

For gifts you will be mailing, it is important to double-wrap. To protect your gift, place it in a larger cardboard box surrounded by crumpled newspaper. An inverted box lid will keep the bow from being crushed.

Sunday school awards at Baptist concert

Although cancellation had been considered, the Baptist congregation carried on with their supper and concert Sunday evening. And the church was close to full, says pastor the Rev. Das Sydney happily. A committee headed by Mrs. Edna Gordon planned the festive turkey dinner which was served first. The program in the church afterward included numbers by the Sunday school classes, the kindergartens, juniors, intermediates and seniors. A film strip included the singing of carols. Mrs. Diane McSweeney sang carols and Phil Brown and Dave Piehl sang duets. When Santa Claus arrived he had very special presents for the young people—awards for best Sunday School attendance. He also presented them with candy. There were gifts for the Sunday School teachers and superintendent Shirley Krause.

Georgetown train

The same locomotive which had to be pushed to Georgetown during winter's first big storm December 5 was also involved in the GO train derailment at Mimico on December 9. Not long after leaving Union Station the first GO train going to Georgetown on December 5 konked out and sat on the tracks at a dead stop until the second train came along and pushed it.
