

Wolfe hosts board

General Wolfe High School held its annual Christmas buffet Wednesday with prominent members of the Halton Board of Education as guests—the students of the school were the hosts.

The students designed the dining room layout, decorated the serving and dining areas, prepared the food, made the gifts and waited on the guests, with motivation and guidance from their instructors.

The quantity cooking department, the restaurant services area and the baking department were responsible for the buffet. The paint and decoration department and the horticulture department were responsible for decorations. The electrical department was also responsible for some of the decorations. The faculty was served from 11:30 a.m. until 12:15 p.m. Then, everything was replaced and cleaned up in preparation for the secretaries and directors from the Halton Board of Education at 12:30 p.m.

Santa Claus presented cards and gifts to all who attended the buffet, assisted by his handsome elf Doug Hole, of Georgetown, and his pretty assistants Lynn Muir of Georgetown, Marla Sousa and Sylvie Gilbert of Oakville.

Em Lavender, director of the Halton Board of Education, Bruce Mather, Superintendent of Programs, and Ted Pordage, Assistant to the Administrator, were the special guests of the school.

Mather celebrated his birthday Wednesday and received special attention from the students, especially Santa's helpers. Nichol said he was quite satisfied with the buffet, and particularly with the work of Mrs. Rush.

"Mrs. Rush motivated the students to the point where they were determined not to disappoint her," Nichol said. "It became important to them not to let her down when she assigned them work to do. And they all did their jobs. They should be pleased with their efforts."

Correction

In the program of the Family Night, sponsored by Dublin Women's Institute, in last week's edition of the Free Press, an error was made in the playlet "Squeaknibble's Christmas." It should have read "Hidden inside an improvised Grandfather clock, etc."

M. Z. BENNETT SCHOOL Grade 2's Angela Bridge, left, and Valerie Kekic prepare the entries for the Santa Silly Sandwich Party last week. The sandwiches, judged to be the funniest, most nutritious, biggest, etc., were made in the classes of teachers Joanne Kwasnicki and Linda Richardson.

Cafeteria organizes turkey dinner at school

A turkey dinner was held at the high school last Tuesday for students and teachers.

The cafeteria staff prepared the dinner for both lunch periods with special arrangements made for the grade 13 class.

Tables were put together in the cafeteria adorned with cloths and candles for the grade 13's. The students were dressed in suits for the guys and dresses for the girls when they sat down to enjoy the delicious meal.

For two dollars students bought a turkey dinner ticket which included turkey, stuffing, vegetables, potatoes, gravy, cranberry sauce, tomato juice, choice of beverage and plum pudding with caramel sauce for dessert.

Teachers from the other schools in Acton attended the Christmas dinner also.

SITTING ON SANTA'S LAP, perhaps wishing for a bigger budget for Christmas, is director of education for Halton Em Lavender. Standing around Santa (Alvin Cole of Oakville) are Sylvie Gilbert of Oakville, Doug Hole of Georgetown, Lynn Muir of Georgetown and Maria Sousa of Oakville. Lavender and his office staff were special guests at General Wolfe's annual Christmas buffet.

The New Year bells ring out... our hearty wishes for a prosperous New Year!

Truck winged on McDonald

A vehicle sideswiped a parked pickup truck on McDonald Boulevard, and kept on going Christmas Eve.

The identity of the vehicle which left the scene is as yet unknown.

Damage to the truck, owned by Lens Kuenzia of 6 Regen Rd., amounts to about $800, according to Halton Regional Police.

The truck was parked on the south side of McDonald Boulevard when the accident occurred.
