Five youngsters baptized Dec. 18

Four young Acton residents and one youngster from Guelph were the principals when Rev. Leonard Ewing administered the Rite of Holy Baptism in St. Alban the Martyr, Anglican Church on Sunday December 18.

Welcomed into the church by members of the congregation at the service of Holy Eucharist were: David Albert Charles Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brooks, R.R. 2 Acton; Mark Laird Cairncross son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cairncross, 43 Kingham Road; Thomas Joseph Charles Geneau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Geneau; Edward James Spencer Moysse, son of Mrs. Thelma Moysse, 60 Main Street, S.; and Amand Marie Bosch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bosch, R.R. 2, Guelph, Ontario.

Following the service, the newly baptised, their parents and sponsors met with the members of the parish at a coffee hour to give everyone the opportunity to meet the new members and welcome visitors to St. Alban's.

Entertain

Miss Jean McLean entertained her piano pupils and their parents at her home on December 20. She was assisted by Mrs. Merkle.
