

Happy family visits

by Mrs. A. Benton
 Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brooks on the arrival of a little daughter at hospital in Milton the evening of Jan. 4.

Mrs. E. Sanford has returned from Edmonton where she spent the holiday season with her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. James Evans.

Mrs. Jas. Noble was home with the John W. Noble's for Christmas. She now lives at Halton Centennial Manor.

Christmas eve service of carols was quite well attended. Several Sunday School children sang at the church service on Jan. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. B. Sheppard had their family home for Christmas holidays, Suzanne from Kingston, Robert from Toronto and John from London. All spent Christmas Day in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Quinton of Meaford were among those with the Bert Bentons.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown hosted for the Brown families numbering about forty, for Christmas dinner in Limehouse Memorial Hall on December 25.

Others travelling during the season included: Mrs. Glynn to Woodbridge and King at Christmas. The Roughleys with the Rev. McKenzies in Acton, Mrs. Mills and Miss Helen to Barrie, Mrs. Mileham with son Fred Morgan and wife in Brampton after entertaining the Mileham families at home for lunch.

Mrs. R. Mitchell with the John Michies to Mrs. Geo. Michie and family home at Schomberg. The Linhams with the Longstreets at Orton.

Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin had the Robert Lindsay family and the Allen Jennings from Palmerston.

The Crichtons with the Haines in Glen Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Booth entertained their families, as did Mr. and Mrs. H. Norton.

Mr. Sam Gisy formerly of Limehouse was with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gisy in Guelph for Christmas.

Mrs. Booth, W. I. president, presided at the home of Mrs. Benton on Thursday. She wished all a Happy New Year and read, "The Emmaus Road." Roll call. The first home I remember living in, brought interesting stories from all Canada and to Germany.

After considerable discussion a committee was appointed to plan a picnic and rally to observe July 1 on the proper day. Another work meeting for the needlepoint course will be held on Jan. 11 and Summary Day will be Feb. 8 at Hillcrest Church.

Motto, Growing Old Gracefully was well explained physically and spiritually by Mrs. F. T. C. Brown, and Mrs. Crichton capably handled current events.

Delegates to annual convention where the theme was "Happiness Is", Mrs. N. Anderson and Mrs. W. Kirkwood gave splendid reports. The gift stall there realized $275.60, adult courses and 4-H projects will follow a new pattern, the convention place may be moved to different districts, pennies for friendship brought 15,280, last year. A retirement gift to Miss McKercher including a joke, Limehouse 4-H were one of the two who had a display. The meeting opened with "My Old Kentucky Home" and closed with "God Be With You."

Standing committee conveners had interesting items and program convener Mrs. Benton displayed the Tweedsmuir history books.

Mrs. Moulden extended courtesies and lunch convener Mrs. Mileham and Mrs. Benton served refreshments.

BA-BIA meeting

A joint dinner meeting will be held Feb. 15 by the Acton Business Association and the Business Improvement Area. Plans were made at an executive meeting Tuesday.

During the joint meeting, an election will be held for board of management of the BIA. There will also be a speaker.

The regular meeting of the Business Association is tonight (Wednesday) at the 747 Lounge.

W.I. debates happy women

by Winifred Smith
 The first meeting of the New Year for the W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Jamieson on the afternoon of January 4. Twelve members answered the roll call which proved to be quite interesting when each had a beef which could be used for a resolution.

Members were pleased to welcome back Mrs. Reta Shortill who through illness has not been able to attend meetings as regularly as she would have liked.

Mrs. Emily Plouffe gave a report on the area convention which she attended in November. Mrs. Slessorath also commented favorably on the convention. Mrs. Marshall reported on the Christmas boxes which she and her committee had distributed and said around 15 boxes of fruit were given to the sick and shut-ins this year.

Mrs. Eileen McEnery, as resolutions convener, took over the meeting. She read the motto which had been prepared by Mrs. Ada Kirkwood. It was "One of today's weaknesses is to distinguish our needs from our greeds."

The program was to end in a debate "Resolved that the Liberated Woman gets more satisfaction out of her life than a non-liberated woman." It turned out to be a good conversation piece in which all members had their say. It turned out they came to the conclusion that if women were happy in whatever they were doing that was all that mattered.

W.I. grace was sung. Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Smith assisted the hostess with lunch.

An impressive sermon was given by the pastor, at the church service on Sunday. It was simply "Praying". Mr. Paul Schwartz sang beautifully "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Holy Communion will be observed at the service next Sunday.

Ospringe Welcome to newcomers

By Doris Fines
 Mr. and Mrs. Brian Gibson of Guelph have purchased the Upshall house in the village, and are busy getting settled. We cordially welcome them into the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McKenzie and Linda, accompanied by Bonna and Wayne Hilliard of Guelph, were vacationing up north during the Christmas holidays. They stayed at the Blue Spruce Inn on Ox Tongue Lake, near Dorset, and had an enjoyable time snowmobiling. They enjoyed also the

New Year's party at the lodge with dinner at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Schotsch, Heidi and Michael, spent the holiday week visiting with Mrs. Schotsch's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pink at Burk's Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Ferguson, Mrs. Thomas Fines and Doris Fines, also Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson and Danny of Fergus, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson at Belwood. It was a belated New Year's day.

CVCA report due soon

Halton Hills works committee took steps Monday night to ensure a Credit Valley Conservation Authority (CVCA) report concerning Glen Williams ice jams and the old Paper Mill Dam, will come to council.

A CVCA letter to the town states that a final consultant's report will be discussed with the staff of the town and the region. No mention was made of Halton Hills council.

The absence of mention of the town was noted by Councillor George Maltby.

The CVCA states it expects the report early this month. Councillor Les Duby, who sits on the CVCA, said he would look into the question. Councillor Peter Pomeroy noted the final paragraph of the CVCA letter is "a little ambiguous". "I assume it means council," he said.

You know the festive season is passing when the Bank of Montreal staff gets busy after hours and rubs off the Christmas snow pictures from the windows.

Car leaves crash site

One of the drivers involved in a $200 two-car collision in the Foodland Store parking lot last week, left the scene.

Halton Regional Police state Sharon Lawrence, of 170 York St., left the parking lot without realizing a collision took place.

The other car, owned by Marjorie Humenick of 160 Churchill Rd. S., was parked facing east.

Police estimate damage to each vehicle at $100.
